

Sunday, August 25 of 2019

APPARITION OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, CORDOBA, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Continue, because I am working with the world.

The world needs an unfathomable divine intervention in order to be saved. Therefore, together with the angels of God and all His hosts, under the luminous impulse of the Holy Spirit, today your Heavenly Mother arrives here, not only to gather you together and fill you with the Love of God, but also to lead you to the truth and to the liberation of your life, to be able to break the chains that imprison My children, to free from captivity the many who are in it.

All of this is by the divine authority given to Me by My Son and by the celestial power granted to Me by the Father, since the first time He accepted Me as His faithful Servant.

Thus, I invite you, My children, not only to discover within yourselves the gifts and virtues of God, but I also invite you, My children, to discover your personal mission for this planet and for this humanity, since it is the time of the planetary transition, and the need and the help of many soldiers of Christ has today become very urgent.

Thus, I invite you, My children, to ask yourselves where this talent and this gift of God are that My Son left you, not only through His testimony of Love, but also through His Word, His Gospel.

So, be His apostles of the end of times, and place yourselves in the first lines of His celestial command; in this way, My children, with this inner and conscious attitude, you will not only be serving the Celestial Father but also the fulfillment of His Plan upon the surface of the Earth.

While I speak to you today, in a maternal and loving way, the chains of illusion are gradually broken away from the human consciousness, the hells are closed, and many crystals are elevated to find their process of liberation and of redemption.

In truth, My children, this world still does not know the mysteries of the Universe and all the relics that have been kept here for millions of years, since before My Divine Son incarnated.

I give you an impulse to the awakening of your consciousness so that your redemption, My children, may be the truthful testimony of God so that a new and renewed humanity may be able to continue, freed from the world illusion and the chaos, freed from the prisons that the forces of evil place around souls.

For this reason, your moment of consecration is now, your moment to testify to God is now, your moment for taking a step is now, and not at another time or another moment.

I call upon you, My children, to consciously assume this planetary situation, to establish within your homes groups of prayer that can be, at this moment, pillars of light where the angels can work, not only with you and your families, but also with your cities, peoples and nations so that the planetary balance may be sustained, and especially the mental balance of humanity which is highly unbalanced. So that many things do not happen, respond to this call that comes from My Heart and which is given impulse to by the fire of the Holy Spirit.

Today, I return to this Marian Center to strengthen and bless it in its spiritual task, so that its way of life, simple, austere and humble, may be able to open the eyes of many who are here, in this region and beyond it, so that you can feel God in your hearts; so that you may find the only path, which is the path of My Son, the path that will protect you and safeguard you in this crucial time.

Thus, you also will represent My Son on Earth and will be able to reciprocate to His call, knowing that it is necessary, My children, that your lives and the lives of your brothers and sisters do something for this planet. Much blood has been shed in this world after so many wars and conflicts, where humans were against their brothers and sisters.

Now, My children, I come to ignite you with the fire of the Holy Spirit so that you may assume your positions in this moment of the Plan, so that you may hear the voice of God through His Servant that resounds in the very depths of your souls and hearts, bringing you the impulse of truth and of consecration.

It will depend on the awakened human consciousness that the new time may arrive, free of atrocities and evil, of conflicts and of darkness, so that these conflicts may change, and this will help the Divine Hierarchy to be able to intervene.

Like in this moment, My children, My beloved Son has asked Me to intervene not only for your consciousnesses, but also for the world. At this moment, My children, I am not only here, but also in seven places in the world, where extremely serious things are taking place that you cannot even imagine.

All this is possible, My children, through your faithfulness on the path of prayer, knowing that it is urgent to do something for this humanity and this planet, knowing that it is important, My children, that today, when you leave this Marian Center, you be different people, you transform your lives and redeem them, consecrate them and elevate them to God so that He may consider you in His infinite Mercy when the time of the great Justice arrives for humanity, in which there will be no governor, nation or any weapon, however intelligent it may be, that will stop the authority and the power of God, which will move within this local Universe and beyond it and which will have repercussions in all the planets that are part of this solar system.

With this, My children, I do not come to bring you fear, I do not come to give you a warning; I come to advise you, My children, that there is still time for changing the events, for taking up a life of consecration and of redemption that, in the face of the Celestial Universe, can justify all the human errors committed in this time, all the lack of unity experienced in families, in the peoples, in the humanitarian crises, and beyond what you know, of all that is in the mental universe of this humanity and that, day after day, grows and imprisons the human consciousness.

Through a gigantic pillar of transmutation, I come today to this planet that is being subjected and completely lost. But remember, My children, that as much as there are souls in an absolute and profound darkness, there is within you a divine essence, something My adversary cannot touch, although it may torment you and persecute you.

Be intelligent, with the true channel of individual and group prayer, build your powerful swords of light so that each bead of prayer, each new meeting, each opportunity to serve and to surrender to God may, with the Light of the Father, cut all the chains that imprison My children, rescue and save those most in need, not only in the Human Kingdom but also in the Kingdoms of Nature.

Do something for this humanity, this is what I ask of you. Humanity does not know the power of God; it is an unknown and very ancient power.

I ask you, My children, to be mediators with your Heavenly Mother, that in your hearts you hear the Voice that My Immaculate Heart proclaims, that you be different people, that you live the examples of charity and of good, that you no longer judge one another, that you love one another deeply just as My Son taught you. Because in such simple but profound things, you will grant the Mother of God, by divine authority, that I may spend a longer time among you, especially in these moments in which frightful things will be seen, which no previous humanity has seen before.

For this reason, I come to protect you with My Divine Mantle, I come to awaken, in the very depths of your beings, this celestial and universal commitment that you made with My Son.

Because thus, dear children, you will be in the correct place, you will be in the correct moment, you will be on the path of Light and you will no longer see the mirages that this world and this humanity emit to spiritually confuse hearts.

I give you everything that I am and everything I have been, today I also give you everything I attained since My assumption into the Heavens; because I am not only your Mother, who intervenes within impossible causes, for the most serious illnesses, for the hardest problems, I am the universal Governess, the Queen and Mother of Peace, the Sovereign and Lady of the Universe, who comes with the power of the Scepter of God to put an end to many planetary situations.

But so that this can be concretized and carried out, so that millions of souls may get out of the hells of the Earth that they are in, and especially so that humanity may become aware of the errors it commits today, I need you not only as My consecrated, good and humble, charitable and merciful children, but also as My soldiers, so that you may be with Me twenty-four hours of the day, placing the call of God, the path of prayer as a priority; because in this way you will transform, My children, and you will not, in these times, enter the cycles of planetary purification that will be very acute and difficult, but rather you will be ready as soldiers of Christ to go where you are called, to be assembled where there are great needs, to help your brothers and sisters and the Kingdoms of Nature, to know that it is important to establish and rebuild this spiritual family of Israel that has been completely distorted throughout the times.

Do not feed the forces of chaos, be in silence, enter into meditation, seek the Light and mainly, seek God within you. The Father is full of Mercy and of Love to give you; suffer no longer, because what you suffer is what you think and generate, build the new humanity based on a great change in consciousness.

In this way, My Son will come, and you will recognize Him when He comes in an unexpected and inexplicable way, and although the Universe may move and the stars accompany this movement of the second return of Christ, My children, you will be able to feel Him, you will be able to recognize Him, you will be able to find Him within you, and in this way the Plan will be fulfilled. Amen.

Today I needed to talk to you in this way because these times are times of emergency in which you cannot miss any opportunity of awakening and realizing your part, that the planetary situation is harder than it seems. Thus, today I approach your human language and do not use an abstract or symbolic language, because I was your Mother, I am your Mother, and will be your Mother. You have a Mother, nobody in this world is an orphan, even though they may have lost their biological parents.

You have Me and will have Me, and I will always wait for you with open arms to listen to you, to feel you, to receive your love and, above all, your giving of self.

For this reason, today the consecration of new Children of Mary will be special for Me.

I invite you to approach this stage, the Light of My Altar, so that I may consecrate you because, in truth, My children, your essences are consecrated as My children and accordingly, are consecrated to God, it is just that at this moment, the veils of your consciousness spontaneously fall, so that you may find the truth of your origins and the reason for having come to the Earth to serve God and to love Him, to someday find that celestial happiness that is real and palpable for human hearts.

Because in this celestial truth, in this infinite happiness, is where you can find the Kingdom of God and discover all of His mysteries. They are mysteries of Love, of an incalculable and incomprehensible Love, of an immense and very great Love, it is this Love that brings Me to Earth for each one of My children, for each one of My soldiers, for each one of the Kingdoms of Nature that expect from human beings a greater service and a response, to heal their profound wounds and martyrdoms.

My children, in light of the Celestial Father and His powerful divine hosts, on this day and until the next Marathon of Divine Mercy that will occur in this place, Argentina will accomplish its second preparatory stage for what will happen in the month of October, in which the entire consciousness of Argentina will define its destiny and the continuation of the presence of the Mercy of God in each part of this land, in each corner of this place, of this precious nature that God gave to Argentina.

For this reason, I want you, My children, to fulfill My aspiration, an aspiration that I once asked of you, many years ago, that in all the provinces of Argentina there be groups of prayer, and that will begin not only through the help of My warriors of the Light-Network, but also through the very simple but important practice of prayer in families.

It is thus that, with much joy, on this day of the consecration of new Children, this army today stands before My Celestial Altar and surrenders their hearts to My Immaculate Heart, so that from this moment on I may guide you and protect you. It is this army that is consecrated today that will give impulse to the concretization of My request that in each province of Argentina there be groups of prayer. And if this aspiration is fulfilled before the month of October, through the prayer of families, of prayer for families, many things will be avoided and Justice will move away, Mercy will come and hearts will celebrate the return of Christ.

Listening to the hymn of your consecration, I invite you, My children, that each one of those who are being consecrated today before the Celestial Mother, place within My Heart your deepest and most intimate request, knowing that God in His Infinite and Unfathomable Mercy hears the intentions of His children when they are truly profound and sincere.

Today I will carry in My maternal Heart not only your intentions, My children, for yourselves, for your families or for your country, for the impossible and difficult causes, for the greatest or smallest problems, I will carry everything today in My Heart, My children, to bring you relief, so that you may feel God in your lives and hearts; and may that presence of God, which is so necessary in this time and especially in Argentina, be able to be emanate to other hearts through the vow of your consecration.

On such a especial and important day in which you, as a single people and a single family, like that ancient family of Israel that resumes its commitment up to this moment, unite inwardly with God to love Him and adore Him, to recognize Him and to live Him, and thus, always find His powerful Kingdom.

With the Love that comes from the entire Universe, with the Love that created all that exists, all that breathes, all that manifests and vibrates with the Love that comes from the great Divine Essence of God and encompasses all that exists and beyond, with this powerful and immeasurable Love, I bless you and consecrate you as My children.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And with deep love, I am grateful for all that My children of Argentina did during this month of October, because you are already experiencing October.

I invite you to be in real time, in which the most difficult things can be dissolved so that love may triumph in Argentina and in the world.

Today, through this consecration, you have allowed, My children, that the month of October may be filled with a special light that will guide and orient hearts in the decision that they will make for the coming times.

And now I want to hear the hymn of your consecration so that, elevating your hearts, you may seal this alliance between Heaven and Earth, between God and your souls.

I thank you for having responded to My call.

And I promise to return here, to Argentina, so that together you may accompany Me through other provinces that will also ignite in My Love, such as Tierra del Fuego and Tucuman.

I thank you.