Apparition of Christ Jesus during the Sacred Call, on July 20, 2018, in Dornes, Portugal, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

If you do not understand the Works of the Lord, join them, because someday you will understand them. I only need that you love what I ask of you and that you always do it well, so that the Father, who is in the Universe, may be honored and glorified, and souls may be participants of His Grace through those who respond to His call.

Do not try to understand what is happening in this time because you will not succeed. Hold on to the sweetness of My Heart, because in this way, you will understand all things in its proper time.

The signs that I bring to humanity are to generate the great change of consciousness and in some cases, it will be painful and difficult, but every change has a reason and a meaning.

What I need, companions, is that you immerse yourselves in Communion with Me so that you can always have My Gifts available, which will be guiding stars on your paths, and above all, in your inner world.

Today I come to seek rest in those who do not tire of being in Me.

Today I come to seek refuge in hearts faithful to My Presence, in those who unite with Me every day in an unconditional spirit and under the protection of love.

Today I come from Heaven to give you something. Through Me, I bring the prophecies of Heaven, which today I show to some so that they can understand what is to come.

After I have left here, after having blessed you, this will come and will be manifested; for this reason, seek to live in Me and unite through Me with all the Universe.

Up there is what you really need. Up there is what you will experience afterwards, but in order for what is above to descend, you must be connected with the Source, and solutions will come.

There is no test in this life that does not have an answer; thus, I bring you that answer, and through prophecy, I bring you revelation.

I have asked to come to this humble place to be able to tell you this, because here nobody who is contrary to Me will find you.

In the refuge of the Communities, I protect My sheep. When My sheep are scattered and do not hear the call of the Shepherd, I cannot protect them and have to reach them in some way, through some sign or some message so that they may return to My Path, so that they may return to the Dwelling Place of the Celestial Father.

The flocks in this time are present on this Earth not only to learn to graze upon new attributes, but to experience a transition and a purification; something that nobody has experienced in any other time. That is why souls fear the pressure of these times. But I come to release that pressure that you may be experiencing in this time.

If I am here, it is because My Father wishes it. If I am here, companions, it is because I have come to offer you My Heart, as that inexhaustible Spring that will renew, purify and relieve you.

Through the Word of the Son of God, I bring you prophecy, something that cannot be understood with the mind; it can only be felt with the heart, although it is a mystery.

Something grand may be experienced here in Europe, but it will depend on that unconditional adherence to the great Messenger of God.

If you are here, it is because it corresponds to you to be here and not in another place. Those who are not here today are supposed to be someplace else, which is to say, in another school and in another learning.

Everything you experience has a meaning and a path. I come to reveal to you through My Word the meaning of this Path, even if it may be a painful path or a joyful path.

I invite you, companions, to find meaning in everything that you experience in life, because you will then not be intimidated; you will find an answer to all that you need and will understand the reason of all that happens.

I feel that you are not understanding what I am telling you; your inner worlds do understand; your souls do hear.

Your hearts may or may not feel My Words, but if I am here, it is because I am indicating to you where you must be, which is here, in this part of the Work that I carry forward with you for a Will still unknown to all.

In that serenity that I bring you today, I ask you to open to an understanding of My Words, because there is no time any longer.

What must be built for the next cycle is important. There are still many souls in Europe that wait for your service. Go out of your homes, of your ways of life, to meet each one of them, just as I, in these two last months, together with My Mother and Saint Joseph, have gone to meet these souls. And here you have a living example of that.

It is time to mobilize for the Plan, because the movement itself and the flow itself, in the very sense of the energy and the universal current, you will transform imperceptibly and will help to build what is new in what is already old and archaic.

The Plan of God is not hermetic, the Plan of God is not solid; it experiences a constant dynamism, because the Higher Source feeds it so that it can be fulfilled.

The Plan is still to be accomplished and you must be aware of this in your effort, in your dedication, in your unconditional service, in your presence and in your adherence to what is asked for, as much as it is not understood.

The Plan as a whole is based on love, and it is that love which gives it its own intelligence so that souls may awaken and live it.

Today I bring you the Ray of My Sovereignty and of My Fortitude, the Principle of the Governor, because it is time for the Divine Purpose to be correctly aligned in your spirits, so that what is up there in the Universe can descend. It will only be able to descend through instruments, by means of vehicles, of souls and of essences.

The help of the Universe is available to all, and answers to all questions are available. God is full of Wisdom and also in Science. Learn to overcome the doubts in life, the barriers and the obstacles that your lower consciousness may be imposing on you.

Place yourself at the epicenter of Universal Love and let your cells expand through the fluid of that Universal Love that comes to show you the correspondence and the meaning of the next steps of the Divine Plan of Love.

I just hope that you do not miss the opportunity; I will not tire of warning you up to the last moment, because behind everything that does not seem to materialize, in the inner worlds a great work is being built that the glad in spirit and the humble of heart will experience, and will be able to see with their own eyes what has been built with so much effort.

No one has the power in all this that I ask of you, not even I have the power in all that I speak to you. Do you understand what I am telling you?

Everything comes from God and if He thinks and feels it, it is concretized. But His children, His smallest creatures of this humanity are called to be participants in this Thought and in this Feeling of God, which wants to lead you to expand your consciousness beyond what is normal and superficial.

If I am here, it is because I am offering Myself for that.

The foundations of this community should already rise in the firmament. The pillars of this Marian Center should already be erected, because it will carry its task and its spiritual mission as the counterpart of the Sanctuary of Fatima, to give shelter to all the souls that are not understood, that are rejected, that are discriminated against, and that are expelled because of their spiritual or material poverty.

The essence of Lys and the purity of Lys is in its humility and patience; this is what makes it true, this is Lys in the Mother of God.

You must be the hands that offer this mystery. That is why you must release from within you that which no longer helps you spiritually. It is time to renew the bases of this pillar in Europe; not only for Europe, but also for Africa.

Africa waits for you. We have already given examples, companions, of how urgent the help for My children of Africa is. When you take the step, I will be able to reach Africa to carry all toward My Mercy, just as I have carried you since the beginning.

I just hope that this will come about and will materialize. Africa must be part of the pillar of My Mercy. And although I know that there are valuable missionaries there, and serving souls there who relieve the suffering, Africa still lacks its main spiritual pillar, which is a next Marian Center that will depend on this, so that it may manifest according to Divine Will.

This will take many souls from the abysses toward My Mercy, from slavery to freedom, from exploitation to the eternal gladness of being able to find God again through the spiritual Centers that serve the Hierarchy.

You have already had thirty years to understand this. It is time to unite for the love of My Sacred Heart; it is time to build rather than to divide; it is time to join forces, to fraternize; it is time to be illuminated rather than become darker; it is time to carry forward the design that God gave you by means of My Heart, through the Source of instruction.

The bases of your knowledge are already erected. It is time to finish building the Temple so that God, in His most infinite Wisdom and Compassion, may dwell within you forever and thus the Plan may be realized.

Do not get stuck in the human. Do not remain in the mental. Ask your hearts: "Father, what am I doing? Father, give me the answer I need. Open my eyes to Your Will and help me to accomplish it, according to Your wish and your divine thought," and in this way, you will know to love more, as I love you, as I understand you, just as I accept you.

I will not have another day or another hour, another cycle or another future time to come and tell you this. This is the only time that I will be able to say it. This is the only time in which you will be able to deeply penetrate My Heart so that you may only accept what I need, which goes beyond human life, the incomprehension or the doubts that My enemy may be imposing.

That is why today, the Governor of Heaven, the Spirit of Wisdom and of Love, comes to bring spiritual clarity and transparency to your inner worlds, so that you may be filled by My restoring Spirit.

I take this time because I will not have another and these words apply to everyone, irrespective of the school you are in, or live. The words are for the awakening of love in beings, for the expansion of the consciousness of the last Christs of the last days.

I do not want more souls to go through the doorway of Justice. I want many more souls to go through the doorway of My Mercy, because in this way, My Heart will triumph, just as it is written in Heaven.

I have chosen this blessed place to tell you this. God still touches this place with His Hand and I want you to never again forget this, because in spite of your being purified or suffering, God has His Hand in this place and under His Hand are all of you. Do you understand?

If God has His Hand here, it is because of something greater that your minds still will not understand. You must love the Will of God to understand it, otherwise, you will experience many obstacles in order to understand it.

Be participants in this mystery and in this revelation that I bring you today.

Here today, through His Son, God gives shape to His Will, so that someone may accomplish it, so that many more decide to accomplish it, not only for this place, but also for all of Europe and Russia; because Russia still must participate in forgiveness and that is in your hands.

In My Silence you will be able to feel My Words and in My Words you will find the keys that you need to open the doors to the new, to what is still to descend from the Universe.

So today I offer Myself in Body and Blood, so that you may experience this Mystery in Me and make it part of your beings every day, knowing that there is something higher and greater that moves everything, that leads you and guides you in these crucial times in which love struggles against indifference.

Let us lift up our gratitude to Heaven and in your hearts receive the appeal of God, the deepest wish of His Spirit, so that in Europe what is written may be realized according to the sacred books of the Universe.

We will celebrate this communion with the Heights and with the depths of yourselves, so that more souls may be worthy of this Mystery and of its revelation, which I bring you through Communion.

Incense.

Here there are souls that would give everything for Me; that is why I am here, awaiting that moment.

The angels of the Kingdom of Lys are gathered today around the Lord and all the souls present and not present, so that, entering that Universe of Love and of Purity, the doors may open to the redemption of hearts and to the conversion of the spirits that must convert into new Christs.

Through the elements of Nature, the non-material laws are manifested and the Purpose of God is sown on Earth; something that your souls receive forever and which you must care for.

Water.

Again I testify to what My cousin John once did with Me, of baptizing Me with the Spirit; but today I not only baptize you with the Spirit, but also with the Grace that converts and redeems the impossible. Amen.

This is My Body that has been given for humankind for the forgiveness of sins. Eat of it and be participants in My Glory. Amen.

This is My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant, which was shed for humankind for the remission of sins. Drink of it and be participants in My Mercy.

Our Father...

These are the elements that will give you eternal life. Happy are those invited to partake of these Sacraments, in communion with the saints and the angels from Heaven.

Go in peace and be My Word in the world.

The spiritual foundations of this Center are already manifested. It is time to work and to concretize the Plan, just as God wishes it in His deepest ardor, so that love on Earth may be realized.

After being blessed, you have to fraternally bless with the greeting of peace.

I thank you for listening to Me with heart and soul.

I love you and bless you in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
