

Friday, April 13 of 2018

Apparition of Mary, Rose of Peace, in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandú, Uruguay, transmitted to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

In the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the silence of the heart, may the Words of the Mother of God, the Mother of Heaven, be heard, Who speaks to Her children to lead them on the path of good and of peace.

But while a large part of humanity submerges into the illusions of the world, I come to call those who listen to Me, those who have been brave by My side, those who unconditionally follow My steps.

I come to speak to you with the Voice of My Heart and of My Soul. I come to express My Message to the world at the request of the Celestial Father.

You must be brave and move forward; you must continue to gestate in your spirits the second coming of Christ, for He still waits to be able to experience it together with you and with humanity.

However, as long as your efforts are poor, lacking in enthusiasm and dedication, poor will be the results for this great planetary moment. It will depend on you, My children, that everything may be accomplished.

There is nothing more Heaven can do, but to only wait for the response of the creatures of God; to only listen silently to the prayers of those who have committed with Christ for these times.

In truth I tell you, dear children, what is being done is still not enough. The consciousness of equality must reign in you, for this will protect the Work from the enemy itself; for this will balance all of you under the powerful impulse of Fraternity and of Good.

I dedicate this message to those who truly want to listen; to those who will dare to cross the thresholds of indifference and of human ignorance; to those who will risk transcending times, experiencing transformation within themselves and making Our Words come alive, one by one.

Children, the Universe needs a greater integration from you, and not only good or passing moments.

It is necessary that the Plan of God incarnate in your cells and you make It part of yourselves, for thus you will be able to represent Christ on the Earth and become His true followers, become His true Church, become His true testimony.

He hopes everything He did more than two thousand years ago has not been in vain and, even though humanity still does not know all of the Mysteries of Christ, one day humanity will be aware of what the true Surrender of the Lord meant, on all the planes of consciousness and in the essence of the spiritual plane.

I need, dear children, to shift you out of mediocrity, from what is tepid and unsafe; this is why I must talk to you with a celestial transparency and immediate clarity, free of confusion or of opinions.

I need you to understand and to comprehend what I tell you at this moment; the continuity of the Work is in your hands, because you were called to live it and you yourselves have taken it on, without thinking about what it would be or what it would mean; from there comes your responsibility and your commitment, from there comes the value of what that means for this time, so crucial in humanity.

I do not mean to say you will be the liberators of these times, because the only One is Christ, Our Lord and King of the Universe.

You must be multiplied sparks of that Divine Plan of God, that from time to time come to humanity to give it the impulse to change, to a redemption of its debts, and to a forgiveness of its sins.

The Graces that My Heart brings are inextinguishable, the Mercy that My Son brings is non-transferable, there is nothing that can change it; taking this step into total surrender will depend on you, as it corresponds to each one in this cycle.

Because God does not expect saintliness from everyone, but does so with consecration, the absolute experiencing of the commitment with My Beloved Son and to His Plan of rescue.

Each thing you can give to the Plan will be welcome; but not with what you have left over, but with what spontaneously comes from the heart, and is real.

The return of Christ will be a laborious task and the fulfillment of this Plan must be born from you, so that it may manifest on the surface of the Earth.

Thus, you will lack nothing, because in truth, humanity owes a great deal to the Universe, as well as to the Kingdoms of Nature, which still continue to suffer the consequences of these times.

It was said that after the last Sacred Week with the Lord, the cycle would change; here is this cycle that has now come, which your inner eyes need to see and your hearts need to feel, without fearing to know what this represents for Creation.

This is why you must work upon an immediate inner divestment, not wanting anything for oneself, but rather everything for others, sharing what one has and experiencing the love that others live within themselves.

In this way, the great current of Light will be transformed, the great current of Light will be renewed, and your feet will walk free of the past and the errors, because you will be at the service of Christ, in fullness and joy.

And in spite of what may happen in this world, you will not desist, but rather, each test will be taken as a confirmation of your trust in Christ, because you will not fear what you consider you might lose.

Everything that was given to you must someday return to the Father, and that day is near, that retribution is close, because now you are aware and you are not in the worldwide ignorance.

The Plan of God is a definitive consciousness that very few dare to cross with resolve; but now the moment has come for all, that they be able to cross this portal toward a total living of the Plan, making it a part of your lives and of your daily lives, and not setting it aside as something secondary or momentary.

The Plan will be fulfilled with the collaboration of all and I will not tire of repeating it, dear children, because it is necessary that your other cells awaken and be able to recognize the Truth that arises from God, through My Immaculate Heart.

In the name of My Beloved Son, I come to reinforce His requests and His pleas.

The planet must still sustain itself, although it may seem that it will sink and will then lose everything. But it is that strength of consoling love and of the commitment of humankind that will make it possible for the planet to sustain itself, with this indifferent humanity, that only seeks God when it needs Him and that does not cross the doorway of repentance.

I want you, children, in the freedom of the heart and the expression of the soul.

The end time approaches and it is time to take on your commitments, so that Christ may work in you, without limitations and without obstacles, so that He may fulfill the promise of His return to humanity, and everything may finally begin again, as it was thought of in the beginning, in the origin of this race.

And in that absolute surrender, you will participate in the Communion with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and will thus be renewed.

May My Words awaken you, may My impulses lead you to walk towards this objective of being true forerunners of the second coming of Christ, carrying it forward in the time left to us, so that the majority of humanity may be saved and recognize its filiation with God; and thus, evil may end in hearts and in the world, and peace, brotherhood, and goodness may reign, which are part of the project of this race and of the New Christs.

I thank you for listening to me with an open heart, living My Message and putting it into practice, applying it every day through effort and dedication, without allowing My Words to be dissipated from your consciousnesses, but rather, on the contrary, their being fire and light in your spirits.

I give you Peace in the name of My Son and in response to His request.

There is still much to be done and we await your responses, as you have done in other times, always giving a little more of yourselves, without fear of losing anything, but rather being a part of the Universe of Love.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.