DAILY MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Run and quickly enter into the Sacred Temple of My Heart.

My church on Earth is going through its first and great tempest. The sepulchers hidden for decades are being opened to reveal the Truth.

I have told you, once, that stone will not remain upon stone and many of Mine think that it is only an allegory.

My priests in the world are being judged and some are taken to prison. The consecrated life is the preamble of the prelude of the great attacks of My adversary.

Therefore, you must run and quickly enter into the Sacred Temple of My Heart.

My Eyes can no longer see so much discord in the world.

My Heart can no longer bear so much shame in others.

And even though from the Garden of Gethsemane I already knew this would happen, My flocks are dispersed and still do not know how to strengthen unity so that the Shepherd may guide them.

I still count with the fingers of My Hands those who truly want to be in Me.

This is the time, My child,, to see incredible situations and realities; but it is also the time of Grace for those who know how to knock and call on the correct door.

I must still look with neutrality at the events that happen, day to day, in humanity and especially in the consecrated life.

My Mother asked Me that, for Her Love, I not apply the Law of Justice.

The cup was full before, but now it is overflowing, and the time of peace is coming to an end.

Therefore, run and quickly enter into the Sacred Temple of My Heart, because while, deceits and manipulations will continue coming to the light, and once again, there will not remain stone upon stone.

I am ashamed to see the religious life so disorderly in the entire world. In some cases, I ceased to be the spiritual model so that the modernities would be so.

The adversary, with all its fury, is taking revenge on My servants and I am still waiting for the exact moment of lifting My Sword to unleash the great and last final time.

My Altar is full of Graces and My Chalice is full of My Blood, but few are the ones who draw close to Me to plead with Me.

Where is the attention of My disciples?

Therefore, run and quickly enter into the Sacred Temple of My Heart so that you are protected from yourself, from your own aspects that will compromise your feelings of love for Me.

Hold on tight to My Tunic, because, if you let Me, I will help you.

I will no longer be able to cry tears of blood for any more ungrateful ones.

In truth I tell you, and with all of My Love, I declare to you, that Justice will rain in a surprising way, like hail.

Therefore, run and quickly enter into the Sacred Temple of My Heart so that when everything happens, you are under My Divine Protection.

I thank you for keeping My Words with attention!

Who blesses you,

Your Master, Christ Jesus
