

Wednesday, March 6 of 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED BY FRIAR ELÍAS

May peace be in this house of My Father. May My Holy Spirit of Love reverberate forever in your poor hearts. May My Love nourish you and renovate you through your absolute trust in My Sacred Heart.

Today do not fear showing Me your faults because before My merciful Eyes your hearts are as crystalline as Heaven and as open as the flower. The world needs to confess every day because in each new confession the conversion of souls becomes possible.

For this do not fear to tell Me the truth because in this way you will allow, in the name of the ones who do not confess, that the lie that mislead souls and is are diffused by the enemy may dissolve itself and liberate itself through My Redeeming Fire.

My dears:

Today I remind you of this important sacrament for the heart and for reaching the sublime purity. The times accelerate themselves and many do not find the peace that they need to be able to show themselves as true and worthy children of God.

Be attentive to the signs of Heaven because now has come the moment in which all the universe will begin to talk. For this you must be prepared through prayer and daily confession. Be encouraged to direct to Me the words that spring from your hearts because in this way, in joy and mercy, I will hear you, I will be able to calm the force of thought, I will free you from preoccupations and you will be in My Holy Peace.

Many prefer to live in constant sin and forget that they form part of the project of Love of God. Now I am asking that you may open yourselves deeply every day and that you may allow that My Light purifies you and may find a healthy dwelling to raise My temple of prayer.

I want to live, as My Holy Mother, in the heart of all of the families. The enemy wants to dominate them and to make them fight between themselves. For this open the door to Me! Because My Merciful Love will protect you and will guide you through the paths of peace. May peace reign among people.

Under the Eternal Light of the Father, be merciful.

Thank you for reverencing My words with love!

Christ Jesus.