

Thursday, June 16 of 2016

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF LOS COCOS, CÓRDOBA, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS???

Children,

Making mistakes and being ignorant before the Wisdom and the Truth of the Creator has become a commonplace thing in human consciousness. And going astray from the path and getting lost is not the biggest sin of humankind, as the stimuli of the world offer them so many paths along which to get distracted and to get lost.

The big sin of humankind is to continue to walk in the wrong direction, when they have in truth realized they are not in the correct place.

The big sin is not to accept the Hand of God, which extends to you and invites you to return to the point where you were before making the mistake.

It is the big human pride that keeps you from discovering the truth. It is the big ignorance that hides behind pride that makes you feel cognizant of all things and masters of your own destiny.

Some souls, children, have committed themselves with God, since the beginning, to carry out the reparation of universal mistakes by means of their own redemption. It is for this reason that the Lord insists so much and tries in every way to help you take your steps.

However, the effort of God alone is not enough, because the Creator cannot live redemption within your spirits and cannot overcome your tests for you, because otherwise there would be no merit in coming to the world.

Children, in prayer for the souls, I come to ask you to surrender before God, to submit your own resistances, despite the fear you feel, and to let yourselves live this surrender and remove from you the control of your own lives.

Live surrender without fear of losing yourselves.

Live surrender without fear of not fulfilling your own goals.

Live surrender without fear of letting go your own plans, aspirations, desires, conquests and defeats.

Live surrender without fear of truly coming to know yourselves and discovering that nothing you appeared to be is what you are.

Children, come to the Heart of God without fear. Nothing bad can happen to you. The pain you will feel is part of the illusion that you live; it is the pain of dying to the world and discovering a new life; it is the pain of hurting that which you have always nourished and strengthened through the illusions; it is the pain of acknowledging your own mistakes and of discovering that you are imperfect.

Live the freedom of knowing that you do not belong to this world and that, in truth, you are not this corrupted matter.

Live the truth of uniting to God and of letting yourselves be guided by Him without having to worry about your own destinies.

Live the freedom of not having to seek anything, not competing, not coveting, not wanting to be, to know, to feel or to live, but only to let yourselves be, feel and live for God.

It is the intention that will lead you to this encounter. It is renunciation that will open the path to you. It is surrender that will make you free.

That one who came to know the truth and who now calls you to this path,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph