MESSAGE BY THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, TRANSMITTED TO MOTHER SHIMANI

Dear children:

During all of this time I have given many messages that My children have not interiorized. I have repeated with all of My Love through My visionaries and clairaudients throughout history thousands of messages with intense instructions for the whole humanity.

Despite this, My children easily forget what I ask them and the instructions that I give them.

In the last century that passed and in this that you are living, as never before, My Voice and My Call has travelled and still travels this world from north to south, from east to west. Each time that an impulse of My Heart comes to My beloved children I wait with My Heart of Mother for it to merge itself in the soul of many.

Today My Immaculate Heart is sad because My beloved children have turned one against the others, forgetting the impulses of love that My Son and I permanently give them. And they do not understand that the Justice of God is descending and it will be according to what each one has seeded in its life and in the life of others.

Children: in these days the world agitates itself because the Divine Justice has started to be felt in various people and above all in my beloved Christian children.

Today I want to tell you that more than ever you must value the sacrifice of Christ on the Cross and pray to repair His Heart and the Heart of God.

Reparation, Reparation, Reparation!

If you, My children, do not repair the Heart of God, all that is written will be accomplished and from Heavens we will only be able to observe with deep pain how the blind consciousnesses, and those who do not want to hear the call of the High, condemn themselves.

The planet will live its purification, the one which will start from east to west and from north to south.

I beg, dear children, that you pray, pray with Me for the reparation of the Heart of Christ and of God All Powerful. If we sincerely pray with the heart, the Father will hear your supplications and He will be able to erase from the Book of Heaven some events that, in another way, will trigger themselves as a consequence of the human actions.

Dear children:

All can be avoided. Listen to My call!

Pray, pray, pray all that you can. Gather yourselves to pray with other brothers and sisters. Pray with your families. Pray for the religions, for the governments and for those who lead them so that the true light of the Spirit of God may illuminate you.

Pray children, pray, for those who do not pray, for those who do not believe in the Return of My Son. Pray for those who have their heart closed and who guard fear and rancor inside of themselves.

Pray for all. Humanity finds itself in a spiritual emergency. Pray together to Me that as Mother I will intercede before My Son, the Redeemer.

My beloved children: I guard your pleas in My Immaculate Heart to take them to Heaven.

I love you and I convoke you to permanently be with Me.

Peace for the Earth.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.

Amen.
