

Saturday, June 16 of 2018

Apparition of Christ Jesus during the Sacred Call, in the city of Kraków, Poland, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

After more than fifty years, I return to Kraków to bring Peace to the world and grant Mercy to humanity.

I am here for this reason, and I have asked you to be here with Me so that souls may be freed from suffering; a suffering that stopped being historical and changed into a millennial suffering.

That is why I have brought you toward the Fount of My Divine Mercy, because I need you to go deeper into it, that you come to know it more, that you are able to penetrate more with your consciousness, because the world still needs it.

But today I brought you to a more difficult scenario, to one of the most difficult scenarios of humanity. This is why I condescended to descend here so long ago, just as My Mother did in Fatima, to have the world know what God thought and felt. But humanity has still not understood Our message, because it has not truly heard Our message.

This brings delays to the awakening of humanity. For that reason, I have returned here to Poland, through this Work, so that you may know that My Work of Mercy is a single Work, born from the same Essence and from the same Source, of which the world must come to know, not only invoke and ask.

While I am present here with you, I am present with My children of Poland and of all Eastern Europe, because I am already opening the paths with My Divine and Paternal Consciousness in order to reach Asia and Oceania.

Preparing the foundations through the Fount of My Mercy, the Work of Redemption will be able to be carried out and will be developed with the unconditional help that many have given so that Poland could receive this special opportunity.

Thus, today I am stopping the story about what has happened; that is to say, I am dissolving the human suffering, which has been registered in the consciousness of the men and women of all of Poland.

Through My Fount I come to dissolve suffering, I come to grant peace and to bring hope to hearts, knowing that there is still much to do in this humanity.

So today I am presenting Myself to you as the Lord of Mercy, but also as the Lord of Grace, as the Lord of Piety, the Lord of Love, since these attributes are the ones necessary for this moment and for what the brothers and sisters of Poland need, knowing that their own faith has saved them.

It is that faith that is so ardent, so real and pure that has allowed this Grace, that your Master and Lord of the Universe returns to Earth, returns to the place where He opened the Fount of His Divine Mercy, so that not only everything could be regained, but also so that souls receive what they need at this moment.

We are at an important time in the Universe, in the Church and in humanity. The Lord of Mercy comes to meet you, not only to erase the past, but also to have spirits be reborn in the Source of Love and of Unity.

In this hour I dissolve everything that has happened here, in this people, just as in your hearts I dissolve the impotence (powerlessness) that existed here in some moment, of not being able to survive. But now, before My Celestial Presence, the Master of Love and of Unity again presents to you His Fount of Piety and of Reparation, so that all the essences of Poland and of the world may submerge in My Fount of Reparation and of Healing, where the codes of evil will be dissolved, so that the true light that you are for the Celestial Father may be reborn in you.

Thus, on this afternoon, when Poland receives the presence of Heaven, I offer you the Gift of Forgiveness and that of Reconciliation, so that they may be instituted in your lives, in order that these gifts of My Grace help to restore many more souls that will need to detach from suffering and from agony to again trust in God, and above all, in His Divine Kingdom.

With all of the power that Heaven and the Universe institute, I bring you the Fount of My Divine Mercy, so that you may submerge in My Ocean of Love and the Codes of Light be renewed in your beings and in all of the Polish people.

In this way, I bring you expiation, so that you are able to forgive and return to love, knowing that you are all part of a same Source and of a same Origin and that someday all will be one within that Source of Love and of Unity that represents the Celestial Father.

Today let your faces not reflect the sadness of the past, for I know it is a real sadness because of the agony, the suffering, the pain. But I ask that you reflect a face of hope, because God has granted your people two successors of My Mercy: Saint Faustina and Saint John Paul II.

In them you will find the foundations for this restoration. Through them you will reach My Merciful Heart, because they have offered themselves completely unconditionally to the world after having ascended to the Heavens, to help humanity and above all, Eastern Europe, in order to repair and to close the wounds; unforgettable wounds in minds and hearts.

But know, companions, that in the Fount of My Divine Mercy everything will be resolved, because while I speak to you and you hear Me, I hear the crying of the innocent, I welcome them into My paternal Heart and I carry them to the Fount of My Divine Mercy; a harmonious and peaceful Fount so that they all may be freed.

Thus, in this hour, many things are happening. There is no confrontation with evil or adversity. My Presence has neutralized all spaces. My Presence has illumined all corners. My Heart has granted the end of a spiritual captivity that has been held in the heart of the Polish.

In this intimate union with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, the Lord of Mercy and of Piety comes to rebuild His humanity and His people, through the servers that I have sent to the world, who have gone through this Earth to announce and proclaim My Word and who will still go through this humanity as ambassadors of peace, to proclaim My victorious Gospel and the coming to the world of My infinite Mercy, before the Source of Divine Justice opens.

For this reason, companions, you not only enter the Fount of Reparation of My Heart, but also carry it to all those who need My infinite Mercy; in this way, I will be able to perform many more wonders, as I do in the spirit of those present and those not present, carrying you into a communion with My Eucharistic Heart and igniting in your souls the merciful Fire of My Love, which will finally heal the wounds, will free all souls, and will establish peace.

Thus, let the advent of the Mercy of My servers be accomplished, so that the planet as a whole may receive an opportunity, knowing that it must return to God to find the healing and the reparation of all planetary life, especially those events that have marked the history of humanity, and especially the millions of souls that have not yet achieved freedom from human suffering and pain.

But today, through My Grace and the Fount of My Divine Mercy, your Master and Lord comes to restore all essences, especially the original essence of Poland, that in spite of all that it has suffered and endured, has not lost the hope, the gladness, and the joy of experiencing your Master and Lord.

The test of the past was truly difficult, but the victory of your people is in the perseverance and in the dogma of your faith; this causes the Fount of My Mercy to return to Poland, knowing that there is still time to be redeemed through the Sacraments that I have granted to you from My public Life, up to the Last Supper, reaching the height of Mount Calvary on the Cross.

All these merits, all these gifts, all the powers of this Grace granted by God, are part of the unfathomable Fount of My Mercy that today I again pour out over Poland and especially over the souls that live here, so that in the coming time, the time of the great restoration and the great change, you demonstrate to the world that it is possible to inwardly forgive, love, and be reconciled, in spite of what happened.

It is by this means of Divine Mercy that the Lord and Master of Poland, the Lord of Eastern Europe, comes to this place, which is blessed by Grace; to again give you communion with My Body and with My Blood so that all may be renewed in your spirits, so that all may be dissolved in your consciousnesses, especially that which has stopped you from continuing to walk in faith and in the joy of living God in fullness and in trust.

So raise your hearts to the altars of our Creator Father, so that in this offering and sacrifice of the Firstborn Lamb, everything may be repaired and restored in the Fount of Divine Compassion, granting your people and the world the Mercy of God, which dissolves errors, suffering, and deep wounds.

Today, together with Me, offer this Sacrament of the Altar, so that the Angels that have come to meet Me and from the Kingdom of God, not only transubstantiate the form of the bread and the wine, but also transubstantiate all the essences of Poland, so that the Fire and the Spirit of Consoling Love may be reignited and all may be redeemed, bringing suffering to an end and entering the Portal of My Heart, of the Heart of Gladness, of Hope, and of Joy.

With these words that I bring you today from Heaven, I invite you to celebrate this Eucharist on behalf of millions of other souls in the World, that in many corners of the Earth, as in many nations of the World, wait for the Fount of My Divine Mercy.

On this afternoon of celebration and of profound reparation, I want you to carry this Fount to the world, through the communion with My Body and My Blood, thus establishing in your consciousnesses the state of My eternal Grace.

Let us then celebrate this moment, for all the priests, for all the clergy, for all the believers and the non-believers, for all those who need to submerge in the Fount of My Mercy, granting your people and humanity this special expiation that today My Heart brings from Heaven, to pour it out in your hearts, like a Chalice renewed by the Blood of the Lamb. Amen.

Incense.

And all who hear Me in any part of the world also offer this sacrifice together with your Master and Lord, so that peace may not only reach hearts, but also the nations of the world that experience the conflicts and the wars of these times.

I send this Ray of My Mercy in a special and very loving way for Egypt, Syria, Iraq, Nicaragua, and Venezuela. May all those souls that are there, be deserving of Divine Mercy today, so that they not lose the hope and the aspiration of finding their Master and Lord again, when He returns to the world for the second time and brings human suffering to an end, to institute the spirit of gladness of the Kingdom of God. So be it.

Let the elements of the altar be transubstantiated by the presence of the Angels of Heaven and thus the Spirit of Renewal may be instituted, bringing Peace and Mercy to the World.

Happy today will be those who live this Sacrament, for they will be able to recognize Him Who will come among the clouds, bringing the Glory of God and the return of the Kingdom of the Heavens, as it was in the beginning.

May the Holy Spirit descend over this element, so that it may scatter its Gifts in Poland and the world.

With the water I purify you and also consecrate you.

With the water I uplift you and also transcend you.

With the water I sublimate you and also sanctify you.

In this Supper that I offer you today, a mystery will be unveiled again that is to be found in the center of My Heart, which is the Mystery of the living Love of God in all beings and in all the creatures that He has created in His Image and Likeness. It is to this powerful flame of Love that you must return and come back always, because the Love of God is to be found in the Fount of My Mercy.

The Blood and the Water that sprang from the Lamb is the Blood that sanctifies souls and redeems them spiritually.

For all those who labor in My Church of the Earth and in My Celestial Church, today I offer this Sacrament so that it may be scattered as Light in the World and the darkness be dissolved.

Take and all eat of It for this is My Body that is offered by the Lamb Immolated and surrendered for humankind for the forgiveness of sins. Never forget to do this in Remembrance of Me.

Take and all drink of It, for this is My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant that is shed for humankind for the forgiveness of sins. Drink of this Fount of Love and of Reparation so that all may be healed, within and outside of humankind of the Earth. This is the Chalice of the Original Conception, the Chalice of the Most Holy Trinity that is being offered in what is most simple and humble, so that it may be drunk by the children of God in order to renew all the times.

This is the Sacrament of the Faith of all humankind of the Earth. Blessed are those who commune of It to renew their consciences, families, peoples, and nations, so that the Power of My Glorified and Merciful Heart may triumph.

Our Father...

Let us listen now to the Our Father in Polish.

Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world, have mercy on us. (x2)

Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world, bring us peace.

Happy will be those invited to drink of the Blood and to eat of the Body of the Lamb, so that all may be renewed.

It is in this way that I grant you Peace, so that you may live in My Peace and be My Peace.

Go in Peace and carry Peace, for in this way the world will be restored and all humanity will be consoled of its innumerable sufferings.

I thank you for having helped Me to come here, to re-open the Fount of My Mercy, not only in Poland but also in the Middle East.

All has been consummated.

I bless you in the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Now you will give each other the greeting of peace in My Name.