

Saturday, July 14 of 2018

Special Apparition on July 16, 2018, transmitted by Mary, Rose of Peace, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I choose these special dates to let you know the most simple things of spiritual life, because in that which is simple you will be able to transform everything, in that which is simple you will be able to comprehend everything.

The life of the spirit is simple, but it is also wisdom.

I hope My children will achieve this state of simplicity and wisdom, not only in daily matters, but also in the inner levels, a place where everything begins and everything ends; because it is there, in that inner level, where the experience of your life on Earth and your passage through this Universe is held.

When you cannot conceive in yourselves this simplicity and this wisdom in the life of the spirit, it is because you are not doing it within your material life.

The simplicity of which I speak is not restriction or severe measures.

Simplicity will always lead you to love your neighbor just as they are and to not judge them because of their form or appearance.

My children of the world frequently forget these basic rules of life, because by living these rules, you will be able to be in God and God can be in you.

On this special day, when we celebrate, together with the Heavenly Mother, the anniversary of one of My instruments on Earth, through this I want you to see, My children, that the call of the Mother of God to Her children has always been and will always be simple.

On this path that I invite you to experience, you will also be able to find the humility you need in order to stop boasting about your lives, although sometimes you may not realize it.

Why do I tell you all this, My children?

Because the Work of God, since the beginning of all this Creation, was conceived of in the spirit of simplicity and humility. From there were born and emerged the most beautiful things in this Universe and for this whole material Universe; the spirit of each creature found a dwelling place, up to that which is most physical.

But know, My children, that everything has a correspondence and a communion between Heaven and Earth; within you and outside of you.

When you are not simple, you cannot be real, just as I need you to be, day after day.

Simplicity will not only take you to humility and truth but also to that which is most important: gratitude.

When you have no gratitude in your hearts, you cannot understand the Plan of God when it changes, time and again and from cycle to cycle, or from day to day.

If you are in this eternal gratitude, you will be able to understand the Mysteries of the Father and you will no longer be blindfolded, not knowing where to go or in what direction to walk, because in the life of the spirit, everything is clear, everything is transparent, and everything is crystalline.

I need you to not forget this, children.

When you cannot get around certain obstacles, it is because you have not conceived of the spirit of simplicity within yourselves, which will lead you into humility and eternal gratitude.

Although these words, that I speak to you today, have been heard by you many times, from My own mouth, or from Saint Joseph or from Jesus Himself, I invite you, dear children, to pay attention to the basic rules of spiritual life, because otherwise, you will be skipping the Universal Laws.

With all of this that I am telling you, My children, I do not aspire toward your perfection, but your transparency, your fellowship, generosity and collaboration.

This message serves for all of My children, because each one, according to their timing, goes through their purification and also the moment of their great surrender.

I want, My children, for you to learn to live as We do; the Sacred Hearts lived such a long time ago here on Earth, with no pretension, not wanting anything; always seeking to learn through equality, solidarity and above all, brotherhood.

Humanity, throughout recent times, has lost these principles. This is why souls become archaic and rigid and cannot manage to take their steps when they most need to take those steps toward God.

We have the authority, My children, as Sacred Hearts, of being able to dissolve all these obstacles within souls.

But, children, My children, you have already learned how to listen to Me, to feel Me and recognize Me. You know that what I tell you is true. Each one of you knows what they have to improve and perfect as a perfect offering for the Altars of God.

I am speaking to you about something profound, not something superficial. That which is superficial that may take place in your lives comes as a consequence of what happens within you when you are not in communion with the spirit, nor with the Universe.

We know that knowledge ennobles the spirit, but that is not what you need right now, My children. You need to ennoble your spirits with transparency and the loving collaboration for a fellow being, for the Divine Plan and its important manifestation on this planet.

As Lady of Mount Carmel, I invite you, My children, although you do not believe it, to live the path of redemption and your salvation, because many may believe that they are already saved, yet they are not.

My children, feel the Heart of the Mother that asks and begs to God for the awakening of Her children, even in the simple details.

All this will make the Earth and its humanity transform; it will make the Word of God triumph within you, through the examples of good and of loyalty.

I invite you, My children, to enter this school, which today with all of My Love I am offering to you.

I need you to hear My Voice, not as you always hear it. I need you to hold My words like keys that will be able to open the doors to your conscious and real transformation.

Children, there is a part that is yours to do. Everything must first begin within you so that then the Universe will be able to work and intercede.

The souls of the world, in the majority, are lost; and you know it because you have seen it everywhere you have been, together with Me, accompanying Me on this trajectory of being able to accomplish the Plan.

My wish is that on the day of the Lady of Mount Carmel, you could consider My words with sincerity.

My wish is that My Voice could touch the depths so that the Gifts might be sown that you need in order to live the next steps in this planetary transition.

My wish, My children, is that each one of you could see yourself for a moment, not to torment yourself or feel intimidated; not to judge or punish yourself. That each one of you could see yourselves, just as God sees you, just as the Father contemplates you in His Mercy and in His divine Patience.

There is still, beloved children, much to be done. I need you to understand what I am asking of you.

I have given you the Grace of being near Me, because it is what you need to be on the path of the spirit and in the living of the Plan, beyond any inner experience with the Universe or with all that is higher and even divine.

First, we must begin with that which is simple and necessary. You must not lose the basic rules of loyalty and fraternity; this closes the doors to Divine Providence. The Universe has everything for you and for humanity.

If each one of you knew, with complete awareness, what it is that I have to do to manage to be before you at each new meeting, in truth, you would consider My words and would pray on your knees to express your gratitude to God.

The Servant of God and the Mother of the Universe unconditionally offers Herself to Her children with nothing in exchange.

I want, beloved children, for you to grow, just as I grew, while I was Mary on Earth.

I know that in your inner worlds you keep known and unknown experiences; spiritual and also inner traumas. But everything can be dissolved in the Mercy of God and in the action of His Divine

Grace.

I do not want you, My children, to leave My path.

I do not want you, My children, to be far from Me, serving Me in other works.

Children, I need you here, close to My Heart, in a real way rather than one that seems to be.

Sometimes I feel your hearts to be cold. Why are they that way, if everything I give you is by Grace?

I only aspire that My servers walk with loyalty and that they never, never lose brotherhood, because brotherhood will unify you with the Brotherhood of the Universe, and thus, the Divine Consciousnesses of Heaven will draw closer.

The Lady of Mount Carmel comes to offer you a true consecration so that the next doors toward the fulfillment of the Plan, in other parts of the world, may open.

We wait patiently and silently, in prayer, for that moment.

The world still waits for more Mercy and for more help.

I invite you to continue accompanying Me on this path, which will transform you.

I bless this soul, and on this special day, those who have offered themselves as instruments in My Hands, so that more instruments in this vast Universe of God can be consecrated in their real task and to their real mission.

I thank you for accompanying Me on this divine trajectory!

This is all I want to tell you today, and I have opened My Heart so that you could hear Me with sincerity and love.