MESSAGE FOR THE APPARITION IN THE CITY OF MONTEVIDEO, URUGUAY, TRANSMITTED BY THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY TO SISTER LUCÍA

Blessed are those who cross over the times of the strong inner winds.

Blessed are those who trust in My word.

Blessed will be My children, those of you who are overcoming their own selves will overcome also the evil and will find My Kingdom, the Paradise.

Blessed are those who deny the things of the world to guard for their own selves only things of the Heavens.

Blessed are those who extend their hands to their brothers and sisters and allow them to take the first place in the Boat of Salvation.

Blessed are the humble and simple because they will find God in their own hearts and in the hearts of their brothers and sisters.

Blessed always are the poor, the poor of their own selves, the poor of the world, the poor of evil and lacking in love. Because they for sure will search for Me and for My Son above all things.

Blessed are those of you who, without fear of evil, will trust in the promise of God and will live in their own selves His miracles of transformation.

Blessed are those who abandon everything to follow me because together with Me they will always be secure.

The blessed in this time My children, it is in purity that your hearts may reach, it is in humility and in simplicity, it is in trust in God, and with courage walking in the direction towards Him.

I come to put in your hearts the power of the Blessings.

I come sowing in this city and in this world the Peace and the Glory of God, because through Me many will awake and through you, when awakened, many more will follow Me.

I want valiant hearts, courageous, that may live the truth of God without fear of being crazy to the world, because from many things they will be called and by many more names will those who follow Me be called. They will try to hurt you with words and with actions, but I will always be as the Glorious shield of your hearts.

Because I am That who accompanied Christ, that helped him to grow with a heart full of the Love of God that prepared Him to live the Laws of the Lord, and the one who supported Him with a heart and with a glance while he was flagellated, while He was walking with the cross, and while He was suffering for the Love of God and for the Forgiveness of the world.

My Heart was always united with the Heart of Christ.

My arms waited for His body magnetized by Glory, when they took My Son, already not living, down from the cross more than any suffering that I could live I knew the Glory of God and His Will, as I also know in this time.

If My Heart could guide a Christ in that time how many more could I guide today?

I only ask you to trust in Me and in My Maternity.

Walk with Love and with Courage.

I will guide you always.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.
