Apparition of the Virgin Mary during the Vigil of Prayer for Peace in the Nations, in Zurich, Switzerland, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

For the sake of God, I bring Love from Heaven, to pour It over this place, over this planet. I bring you the Love that you need, the Love that you so much seek, the Love that you so much aspire to penetrate in order to find God.

I bring you the Love that will liberate you so that you can take a new step, knowing that it is necessary to listen to God in the same way as the Mother of God listened to the call of the Archangel Gabriel.

I invite you, dear children, to follow the example of the Mother of God, in unconditional obedience, with the immense joy of being able to follow the steps of the Lord, just as God needs in this time.

All that I tell you, My children, is not to hurt you, neither is it to wound you, it is to open your consciences, to penetrate your hearts with the Love of God so that such deep wounds, which are still present in your lives, can close and dissolve.

This is the reason why I am in Europe, My children, presenting to you My different Faces in order for you to know the Omnipresence of the Mother of God, in order for you to know how to understand and hear Her the best that you can, thus I come as the Mother and Virgin of Schoenstatt.

But today I do not bring My Son in My arms, I bring an African child, among so many who would like to be in My arms.

Today, I bring the most sick and hungry child, the child with the most pain, the most anguished child who needs the attention of humanity, and of its people.

Therefore, My children, I invite you to solidarity, to cooperation and to the good that must awaken in your hearts so that the world, and especially humanities suffering and pain, which must be relieved, can enter you so that you may feel as the Mother of God feels when there is lack of consciousness, lack of love and especially a lack of fraternity.

If you take the step, I assure you, My children, that many more will do so.

Thus, today I have decided to come to tell you this so that you may hear My call, so that you may feel My Maternity, so that you may make use of My Heart, a noble Heart that cries out to the world, a Heart that welcomes the miseries of humanity, and especially of those who suffer most.

I invite you, My children, to imitate My Spirit of Maternity, of service and solidarity; this will transform your people completely and will make of your people a Promised Land, knowing that God still wishes to manifest His Divine Will here.

With maternal Love, I call you, My children, to become aware of this, to give importance to this in your lives so that your lives can also transform through the response to My Sacred Call.

I will always wish good for you, thus I am not only here for you, but I am also here for all nations of the world, for everyone who has conceded this Pilgrimage for Peace, for everyone who sincerely, in one way or another, have made their loving and unconditional effort for Me to be here today, for Switzerland, just as I will be in a short while there for Germany.

Thus, I invite you to this Unity, the Unity that God gestated since the beginning, in the Universe, the Unity that will lead you to Peace, because it is a Divine Unity that the world has completely forgotten.

This is also the reason why we still go on pilgrimage, leaving the Marian Centers on the quest for the neediest and most lacking hearts, on the quest for the awakening of the consciousness of humanity so that the purposes of God may be fulfilled.

As Mother of Love and Virgin of Schoenstatt, I do not wish My children to suffer and to accept living the path of suffering, because humanity has already demonstrated to the world that it knows how to destroy itself. I want to change this human pattern by means of your prayers and supplications, by means of the opening of your inner world to My call.

Thus, I will not only be able to continue working for Switzerland but also for the world that needs Me and I will be able to reach other nations of the world, just as I have reached here, in an extraordinary way, by the response of My children.

Today I transmit to you, My children, with all the Truth of My Heart, the affliction of My Maternal Heart for the deafness of My children.

Thus, I come from Heaven as I have come to Fatima and Medjugorje, to bring a message to humanity, to demonstrate to the world that I am unique and that I am the Mother of all nations and of all children that exist on this planet; that I am the Mother without religion because My religion is the Love of God, which the Archangel Gabriel had taught Me when I had Jesus in My Womb.

The Love of God was gestated in Me so that redemption could be born in the world. Today My Womb of Light gives Itself to the world so that your lives can be born again someday with the hope of living in faith, and of attaining the redemption of the heart.

I invite you to redouble your efforts for My call, and I thank, today, My daughters who live here in Switzerland for being the precursors of My call in Zurich, for having strived and dedicated themselves so that the divine fulfillment of My Spiritual Mission in Switzerland may be accomplished.

Today I will leave here with hope because you have demonstrated that it is possible to disseminate My call, knowing that it is urgent that the souls leave the terrestrial hell to enter the Universe of My Heart, where there is a special place, there is a refuge in the Heart of the Mother of Schoenstatt for each one of My children.

It is your love, it is your dedication, it is your offering that allows Me to return, time and again, to the world.

I thank you for responding to this invitation and I bless you with the Sacred Flame of the Hope of God, which will never extinguish because it is eternal.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.
