DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS??

Enter the precinct of your heart to understand that, in these times, the first law is love; love above all imperfections, defects, disagreements, prides and vanities.

The only tool that will be able to protect you from evil, child of Mine, is love; love to the neighbor, love to the Kingdoms of Nature, love to the Plan of God.

If you do not open your heart to learn loving things as they are - and thus, lead them to be transformed into what they truly must be -, you will submerge in the misunderstanding, in arrogance and in the permanent competition. You have before you two outstretched hands so that you choose a path to follow. There are no other options: one is the hand of God and the other, the hand of chaos.

Many have already chosen the hand of chaos and today they are found in the midst of a dark battle without rules; but you, child, have before you the conscious option of transcending the darkness of your interior through the triumph of love in your heart. That is why I call you to ask for forgiveness, to overcome your pride and to discover the grace of being humble and fulfill the designs of the Creator.

I ask you to reconcile yourself with the neighbor, in offer to the Middle East<sup>1</sup>, but also with your own heart, which in its immaturity and ignorance, has not learned how to love.

I ask you these things, Child of Mine, because you no longer have so much time to plant seeds in the flowerbed of your existence and of the human life as a whole. Soon the time will come in which you will only harvest what you have sown, and you will eat from the fruits of the trees that have grown in your garden.

When I tell you to ask for forgiveness and register what you have done, it is in order for you to deepen yourself into your exercise of humility and reveal to everyone your imperfections, so that thus, you give an example to humanity of how simple it is to take a step towards love.

Today I tell you, child, that I will not ask you only that. I will also ask you not to only make an act of forgiveness, if every day you live far away from fraternity. This act of forgiveness of yours must be permanent, constant and eternal, because the closer the Armageddon gets to the planet, the more you will have to forgive what happens in and outside of you.

That is why I need that you keep on forgiving, that you keep on giving examples of love and forgiveness to humanity, so that these examples may reach all those of your brothers and sisters who need an inspiration to take their steps. But do not only be an example recorded on a video in the social networks: be yourself, child of Mine, a daily, permanent example, who let yourself be humbled by yourself and ask for forgiveness each time that your heart is separated from the God that inhabits in your brothers and sisters.

Do not be afraid of doing what I ask you, because - when the time passes by, and you may no longer be able to do it - it will not be enough to regret for not having done it.

I leave, in your heart, My blessing and My impulse so that you move forward.
