

Sunday, March 31 of 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Dear brothers and sisters in the Most Holy Mary:

I Am here, over this Center of Prayer and devotion, to share with you My Graces and My Piety, divine merits that have been poured throughout these days through your honest answer to My Heart.

Dear companions, I do not separate Myself from you, not even for a moment, for this, keep the door of the heart open so that My Holy Spirit may visit you in honor and in praise to the one and only God of Love.

Dear and little sheep of Mine: your flock, the favorite to Me, must grow in love, in unity and in faith, so that your lives may be the depository of new gifts and new sheep that may want to find a way out through the instruction that I give to you.

My new cycle over the Earth and humanity is approaching; through prayer and the unity of your consciences with Me in this sacred week, not only did there arise the superior opportunity of the liberation of souls imprisoned by their own suffering, but also, My Mercy and My Greater Grace were poured over those leaders who will need the light of the Father to make decisions about My beloved humanity.

With this I say to you My dear friends that My Heart blessed the new Holy Father, with the aim that he may represent in fidelity My beloved Apostle Peter, the guardian of the Doors of Heaven.

In this way you may feel in your hearts how My Light was poured this time over the world, light that has touched especially all the missionaries that have served Me in the whole world for a long time, those called missionaries of love and charity.

My Heart of Light has embraced with so much compassion the helpless and unprotected in what are called refugee camps, so that through My intercession My Spirit embraced in the Kingdom all of those who may have gone to hell.

My dears, perceive with the heart how is the greatness of your Father who is in the universes. Contemplate the immensity of the source of the Mercy and the Piety that He pours through His Holy Beloved Son.

My brothers and sisters, you have pleased My Heart with the good acts that you have professed by means of the daily exercise of living in My Passion. As definitive glory My Soul was able to touch again with Its Love the heart of some families and youth that, divided between soul and body, took up again the path of reconciliation and of conversion in this way being able to forgive the faults committed against the God of Love.

For all of this, My Consciousness that was contemplated and adored in all of the Earth, brings with it the gifts of the Holy Spirit that were radiated over those that opened themselves to live the inner state of My Passion, remembering the path of experience and of life that My Heart left as a legacy for all of My followers and non-followers.

My dears, see how infinite is My Mercy; once again, on this day, My Heart absolves you, forgives you and makes you find again the path of redemption.

I wait that in the coming Holy Week of the year of 2014 I may find you so united to Me as you have been today. Dears, because the works of Heaven are accomplished by means of the faithful and obedient servers who are in Christ over the face of the Earth.

Under the Merciful Power of God, be blessed and joyful.

Thank you for accomplishing My requests from the heart!

Your Beloved, Christ Jesus, the Redeemer Shepherd.