APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE 40th MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, IN THE CITY OF SAN JOSE, COSTA RICA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Where it seems that nothing is happening, many things occur in the one who is united with My Spirit.

Thus, today I come to unite people and beliefs under one spirituality, which I taught in the past to My apostles and to My followers through the Gospel, the rule of Love. This is the spirituality for these times.

Many may proclaim My Name, but in truth, I will not be in them.

Many will carry out works through My Name, but in truth, I will not be in them.

It is the essence of My Love that allows all things in this time.

That is why today I bring closer to you the Grace of being in Me, and I in you. It is in this simplicity that I always want to see you, rather than in opulence, or power.

With My Hands, I banish those who say they govern through My Name.

I came to teach in the past so that you might learn to love, to forgive, and to understand your neighbor.

I came to be with you all, without exception. I sat at the table with the rich, I sat on the ground with the poor, I spoke with prostitutes, I converted atheists and rescued those who had committed adultery, because I came to see in you the essence of your souls, which is what must not be lost and is what many are losing in this time.

I come to reconnect you with the commitment you made to Me a long time ago, of which you are not conscious today, only through My Grace that awakens you to this reality. So do not fear, I am present in those who live Me, in those who truly preach Me, without anything in return.

I come here, companions, so that you may recover the filiation with My Father and not waste time on the false things that the world promises. My true Kingdom is found in your hearts and I am able to be in your hearts when you open the door of your souls to Me; in this way, I will be able to purify your lives and consciousnesses, and you will be one with God, and one with Me forever.

I come to bring you a lifeline that many today do not want to experience, because they do not accept repentance.

Many things will happen in the world, although you cannot believe it. Thus, I come to prepare you in this cycle as My new apostles, so that you may live Me, so that you may testify to Me in each corner of this world.

Thus, I come to renew the Sacraments, and to give the Sacraments to those that have never received them in their lives. The Sacrament is an opportunity of purification and renewal, of sanctity and of consecration of all your spirits before the Celestial Father.

You are before a great mystery through the Sacraments; but as much as you do not understand them, I teach you to live them in simplicity, because when you open your hearts, many things will be able to happen, and inexplicable miracles will occur in each of your lives.

After so many meetings with Me, companions, you are ready to bear the end of times, and although the weariness is great, the victory of My Heart will be greater; when it works on the nations of the world, it comes to dispel the darkness of hearts and peoples, it comes to open a door of light where it does not exist, a unique and inexplicable opportunity for all. That is why I Am the Sacred and Blessed Heart.

It is the essence of My living Heart that allows all these things. So I bring you peace and the possibility of renewing hope and of confirming in each of your lives the living of My Heart in your beings, because it will be that great treasure of My Heart that will free you from all evil and all temptation.

Through My Words, which I give you today with Love, I go freeing the restraints of your consciences, I untie the knots from your spirits so that the doors of redemption can open upon you; it is through this cause that I send My angels from the Celestial Universe so that not only your lives, but also your nations can receive the expiation of My Heart and so that you do not miss this opportunity of meeting Me again in this time of tribulation.

I want souls from Costa Rica in prayer for this nation and for the sister nations of Central America, so that the equilibrium of the equator may be maintained on this planet in the place that corresponds, and not in another.

So I come to speak to you about physics and true science, because in the real science of God, the spiritual and the immaterial is always present.

If you pray with devotion to My Sacred Heart, Costa Rica, although it lives in a superficial manner, will not have the doors closed to My Grace and many more will be touched by the impulse of your prayer and of your sacred invocation to My Glorious Name.

So I invite you, My friends, My friends from the past, to be aware within your consciousness to dispel the distraction and to open your eyes to the truth that the world experiences, the truth of its suffering and its pain.

I want you to be conscious souls, available for My Service, so that I can work through your lives and hearts, and that today I not only come for you, but for all the souls of Costa Rica that so much need My Divine and unfathomable Mercy.

I come to tell you, My friends, if you truly do not live love, that I Am this Source of Love for your lives that can bring you closer to God on different paths; this is why, My friends, I am uniting beliefs and peoples under one spirituality; this is the essence of My Message for this day.

What I want from Central America is that it does not lose its beautiful Eden. My Father has created it so that you could take care of it through your generations and all of your peoples. Do not let this be destroyed, because you will have no place to take refuge when the planet moves, as has been foreseen, physically.

I do not come to bring you pressure or fear, but rather awareness and truth.

I Am the living Truth for you. Your lives can be true when you simply seek Me and are in Me.

I have been able to complete part of My Work in this place, with all the prayers of your brothers and sisters who accompanied Me under the spirit of Divine Mercy.

You do not know how much relief My Heart feels for all those who pray in the world, who prayed in this Marathon in a sincere and non-mechanical way, feeling the need for the redemption and intervention of My Source of Mercy, because as I have told you, the Justice of My Father will come.

I just want you all to be saved, just as I saved you on the Cross, giving each part of My Body and of My Spirit, assuming the sins of the world up to My last breath. Do you know what this means, companions?

Remember Me on the Cross not as a dead person, but rather as the living Son of God, Who brought victory to the lives of the world, closing the darkness and all hells.

But now the world is to be found in great ignorance and indifference. Many, a great many souls ask themselves why they suffer in this time and if it is a punishment of God.

He who created you in His Image and Likeness could never punish you, because He would not be the God of Love.

He can only give you His Justice, not the justice that exists on this Earth, but the Justice that is in the Celestial Kingdom, and in this Justice, Companions, is My Divine Mercy.

Can you now understand the expansion of My Love, which is infinite, sublime, and immaterial? This is what you must not lose.

This is why I call on you to be with Me in this cycle, because I will not be able to be with you much longer. My cycle is ending and humanity must hear My Words. You must be disseminators of this Message of Mine and of all that I have said to you throughout these years.

My wish is that each one of My Words be written in a book, for humanity must recover its origin and read as God reads, and not with the modernities that affect the evolution of the spirits. Do you now understand the global hypnotism?

I come to give My Grace to all. Thus, if you read My Words in books, you will recover your intimacy with God; you will feel the vibration of My Words written on paper, rather than on screens.

This is why I use these means of communication, fulfilling the prophecy that I gave to a great spirit, a great server from the East.

By fulfilling the prophecy of this wise server, I am closing a cycle before the world and humanity experience their Judgment and the last trumpet of the angels of God sounds in the world.

I do not come to be apocalyptic, but rather true in Love, and in the essence of Spirit.

Happy are they who understand beyond what I say, because the words will have entered their hearts rather than their minds, and I will not have wasted even a gram of energy, the way humanity wastes it all the time, creating confusion, error, and wars, because of their verbiage.

Live in the silence of the Universe, look at the stars at night and ask the Father, "Adonai, who am I?" And you will thus feel peace, you will step out of chaos, and you will be able to be united with Me in prayer and in vigil.

Thus, I need you so as to be able to finish accomplishing My Works in the Americas and beyond them.

I come to leave My most cherished spiritual treasures for you, precious pearls of the immaterial life, the spiritual life, and the Kingdom of God; those same pearls that I gave in the past as Jesus of Nazareth.

For this reason, I want you to remember on this day of blessings, a message that has become a song for Me, from My favorite daughters, who make My Message resound in the world through their voice and their union with Me.

It is through this song that I will bless you on this day, and all these elements will be spirits of Grace for souls and for the neediest hearts; because when you experience a Sacrament, remember that you will be doing so for all of humanity, which suffers from the causes of its own evils and its disconnection from God.

It is that Grace of God that allows Me to be here among you.

And now, I will bless while you sing the story of My Life.

I love you and will always love you.

Even though you may fail Me someday, My Love for you is bigger than all of that. I Love the planet; the Project of God is this humanity, which must be the new Jerusalem that shines in this Universe forever.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
