

Sunday, April 28, 2019

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

God will always accept the degree of your surrender and everything that you may want to offer.

Your offerings will always be precious to the Heart of the Creator. But in these times, children, you are called upon to give everything of yourself for love, for love of this planet, for love of the Divine Project, and for love of the evolution that, before the beginning of the Earth, was already waiting, so that this project that your souls are experiencing could be concretized and triumph in the Cosmos.

Thus, in this hour, in which the cycles are accelerating and the transition of the times and the absolute definition of beings are drawing closer, let each one of you know that which you will offer to the Creator, that which you will offer to the Universe, to evolution, to life.

Today, children, it is no longer about crying out because of your own miseries and asking for forgiveness for your own sins. Your miseries will be healed in service and this must be your prayer for yourself. And your sins will be redeemed when you are capable of forgetting about them in order to cry out for this world.

The abysses are full of souls that clamor for peace, and on this day of Mercy and of Grace, your prayers are like the balm they have been waiting for, for a long time. Your prayers are like the soft breeze that enters where there no longer was air, there was no breath.

Feel the souls whose sin is considered eternal and unforgivable; feel their pain and despair. Today, children, this pain is relieved and the despair is transformed, because Mercy crosses the dark spaces and grants a new opportunity for those who have condemned themselves to punishment and darkness.

May your merciful prayer stretch out beyond this day, for many souls will continue in the abysses, crying out. For you, every day must be a day to plead to God for those most in need.

Let your priority in this time be the rescue and salvation of souls, because the time will come when you will no longer be able to clamor, because everything will already be defined.

Today I bless you and leave you My Grace, so that you may deepen in Divine Mercy and so that each day it may be more alive within you, not only as a prayer, but as a way of being.

Be merciful, in this and in all times.

I thank you.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph