

Monday, August 27 of 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Love to pray, not only to ask something to God, but above all to repair His Heart.

Love to pray, not only in order to rise to the Higher Universes, but so that, when in Celestial Heights, you may offer reparation to the Heart of the Father.

Love to pray, not only in order to build Sanctity in your inner self, but above all to console the Heart of God.

Love to pray, not only to feel peace in your heart, but to offer peace to the Heart of God.

Love to pray, not only in order to experience Love, but so that your love may be a hope for the Heart of God.

Love to pray, in order to repair, console and bring peace to the Heart of your Father and Lord.

Love to pray, in order to clamor for the souls that, day by day, outrage the Creator with their ignorance.

Live, in a way that you may not also be a reason to hurt the Heart of God.

Remember, at each moment, that the Eyes of the Father lay upon the world and how a simple and true action of love can console His Heart.

Love, child, to pray, and to live in order to offer God a hope; hope to renew yourself in Love, hope to triumph with His Redeeming Project, hope to see His children return to His pure and grand Heart.

May God not be a reality distant from you. Discover a Father who is close and accessible to your inner self; a Father who not only has everything to give you, but who also waits for you in a sincere prayer so that you may repair His Heart.

Contemplate a silent and humble God Who makes Himself small amongst men, within their hearts, and hides His Greatness and Power in the occult of human beings, to give them an opportunity of growing and finding Love for themselves.

Love to know God, love to seek Him and, above all, love to repair His Heart.

Your Father and Friend,

Most Chaste Saint Joseph