

Tuesday, December 13 of 2011

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Awaken every day with the Light of My Immaculate Heart.

Remember, My child, the call of praying together for the Reign of My Peace in the hearts. May your heart of a servant not be afflicted, may it be opened to My Maternal Presence.

I love you all from the depths of the Heart of God. I illuminate you on your paths through the silence of a Great Mother. I shelter you in My Immaculate Being so that your hearts may feel the relief of My Prodigious Love.

My dear children, in this moment you must pray with the greatest fervor of your hearts so that the Lord may reignite the hearts that are empty of Him and the hearts that feel without Him.

Therefore, My little soldiers, open the fount of prayer and of renewed life that each one of your hearts has kept for such a long time. Thus they will be merging with Me in the eternal work of prayer. I wait for you every day because it is time to prepare for what is coming.

Because of all this, My little hearts, I announce to you that the hour of the permanent vigil of prayer is approaching. The Inner Light of each heart must be kindled for when God, Our Father, summons the awakening of the instruments that will serve to assist the last hearts that will be reintegrated into the Greater Light.

Thus, My little ones, your souls will confirm their vows to the Most High, because the time will come when each soul and each heart shall be one with the beloved Angels of the Lord. All this shall prepare the way for the last ones that will be converted to My Immaculate Heart.

Walk, My little ones, in absolute faith that together with the Merciful Light of My Glorified Son, every path can be traveled. The time has come to confirm the complete trust in Christ.

May peace reign in your hearts.

Who guides you, adores you and loves you,

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity