

Monday, March 25 of 2019

Apparition of Mary, Rose of Peace, in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

When I do not speak, it is because something very difficult is happening. My silence is because the world does not want to listen to Me, and that goes beyond this place. I am speaking about those who do not truly listen to the Heart of the Hierarchy, and omit the Will of God all the time.

But with My armies, I will support the planet and will be able to give the world what it would not deserve. That is why I am here as your Attorney, as your Intercessor and Mediator.

Perhaps you do not understand what I am telling you, but welcome My Words in your heart and pray even more fervently so that God may pour out His Mercy rather than His Justice.

Everything that you have done until now has an incalculable value. All that you have prayed until now was contemplated by the Creator Father, and that goes beyond material life. For this reason, take My Words into your heart as much as you do not understand them.

The third secret of Fatima is drawing closer and what, up until now, the church has not announced, disobeying My request, will be shown to the whole world in an unexpected way for everyone.

When God sends a warning to the world, as happened in Fatima, He has a profoundly spiritual reason, unknown to humankind. There is no church or nation that can stop it. Thus, trust was placed in the small shepherds, because in such pure souls the Presence of God and His Message was revealed. But the world, in its majority, decided to learn through suffering and to generate suffering to the rest.

The cup is overflowing and the Blood of My Son, which was spilled for all, must be justified by those who pray in the world with their fidelity and their absolute unconditionality to the request of God.

With all of this, I want to tell you, My children, that I do not come to convey any fear to your inner worlds, but rather a call to pay attention in the face of the events that the world experiences today and in which humanity is completely submerged, especially the most innocent.

May your hearts not be touched by anger, by indifference, by frustration. Let your hearts; especially your lives, be an example of prayer, of constancy and faith, for what will shortly come to the world.

Many will repent for not having heard, and as was written in the Sacred Bible, many will beat their chests, crying out to God for an opportunity.

Thus, before that event, the red moon came, and all of humanity was able to see it. It was not a pretty or beautiful event. It was the announcement, the advent and the preparation of humanity for the next signs that will be revealed in this cycle.

The last seal of the Apocalypse is already open. The war of everyone against everyone will not cease. For this reason, new martyrs will come and will not emerge from the church, but rather among the most innocent, who will testify, until the end of their lives, to the Presence of Christ without anything causing them to change their faith or their belief.

But do not think of what they will suffer, rather think about what humanity has still not achieved, and that for the world it is no longer necessary to shed more blood, like some nations in the world do today, letting injustice fall upon the innocent, upon the poorest among the poor.

So your faith must be doubled. Your enthusiasm for the commitment must expand, and your fidelity and obedience must be established. Because even though the Earth trembles, your equilibrium must be untouchable, unalterable and irrefutable. Nothing must move you from the place that you have won in the heart of the Hierarchy.

But on the other hand, My children, not everything will be a disgrace for humanity. You must again see the Christs that were once with My Son and that in this end time will awaken so that, finally, they may express their task and the concretization of their purpose.

The flame of Christ in each human heart will shine, and at the most acute moment of the transition of the Earth, the tribes with their different lineages, schools and experiences will gather together to offer God a single path and a single goal, which is to achieve the New Humanity.

It is time to grow, My children, to mature in knowledge and to know, deeply, that your participation in the Plan of God has a purpose and a goal that your lives will not be able to change.

The salvation of humanity will depend on your adherence and on the surrender of your wills to the Greater Will. For this, you must never lack wisdom or discernment, nor attention and vigilance in the face of the events of the world.

Today, a sword of humanity pierces My Heart. It is a more painful sword than the one I once received when I came to know about the definite surrender of My Son.

Continue praying for the nations because, if the nations are not well, nothing will be well. You must reach Heaven with your prayers, touch the Heart of the Celestial Father, and console His Spirit for so many offenses received.

May the sacred spirit of compassion be built in you because Divine Compassion will be the fundamental attribute for this time in order to be able to see and participate in what will be seen in the world, even though it is not within the Plan of God. Because the majority of the events in the world are generated by human beings rather than by Heaven, through the lack of filiation with God and of communion with the Highest.

But you, who have gained the inner Christ, must have this precious presence be of value for all those who do not value the Presence of the inner Christ within themselves.

In honor of the Birth, the Passion, the Death and the Resurrection of My Son, I come to request that for nine days, before the beginning of the Holy Week, you pray the Orandum of the Passion and of the Transfiguration of Jesus so that the Heavens may be filled by your prayers, that God may have pity on the whole world and His wrath may be calmed by the angelic choirs that accompany Me today.

If the whole world truly takes on this work of prayer, on the eve of Sacred Week, if it prays with fervor and devotion, I will come to ask the world once again for the consecration to My maternal and Immaculate Heart so that the nations that call themselves powerful before God, through the mediation of My Grace, may achieve penitence and a complete repentance of their faults.

This will prevent, My children, the Angel of the Justice of God from descending to the Earth in a surprising and unexpected way and, by the order of the Highest and Almighty, pouring the power of the Throne of God with greater potency than hundreds of lightning flashes and thunder.

If your prayers reach Heaven during these nine days, your Attorney and Mother will be able to intercede, at least for a quarter part of humanity, because the rest has already defined itself.

Our Lady lowered Her face and closed Her eyes; we accompany Her, we feel Her, and we contemplate Her in our heart. We support Her and inwardly pray before Her Presence.

My silence comes to ask the world for the impossible. Just as I asked in Fatima, I come to ask for you, in spite of the events, to definitely commit with Me to pray the Rosary every day. This time not only for peace but also for the intervention of your Divine and great Lady before the authority of the Celestial Father and all of His angels.

The Children of Mary who will be consecrating themselves today can stand up where they are.

Beloved children, I will never disparage your aspirations. Console My Heart every day with your examples of peace, of love, and of prayer for the world.

Today I will not be able to attend to you directly, but know that My pure and Immaculate Spirit, a Spirit that comes from God and from His Source, today overshadows your souls to consecrate you.

Today, the Mother of God cannot bestow Graces; God has not allowed it, but it is not because of you, but because of the world.

The light of My Heart will always appeal for guiding you. Follow My steps of a Server and a Pilgrim. I bless you and I love you.

You will take the flowers of this altar with you as a testimony of My Love for you and for your families.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Piedad, come here.

Today I am calling you like in other times, My daughter, so that you may help Me to intercede before God, our Creator Father, and so that, through your devotion to My maternal and Immaculate Heart, you may supplicate, through the Ave Maria, singing to the Thrones of the Father so that He may hear the voice of His Servant. With this song and this supplication, I will consider My task for today finished. I expect you on May 8 in Fatima so that this Kingdom of Love, of Peace, and of Light may convey its intervention within the world. So be it.

Song: Ave Maria.