

Saturday, May 6 of 2017

I have come from Heaven with a special intention: to recognize and honor those who are consistent with Me in their deepest silence, in the anonymity of their person, in an unconditional life, in service to their fellow beings. In all of this, I honor those who are consistent with Me, because it does not matter what they are, but rather what they feel when they are before My Merciful Heart.

It is thus that I consecrate you, I renew you, I give you the essence of My Life, which is the legacy of My Divinity; that which was attained during the Passion on the Cross. For all those who would be consistent with Me, I also let Myself die on the Cross, because I knew that I would find you at the end of times, to be able to carry My final Work forward on the planet.

All the blood shed, each pain experienced, as well as each transmutation expressed by each one of My Wounds, were not only for sinners, but also for those I offered Myself for, to see them working on My Plan in these times and carrying on My designs, both in the silence of their lives, and in their moments of prayer. And each time you are united with Me, this promise is fulfilled and renewed.

It is thus that I visit the New Christs, the new temples and the new dwelling places, transformed by Me, worked by My Hands, molded by My Spirit, and filled by My purest Love, the Love that comes from My Heart, from My Essence, and from My Life in this Celestial Universe.

So that I might find you in this time, in the different regions of the planet, in your different peoples and nations, My Father had to mark you with the gift of awakening, which is the grace of being aware of what it means to be on this planet and in this humanity, for these times, knowing what it is that must be done, what must be fulfilled and carried out by your Master and Lord.

Thus, I come to withdraw the keys from those who waste them. The keys are the symbol of the spiritual treasure, of the trust of the Most High in all that He has granted by the work and grace of the Holy Spirit.

Withdrawing these keys from those who did not know how to benefit from them, I place them in the hands of the consistent, of the anonymous, of those who have allowed themselves to be won by My Love rather than by material life.

In this way, I build a great network of souls, at the service of the Redeemer and of the Eternal Father. Because behind all this mystery is your Celestial Father, Who decrees and accomplishes all things.

Today I come to anoint the consistent of these times. Today I mark them again, this time with the luminous sign of the Cross, symbol of the Redemption of humanity and of an absolute surrender to the Creator.

Just as the women of Jerusalem anointed My wounded Body through the love of their hearts and of their lives, today I come to anoint with My Spirit and in thanksgiving, those who are consistent with Me and those who are consistent on behalf of the whole of humanity, especially for those who go astray.

Now that you have complied with what I needed, I will bring continuity to what I have come to do on this day, with all souls and for all the souls of the world.

I come to renew you in the apostleship, because in the renewal of your spiritual charge, you will always have the inner strength to accomplish all the things that the Father entrusts you with through His Son and His Holy Mother.

I want to bid farewell until a next meeting, reminding you of the importance of the prayer given and of the fulfillment of the wishes of your Lord, for something that is broader than your consciousnesses, as well as the whole of this planet. This is the magnitude of My wish.

Let us consecrate the elements, as well as the souls that thirst for the true Love of God, so as to survive the chaos of this humanity in these times.

Each Sacrament that is lived, remember that it is done not only for your lives, but also for this race, which is sick and wounded by its own mistakes.

Each Sacrament is a healing balm, it is a renewal for the soul, it is finding again the path that had been lost due to the influences of this material and superficial life.

Today try to feel your souls in a deep bliss, as they are newly sacramental, not only through the elements that will renew them, but also through a perpetual communion with the Heart of their Lord.

Praised be Thou, Lord, because Thou hast allowed Thy Most Beloved Son to incarnate among humankind, so that Thy Love, Thy Grace and Thy Mercy might descend again, so that each being on this planet might attain their redemption.

Today, I renew this testimony through the bread and the wine, and united with each being consistent with Me, I again establish this Supper, with My Body and with My Blood, so that all may receive the codes of life. Amen.

From this meeting of prayer here, in Porto, many opportunities have arisen, which in a short while you will become aware of, and which are the fruit of the prayer and of the faith of your hearts.

Once again, My Heart and the Immaculate Heart of My Holy Mother, triumph again in Portugal and in Europe. This is a special gift for God. It is a gift of Heaven, gestated by simple hearts that hear the voice of their Master and walk by His side, always seeking the path of peace, for themselves and for the world.

I bless you in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

I want you to sing "The Peacemakers", just as you sang in glory yesterday, for your Redeemer and Lord.

Raise up your souls to God in profound joy, so that this triumph of the Sacred Hearts may be infused in the whole world. Amen.