

Monday, November 7, 2016

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SAN JOSE, COSTA RICA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Rejoice for what you have achieved and do not sorrow for what you have not yet lived.

Be that vital instrument in the Hands of God that is at the service of the One Will.

Leave behind the influences of evil. Believe, despite any obstacle, in the strength and the power of My Immaculate Heart; in this way, detach from what is old and recalcitrant, from all that crystallizes the life of the spirit.

That is to say, try this each day until you manage to do it, not with sophisticated methods or with formulas, but rather through the great key of love.

Forgive, and do not get tired of doing it; the human condition is something genetic, hereditary, and millenary, the life itself of an incarnated consciousness would not be enough to purify and transform something that is centuries old.

But the sacred christic energy is what redeems any condition of the consciousness and it is what makes it possible to reinsert the soul into its rightful spiritual.

This Christic energy of love can do all things, because the one who opens themselves to receive it loses the control or the dominion that they have over many things.

It is the merciful Love of My Son that will lead you into re-encountering your true essence and your true inner union with the Father-Mother Creator.

At this time do not seek to solve everything; first, trustfully surrender to the Universe and you will never lack peace.

The project of humanity is still in its phase of redemption. For this reason, nothing will remain without being stirred up so that the real surface being may finally emerge.

Trust in what I tell you and so it shall be.

I thank you for responding to My call.

Who elevates you with love to the Kingdom of God,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace