WEEKLY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SAO PAULO, BRAZIL TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

The one who, in spite of everything, abandons themselves to My Trust, will never perish, but at the difficult moments, it will be necessary for them to seek the Most Holy Light of My Heart.

Between Heaven and Earth there is no separation, between souls and Me only a perfect and unbreakable unity exists, which I deposit in the hearts that trust in Me. I make them mature as the fruit of a tree. I purify them as the farmer who mows the tough grain, but I never fail to observe their precious lives as the favorite present of My Father.

In these times, be as strong as the oak and as sweet as honey; may the Source of the Love of God not dry up in your hearts and that your lives may be offered in the name of Love, so as to receive the Graces that they so much need.

Be restoring apostles and healing servants of all the lives that cross your path. Be the true saving hand that embraces the disturbed heart, the wounded soul and the lost life. Always and forever, be merciful.

My Steps of light are with the valiant, My Flame of love is lit up in those who invoke My Holy Presence.

You are in a critical time, but remember that My Divine Mercy will still provide all the things you may need; you must simply call Me and tell Me what it is that you need. Everything has its time; even though time runs fast, the Lord hopes that the seeds that He planted in your hearts may blossom in order to serve.

Under the Love of God, be blessed.

Thank you for witnessing the Love of My Heart!

Christ Jesus
