APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

One hundred and three years ago, I came to the world for a greater reason, and today I return again to the world, My children, so that you may be aware of this important planetary moment.

The Light of My Immaculate Heart is reflected on Earth in order to embrace as many souls as possible but, at this time, it is not enough.

My Son has trained you for this moment; He has made you His apostles so that you could serve Him and follow Him.

As a Mother, I come in this time so that the greatest number of My children do not lose the meaning and purpose of being here, the reason for which God brought you to meet Me, knowing, My children, that there are still millions of souls in the world that have never stood before the Mother of God.

You who have been so close to Me through these last twelve years, you have a greater responsibility before God for the causes and the aspirations of your Divine Mother, because the Plan of your Heavenly Mother is not personal, but rather a Plan for all of humanity and the planet.

You must be the ambassadors of My Immaculate Heart in the world; you must be the facilitators for souls that need a great deal of spiritual and inner help.

This is the reason that brings Me here to you today, for all My children that hear Me at this moment in the four corners of the world, who still proclaim their faith and devotion to My maternal Heart. But I also want to say to each one of you, that this is the definitive and crucial time, extremely different from what took place in Fatima one hundred and three years ago.

In that time, humanity had a different state of consciousness, more primitive and immature. But in this time, even with the advancements achieved by humanity, this continues to be so on other planes of consciousness with the destruction of the Kingdoms of Nature and of human life itself; through the painful humanitarian crises and the exile of millions of My children in the world who are seeking an opportunity and hope.

Now your home, the planet, is in a great transition and I want you to know this, My children, because there are still many of My children who do not want to open their eyes to this reality, so as to not feel shaken or called to planetary service.

Many of those who are not here today missed a spiritual opportunity, but this will not get in the way of the doors of Heaven continuing to be open to the Earth, as long as each one of My children conform to My call. This will be the great premise for your Heavenly Mother to continue returning or not to the world while the Celestial Father has need of it.

But today My hands are full of prayers, and I can show them to you as small spheres of Light that have lit up the hearts of the world while you obediently pray the Holy Rosary and do this in honor of the Heavenly Mother. Each one of these beads that I carry today in My hands, each small sphere of Light that light up in the humble palms of the hands of the Mother of God, will be special Graces that will return to the world for those children who suffer, which are hundreds and hundreds of souls that still silently wait for a Grace from God.

And so I remind you, My children, of the importance of praying with Me every day. This is a priority for your hearts and souls. Nothing must change this spiritual practice, nothing must substitute it nor cancel it. If you pray, you will be united with Me and My Immaculate Heart. During this month of May, I will be with you, as I was in the hearts of the little shepherds of Fatima.

In the same way that My Heart is still present in the Sanctuary of Fatima and throughout Portugal, the Love of the Mother of God, the devotion of the Heavenly Mother, the purity of the Servant of God has to be in more hearts of the world. For in spite of what may happen on the surface of the Earth, nothing will happen to you and you will be able to follow in the footsteps of the Mother of God on the pathways of reconciliation and of peace so that you may be in communion with Christ, My beloved Son, and thus be sanctified by His Spirit through the Holy Eucharist.

But now, My children, it is urgent and important that you deepen your Spiritual Communion with My Son. This is the time for each one of you to recognize the truthfulness of your sincere union with My beloved Son, because this is the only thing that will save you and protect you in these times. For this reason, adore Him, revere Him and pray to Christ so that the Fountain of His Mercy may continue to descend to the world and upon those places that are most in need.

Today, your Heavenly Mother, the Lady of the Most Holy Rosary, has traveled the entire planet to gather the pleas of each of Her children, and you, who are here, have you pleaded with Me? Have you called on Me as your Advocate and Mediator in the face of your possible wrongs?

This is the time for change, but also the time for becoming aware. All the treasures that you receive from Heaven must be testified to in light of the coming of My Son, and this will be an act and a reality for each one of you, as well as for those who are not here and who, in a confused way, lost the footsteps of My Son.

But I do not come to the world with Justice, rather with Love, with a mature Love that allows you to grow and take responsibility for this Plan of Love that God consciously gave you so that you could fulfill it and live it.

All this Grace that you receive is nothing personal; it is a great planetary, human and inner need for each of your souls and spirits.

After one hundred and three years of having been in Fatima, I come to ask you to be consistent with My Son and that you mature, for there is still much to do, there is still much to carry out, there are still pilgrimages to move forward within those places of the world where the suffering is real and painful, where brothers and sisters of yours permanently suffer in chaos and adversity.

The Heart of My Son, the Chaste Heart of Saint Joseph and My maternal and Immaculate Heart need to reach those places in these definitive times.

But this is My aspiration; first you must build it within yourselves, to then constitute it outside of yourselves. That will allow you to experience reality rather than the illusion of what My call means. Because My call is not an illusion; it is a need and a call to congregate each one of your hearts so that you may have the opportunity of giving your best to God, after all that He has given you.

In the same way that I bring this message to you, I also bring a message of Love for the world, because the suffering has to end, the ignorance has to end, ingratitude has to end, and this will depend on each of you, My children.

I invite you to again enter the school of love, the school of gratitude and, especially, the school of obedience, so that your hearts may continue to be guided in the face of a planetary reality that day after day becomes more complicated due to the great distancing of humanity from God.

Did you distance yourself from God? The test of faith will come for each of your hearts and, in that hour, I will be praying for you, just as I am praying for the world, for the special Grace that will grant the end of this pandemic throughout all of humanity, so that hearts, souls and people may reconsider their lives; because without solidarity, without fraternity and without gratitude, humanity will not return to normal.

The time has ended and your consciousness must inwardly grow; in this way, you will be like souls, being accompanied by us from Heaven, to move forward with this task that has not yet ended.

Today I place your hearts in the inner gardens of Lys so that you may remember your original purity. It is the purity that will protect and safeguard you from yourselves in this time, so that you may continue walking in Christ and for Christ, recognizing the strengths that He has given you and the virtues that He has placed within your souls so that you are able to follow and serve Him.

He has His Arms open and His Hands stretched out to the world. In the same way, My children, I stretch out My arms to you so that you may see in My hands the Light of Grace that touches you, for the purpose of living discernment and wisdom, so that you do not make hurried decisions, because this is the last chance.

The cup is already overflowing and the promises that were made by your Lady in Akita, Rwanda (Kibeho), Garabandal, Fatima, and Mexico (Guadalupe), as well as in Medjugorje, will be fulfilled.

Today I have My Heart in those who experience Me, those who love Me, those who wait for Me, those who pray with Me, those who cry out and those who never tire of serving. Within them lie the promises of Christ so that they may be accomplished and realized. I hope that it will be so, in each one of you.

I am grateful, dear children, for the sincere love that was given as a response to My requests for the consecration of families to My Immaculate Heart. Those families, those souls and those hearts today receive the especial consecration of the Mother of God, so that God may hold them in His Mercy and His Grace, and help them to experience the end of these times, which is a time unknown to everyone.

In gratitude for each of them, I bless you and I say goodbye.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

May the Peace of Fatima, the inner sanctuary, remain in your hearts. Amen.

I thank you.
