Apparition of Christ Jesus, May 5, 2017

And you will see coming among the clouds the Son of Man, surrounded by Glory, splendor, and joy. You will see Him coming with all of His angels and the authority of His archangels, together with the twelve choirs that will proclaim the return of the Firstborn.

You will see Him coming in His splendor, just as the Sun rises on the horizon to illumine the night, which was in darkness.

The uncertain portals will be closed when the trumpets of the angels sound. And the Almighty will make Himself present in the Primordial Essence of His Heart and through the radiation of Light of the Love of His Son, for all His creatures.

There will be no night for a long time. The night of darkness will finally disappear and the unredeemed will be carried into living their inner judgment before the Creator Fathers and the Judges of the Law.

Just as the Son of God will come, subsequently the Mother of God will come. And not only will She be surrounded by twelve stars, but the whole Universe will be Her infinite mantle in humanity.

For that time that is approaching, you will see the victory of the self-summoned; sadness will no longer be upon their faces, for they will reflect the healing and the hope in their deep gaze before the Celestial Universe.

You will thus see the new brotherhood take each other's hands, to again generate the union and the fraternity that humanity has lost because of its indifference and its mistake.

The Son of God will place the Golden Scepter on the planet and with a simple touch of Light, it will illumine the face of the Earth, and all the languages and all the peoples, in spite of their differences and cultures, will understand the Word of God, which will emanate from His deep merciful Heart.

At that moment, only one language will be spoken throughout the world, which is the language of Love and Truth, and all will understand it.

In that time that is approaching and while you wait for it, purify your feelings, purify your actions, purify your consciences, so that My Father may carry out His wonders in each one of His children, as well as in each essence of this planet, because in this way, My enemy will not find you, for you will be in the refuge of My Glorified Heart, living the new Supper with Me, the eternal Restorative Communion with the Heart of God.

And thus the bells of the Universe will ring and the doors to the new time will open. The cries of souls will no longer be heard, nor the lament of the mothers of the Earth. The women will no longer cry and the prophecy will be reverted ahead of time.

The Archangel Gabriel, in the company of all the saints, will open the Book of the Wisdom of God, to read in the coming time, the new Scriptures about the new Laws of the new humanity.

Sin will be eradicated and descendants will no longer be part of the new humanity.

It will not be part of Adam and Eve. Original sin will be eradicated and the new race will have the Grace of living in God forever.

Evil feelings will be dissipated because of the deep feeling of Love and of Unity. Happy are those who live it in this time, as an inner preparation for the arrival of the Great Master of the Universe.

I want you today to be flowers on My Altar, expressions of love and of beauty for the Creator of the Universe.

Today, with the blessed and the self-summoned for this sacred mission, we celebrate the inner unity that can be generated in the hearts that are simple, seekers of the truth and of peace, peacemakers of My Heart and messengers of My Divine Consciousness.

Today, I also pray for a new world, for a new redeemed humanity, that is consistent with the Universe, with the Laws and the commandments. And thus they will testify to the Son of God, present in humble hearts, who live the grandeur of the Celestial Universe.

May the sacred Words be fulfilled, and may the divine Decrees be carried out in this humanity and in the next, because today you are part of a transition; the end of a cycle and the beginning of a new cycle on this Earth.

May the advent of the new be fulfilled. May hearts awaken to the call. May the self-summoned always respond to the convening. And may the new history of the planet be written, through those who unconditionally serve God.

May charity reign among souls and fraternity be expressed in simple spirits. May no one lose the sense of living this life, which the Father has given them with so much Love; and that in spite of their illnesses and trials, accept purification with humility. Because the old wine must be thrown away, so the new wine, which is the New Covenant between humankind and God, can be placed in you. This is possible through the merciful power of My Heart.

May My Decrees be written in your memories and may My Words, one by one, be printed on paper, recorded in the books of all languages of the world. I am still waiting for that to happen.

It will be through the servants of the nations of the world who will help this, My request, to be concretize. May My Words be in all languages, in all peoples, as well as in all cultures, which must rediscover the Love of God, a Love that they have lost because of their suffering, their pain, their indifference.

Blessed are those who listen with the humility of the heart, because the words are balms of healing, a renewal for consciousnesses, a freeing for the past, the beginning of a new cycle.

Let us celebrate in the Father, in the Son, and in the Holy Spirit, so that the promise of the Son of God may be established in this humanity.

While the trumpets of the angels sound to announce the new, may your souls proclaim the exaltation to God, because it is He who grants all these things to a mistaken, indifferent, and selfish humanity. Be all partakers of the Communion with Christ and renew again your vows, as if it were for the first time, bringing into your hearts all My subtle Vibrations, so that in truth and once and for all, you may be transformed into what God expects of your lives, because this is the last opportunity before everything happens.

Heaven and Earth will pass, but My Words will remain. Amen.

You will remember why you will be blessed:

Because I was hungry and you fed Me.

Because I was cold and you gave Me shelter.

Because I was sick and My brothers and sisters visited Me.

Because I was imprisoned and you came to see Me, to bring hope to the hearts that suffer.

Because I was thirsty and you gave Me to drink.

Because I was dying and you helped Me.

I was homeless and you welcomed Me.

You washed My Hands and My Feet, My Head and My Face, in the smallest and most innocent, to heal Me of the horrors of the wars.

Because I was in the mothers, who in their desperation sought peace, and gave it to Me.

These are the causes of the testimony of My Love for you.

I want you to always remember fraternity and be like Me in each daily act of life. Thus, the enemy will perish and the brothers and sisters will no longer be against their siblings, but rather will be united through the splendor of My Heart and of My Wisdom. Amen.

Leaving your past behind and living on My path of renewal, be sanctified by the sacraments that I gave you, so that life may be reborn and thus hope and healing may reappear in souls

Happy are those invited to the Table of the Lord, for they will have eternal life.

Raising My right Hand on High, placing My left Hand on the Merciful Heart; bringing the luminous sign of the Cross, I bless you, and those who suffer, those who most need it in every part of this world, as in every continent and in every nation, in the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

I thank you for accompanying Me, for your company is indispensable to Me.

Christ Jesus
