

Sunday, January 1 of 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Dear children,

In the great battles, prayer wins through the love that each soul pours, from within, for the other souls.

My little ones, today I invite you to pray with sincerity for the restoration of all souls that were immersed in the path of festivities through the impulses of the earthly life. I call you today to the reparative prayer for all hearts that, without knowing, have lost the brightness of the flame that united them with the Creator God.

Therefore, My little ones, to relieve the pain of the souls that have distanced themselves from their true Father of Love, I call you to collaborate in humility with all these souls through your union with the Heavens in the daily exercise of prayer.

Many hearts on this day will feel distanced from everything and they will not be able to understand why. For this reason, My little children, I call you, who by Grace have known the power of prayer, to exercise the love in the heart for all brothers and sisters who through these worldly festivities are deceived by the false love.

To come to know the Divine Love, we must pray and thus tepid souls will be able to strengthen themselves in this last hour in the world. My Blessed Mercy is being poured over all hearts, but now My Immaculate Heart needs true missionaries of prayer.

With the praying beings in the world, the planet will be consecrated to My Immaculate Heart, after everything that will happen with humankind and the peoples. But if there are not true hearts donated to prayer, it will cost much to the world to surrender itself at the feet of the Supreme God. Humanity in each little heart is being called by My Immaculate Heart to consecrate itself to God in the redeeming prayer.

Still there is much to learn in this world, but My Heart prepares the hearts for the final time. I am in each one of you, perceiving and loving you as the Mother of Peace. It is necessary, My little ones, that all come to know the Kingdom of Peace in order to recognize thus that the Light of God is close to each soul that seeks it.

God loves you. God wants to redeem you. God awaits each heart to surrender itself before His Merciful Love. There is still time for all hearts to convert themselves. Heaven is opening its doors for those who, even without understanding, may aspire for their own rehabilitation. The Divine Lord awaits you for the supper of communion with His Most Holy Heart.

Who contemplates you from the Heart,

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity