

Thursday, September 3 of 2020

SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Unexpectedly, today I present myself to humanity, to call it to repentance.

Before now, the cup was almost full; now the cup is overflowing. Be aware of what you are doing, stop the attacks of brother against brother.

The nations and some of their leaders are already more than puppets in the hands of My enemy. A hidden and evil network subdues the innocent: children are abandoned, human beings are despised and rejected at the borders because they try to escape famine and persecution.

Do not play with nuclear weapons anymore. You, human beings of the Earth, are not aware of what a mere slip would generate upon the entire planet.

In the mid-1940s you were warned about the consequences of using nuclear energy, and you did not listen to our messengers. Now you run and compete, threaten the world and conduct hidden tests in places upon Earth that are already highly contaminated by so much radiation.

When will you realize that power does not belong to you?

Stop and listen to the Voice that comes from the Heart of the Universe.

You no longer have anything else to experiment with and to create. At this moment, recognize that you have failed at your experiments in laboratories and with humans; and that the current pandemic is the result of malpractice.

What else do you want to have?

There have been previous humanities that transgressed Creation and hurt themselves.

You are the fifth and final race. The danger is no longer in your paths; now it is in your hands, and you cannot control it.

Abandon the social and conquering arms race that you still promote in many nations. No longer attack the seas and the oceans. The planet is heading to an unexpected salinity.

The Earth cannot endure any longer, and it will reflect its agony. You cannot imagine this world without fresh-water, or in long dark days due to the spread of the ashes of all volcanoes.

What will you do if that happens?

As long as the Kingdoms of Nature remain the focus of an unlimited exploitation, blood will continue to be shed throughout the world, and it will continue to be in the news.

You have lost the intuition of your souls; you no longer have the sensitivity to listen to God within yourselves.

Your lives are darkened by ambition and injustice, while thousands of people in the world are hit by marginalization, exile and exploitation.

The same hands as always enrich themselves through global suffering, but that will end. It will be one of the first corrections that I will impose on humanity.

Today I speak to the whole world, I do not speak to just one religion. I speak to all believers and non-believers, to those who have wasted their lives for pleasures and desires of the world, I speak to those who feel satisfaction in doing evil.

There is no angel or Hierarchy that will stop the overflowing cup. You are at the edge of the great abyss.

My Heart not only sustains the suffering and agonizing world; My Soul endures the injustices and the contempt of those who abandoned me and did not believe in Me. They did not hear My message. They judged My work and My dedication, and My enemy deceived them.

Therefore, be attentive. Everything I have given you throughout these years was to prepare you for this time, and most of you let My Words pass you by and you lost them.

Now, with little time left, reconsider, correct your mistakes and ask for Mercy, because no one knows Justice and, even so, souls challenge it, out of ignorance and indifference.

In truth, I tell you that I can no longer justify before My Father everything that you do. The time has come for everything to be defined between you and God.

But if love, tolerance, respect and care are experienced in your lives, you will suffer no more; because everything that will come will be the result of pride, exploitation and the evil of those who continue to live them.

I can only tell you to repent, so that in these acute moments, you not lack peace.

Hold on to My Words. Be the New Testament so that the whole world stops suffering its own consequences.

On the twelfth anniversary, together with the Mother of God, and for an undetermined period, we will give you Our final Words, so that you may listen to them carefully, and your consciences may understand the message.

For this reason, responding to the Will and Justice of the Universe, and for everything received at each new meeting, you will listen to our Messages after prayers, which will be delivered beforehand, since for an undetermined time, I will protect the visionary, so that he may help Me to sustain this moment, in prayer and in silence, so that My Graces may reach other parts of the world.

It is time for you to live My Messages, especially the last ones.

My Heart has endured offenses from very close companions, something that has opened the Wound on My Side. The offenses of those who leave hurt My Heart, because I give them life and, instead of living in Me, they let themselves die.

May discernment and peace guide you in these difficult times.

May this Marathon be the synthesis and confirmation of your lives before the Sacred Heart of the Lord.

Who blesses you,

Your Master and Lord, Christ Jesus