APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

When the Hierarchy is present, some situations of adversity do not materialize on the surface, because it is the Presence of the Hierarchy that avoids it. Furthermore, these situations are dissolved when souls and hearts join Me in this proposal, however unknown it may seem, although it may be difficult to understand.

This is why the Hierarchy counts on the servers, It counts on prayerful beings, on those who are open to live in adherence to follow the steps that the Hierarchy determines in these times.

Although externally it may seem that time continues on to be the same, I tell you, My children, to be careful, so that you not be deceived, but rather let your hearts be watchful and attentive to the signs that the Hierarchy gives in this cycle, signs that try to avoid many situations within nations, many of which are unknown to all.

This is why the Hierarchy is here. There would be no other reason to be here at this planetary moment and in this cycle. Thus, the Eternal Father counts on all those who are consistent, on those who need to know how to respond to the Call of the Father, thus learning just like the Hierarchy of this planet and this humanity, knowing that above all there is a perfect Plan to be fulfilled and this part of the Plan must first be fulfilled in you, and then be fulfilled in the world.

In this way, the Hierarchy opens the door of Its Heart so that you may enter, with the mission that you may feel and think as the Hierarchy feels and thinks, that you may learn to live in the Law of Impermanence. Because the Plan is not static, the Plan is not based on the law of inertia, but rather it is dynamic in this final cycle, because there are so many needs and emergencies that the time I am with you would not be enough to explain them to you.

But, yes, the Spiritual Hierarchy can encompass many things, the Spiritual Hierarchy can attend many situations of the planet and of humanity. At this moment, think of all that is happening in different places of the Earth, while the Hierarchy is here, speaking to you, while the Hierarchy is here, transmitting Its impulses to you.

How many, how many consciousnesses indeed suffer at this very moment, from hunger, war, persecution, migration, terminal diseases and very hard tests!

How many, how many, in effect, are far from the Grace of God!

And you, My children, can you perceive and value the Grace that is upon you, which, In spite of what you have lived in these last years, has not distanced itself from you, that Grace has not moved away from your hearts?

Learn to appreciate what the Spiritual Hierarchy delivers to you, because We will never give you material treasures. This is not the mission of the Hierarchy, of any Hierarchy of this Sidereal

Universe. The treasures We can give you as a legacy are inner, they are incalculable gifts that not only transform your lives, but also place your consciousnesses where they should have always been.

For this reason, think for a moment of how much you have walked in this universal trajectory. Of how many doors you have knocked on, waiting for them to open. However, remember that there is only one door that will always open, which is the door that the whole world is forgetting in these times. It is forgetting to knock on the Door of God's Heart, to enter His Eternal Kingdom, His Kingdom of Gifts, Graces and Mercies, of incalculable and inexhaustible treasures that human eyes cannot value nor appreciate, but which the soul that truly prays with its heart can appreciate and value.

For this reason, in these times, I call on you not to waste the treasures of the Hierarchy, as some have done in an ignorant and inconsequent manner.

Unique are the opportunities that We will give to all. Unique will be the doors that We will open in these final times. Because Heaven and Earth shall pass, but the Word of My Son will always remain alive in the heart open to transformation, alive in the heart thirsty for the Word of Christ, alive in the heart that is not afraid of transforming itself, alive in the heart that does not fear to say 'yes' to the unknown, to that which it cannot touch or see, to that which is alive in the Immaterial Universe.

Therefore, value your spirits, recognize the existence of your inner temple, recognize the existence of your inner universe, and see how men and women of the Earth have to endure suffering, are disconnected from the Divine, are in depression or madness because they cannot unite to their souls.

But what else can We do for this to be solved, for the whole world to perceive that it is the time of Armageddon and that the Universal Laws will be fulfilled more than ever?

Therefore, align your thought, align your feelings. Be consequent with the work of charity and service. I assure you, My children, in the name of Christ, that you will be protected from yourselves. Because My enemy, the great adversary of all, will never affect what is Divine and Eternal. It works on what is mundane, lowly and vulnerable.

Elevate your consciousnesses, so as to elevate your vibrations. The secure bridge for that will always be prayer. When you cease to pray, you will disconnect. When you cease to serve, you will become desperate, and it will not be fair to put the blame on God.

Be capable of humbling and recognizing yourselves, because if someone does not do so, will the world?

Who will justify before the Father all the errors committed up to the present moment?

Who will be capable of sustaining the sin of war or the shedding of blood throughout the world, knowing that, since more than two-thousand years ago, we have been accompanying each one of your steps and tests through Our Hearts?

This is the time to mature. The school of children ended a long time ago. It is time for you to assume with Us the planetary situation. It is time to forge of yourselves the best of what My Son needs so as to fulfill His Return.

Our Words are no longer poetry. Our Words are now affirmations, the last affirmations of the end of times.

Therefore, it is time for you to grow internally. It is time for decided and not tepid apostles. It is time for you to show your face for My Son. Because the world must not succumb, abortion must not prevail, the sin of priests must not prevail, because all of this strengthens impunity, injustice and that which you call disgrace.

Remember that you will always have a place in the Heart of the Hierarchy, even those who have taken a step back, those who have forgotten their commitment to Christ. Despite all of this, My Son has forgiven them, just as He forgave them on the top of the Cross. He not only forgave all those who hurt and humiliated Him more than two-thousand years ago, He gave His Being for all of you up to the present and up to the last day of the Earth.

For this reason, God, at this moment, has His Book open, and He has deterred His Hand, He has stopped writing, waiting for souls to be the ones who will write the new history of humanity.

Do not become distracted while I am speaking to you, because today I only have permission to say these things to you. You know that, as your Mother, the Mother of humanity, I will go on until the end, until I achieve what I need for the redemption and conversion of My children.

Therefore, stop and meditate upon what I just told you a moment ago: God has deterred His pen and stopped writing.

Which souls will be the ones to offer to write the redemption of the world?

Which hearts will be postulants for the world and for the project not to be triggered?

Which consciousnesses will give their lives to be witnesses of the Return of Christ, which is very near?

The Celestial Father is speaking through Me, and this is not an analogy. He is speaking to all, just as He spoke to the people of Israel. Because He aspires that His sacred people not only keep loving, but that they may be a part of His Kingdom, the Celestial Kingdom that must descend to Earth at the Sacred Return of the Lord.

He comes to get His apostles of the last times.

Children, this is not romantic, it is something concrete that My Son needs to see with His own Eyes, and you, more than anyone else, know what you must give to Him.

Why are you waiting to take the step?

My Son is thirsty, thirsty to be loved, to satiate the anguish of His Heart for those who suffer and have to endure.

My Son is thirsty to be adored, for those who make sacrileges on His Altar and pierce His Heart with insults and sins.

Who will be the souls that will console Him, in eternal trust and service?

This will allow the Hand of God to keep writing the new history. This will grant the world peace, the peace that has been outraged, the love in hearts that has been violated, as impunity has left many nations in slavery.

My Son, more than anyone, knows that this must soon end.

If He, two-thousand years ago, walked among you and carried in His Heart the experience of being with His friends and companions, how many of you saw Him preach? Do you remember?

How many of you witnessed His miracles?

How many went to the sepulcher to adore Him, knowing that He was the Messiah?

Now, He sends Me once again to the world, just as He sent His apostles to preach on the Earth.

He ardently wishes that souls no longer be His stigmas, but He rather wishes souls to be the very joy that springs from His Heart, and to be capable of understanding that there is a Plan to fulfill and, until that happens, Our Voice will not be silenced in this place or in any other.

For this reason, I am His Servant and Slave, who keeps appearing throughout the times to warn the world about the moment it is going through and enduring.

Our Cores overflow with Mercy. In Our Blood, the Grace of God circulates. Our Hands are full of blessings for all.

Who remembered today to go the Fountain to drink? This is what humanity is forgetting.

How to justify so many errors before the Law? Even the errors of those who were appointed by My Son and turned their backs on Him.

Remember that He will not come as a Judge. He will come as your Liberator, as the King of kings, as the Glorified Christ.

Now, may My Words reach the innermost core of your beings so that the seeds may be cultivated in your hearts, because I assure you that you will need them when these seeds germinate and are once again offered to the Eternal Father, through the sacrifice and love of hearts.

If weapons do not stop, what I so much tried to avoid in Fatima will happen in the end: a destructive world war.

My tears are now the very Rosary for the innocent, not only for the war in Ukraine, but also for those wars that are hidden by humanity, in places such as Africa and the Middle East, so that no one may know about impunity.

However, My Grace and My Heart are offered at the Feet of the Eternal Father, for all who are mistreated, subjected and persecuted in the wars.

Now, I allow you to meditate upon what I have told you. Because, as I told you, My children, it is time to grow internally.

And in this consecration of new Children of Mine, I want you to know that the commitment that you will live today will be on the level of consciousness that I have presented to you. Therefore, you must be quite aware that you will do so, because My own Son will call you by your names, to remind you of what you have committed to, through this consecration.

I want to ask My children of all this Work not to become involved with the things of the world, because otherwise you will not be consequent with what you have received and lived. It is not time to confront one another, for ideologies, beliefs or concepts. My Son does not need you there. Do not create conditions for My adversary to infect this Work, because I will not be able to intercede. Be consistent and unite in all that which We have taught to you with so much effort.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

The Mother asks if you have understood.

Those present respond: Yes!

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

She said, Thank you!

I do not come here to present to you a school of Justice. I come here to present to you a school of Love, because your hearts are not ready to listen to these things and realize, by yourselves, that if you let yourselves be dragged by the things of the world, you will move away from Our paths.

Be intelligent through prayer and you will be persevering, just as My Son needs you. For this reason, I am here, and I am your Mother, the Mother of the apostles of Christ.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

The Children of Mary may approach.

Today, we will not sing the Hymn of Consecration. Today, I ask you for the hymn of inner consecration, by means of a sincere and honest affirmation with the Hierarchy. This is what My Son needs.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

You may approach and kneel down.

I want you to relive this Message as many times as you need. Because when you are alone, quiet and in silence, your consciousnesses will expand even more and, through My Message, you will reach the essence of all that which I meant to say to you.

Never forget that all that which I say and all that I have said throughout the centuries is for love, only for love, for your own good, for your evolution, for your awakening.

With the authority that Christ has given Me, in the name of His Love, Wisdom and Truth, at this culminating moment of the planet, in which My Heart opens up to pour out the Graces that you need, your Most Holy Mother, the Virgin Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth, Guardian of souls and hearts, blesses you as My children, My spiritual children who, as from now on, will learn how to serve Christ: in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

With the meditation that I have offered to you for the growth of your consciousness, I wish that we may raise this inner offering through the Spiritual Communion, so that you may deepen, through the Eucharist, into all that the Father has asked Me to tell you today.

I thank all those who made this meeting possible.

You know that Aurora is always in My Heart, just as each one of you is in My Heart.

I thank all those who will be consistent in the manifestation of the Work of the Hierarchy in this new stage of the Pilgrimage for Peace, for peace within hearts, for peace within families, for peace within sinners, for peace in the nations, for peace throughout the whole world.

I leave here happy.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
