

Wednesday, July 6 of 2016

APPARITION OF JESUS CHRIST DURING THE 36TH MARATHON OF THE DIVINE MERCY, IN THE CITY OF FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Although it does not seem so, My Light defeats evil and so My Plan on Earth triumphs, in each open heart that listens to Me and receives at this hour the powerful flow of My Love, the one that will transform you completely and bring life, the spiritual life that exists in the Universes and forms part of each being, when he awakens to his truth.

This truth and this awakening tries to be infiltrated by My enemy. But the power of My Love defeats everything and he fears My Light and My Truth. When he faces it, he becomes confused and does not know what to do, because he does not know Love; he truly turned away from Love, the Love of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

It is this Triune Love that brings you Eternal Life, renewal and peace for these times.

In this Holy Trinity you must keep your hearts and lives, within this triangle of light that represents the Holy Trinity; there you will be protected from all evil, you will help to protect your brothers and sisters and you will also help, dear companions, to remove the illusion of those asleep at this moment.

This worldwide illusion is created by My adversary all the time.

The souls are hypnotized and many believe in another spiritual life that is not the one I offer at this time.

My adversary confuses the souls and shows himself with splendor through a false light that blinds the hearts and makes them enter into confused paths, which lead them to separate from My Law.

For it is the Law of My Love that shows them the Truth.

If I gave My Life for you and I now give My Life for you, at this time, why follow other paths, companions? My adversary only wants to tempt you, he wants to separate you from My true Heart of Light.

Therefore, today I bring you a real example of this maximum fidelity, through two consciences that gave their lives for Me, obeyed My instructions and followed My Steps with profound loyalty and humility.

They are Saint Teresita of Lisieux and Saint Teresa of Jesus, two examples for your lives that I present today at My Heavenly Altar. Two Masters of prayer, of the consecration and of the spiritual path, who can guide your steps if you only consecrate your hearts.

In all the Saints of the Universe who gave their life on Earth for Me, there is also the sacred example, the reverence, the true burning devotion.

In Saint Teresita of Lisieux you can find the example of humility, of real love for Baby Jesus and His true Heavenly Mastery.

In Saint Teresa of Jesus you will find your inner renewal, the consecrated life; each one on a different level of love and on their level of commitment to Me.

Saint Teresa of Jesus offers herself as your Instructor for this time, to guide the souls of the self-summoned, of those who are awakening at this time to the real Spiritual Consciousness of the Universe.

Today I recommend to you these two great consciousnesses because they have given a loyal testimony of My Word in the world and, most of all, of My Sacred Heart.

In both you will find the path to perfection.

All the paths that are full of love lead My Paths. This is what you should try to follow at this time and not be deceived by yourselves as the world is deceived.

Today I bring you this message, companions, because it is important that you grow in Truth.

Today I invite you to be humble, within the spiritual apostleship that I offer to all souls.

I only need you to pray with Me, that you adore the Son of God, because you will be adoring the Heavenly Father. That you contemplate this legacy that I hand you to be able to open your consciousness towards this path of redemption.

All souls are called to live on My path. The only path that I offer at this time is the path of love, that can unite you to your brothers and sisters, to all those who are around you, to all those who seek the truth, the truth of the heart.

It is this truth that will make you strong to remove from the consciousness all the lies, all illusion and all mistakes that My enemy articulates in secret behind each being; but whoever lives in My Heart and lives it truly, will not be fooled by him.

His time is approaching and My armies are preparing themselves for this.

You are called to enter into this spiritual command of the end of times and Armageddon, for you to prepare yourselves to experience the battle, a battle that is not known to the world, that was written by John, in the Apocalypse.

This hour is approaching; therefore, I invite you to adoration and prayer for you to be ready, firm and secure, in each decision you take in your lives. This will determine your destinies and the goal you will reach after it all happens.

Today especially, beloved children, I come to remove the veils of blindness for you to be able to see beyond this place and its consciousnesses, for you to be able to see the Heavenly Kingdom that is approaching, with all the splendor of the Divine Mercy, for the souls who need it the most.

My Heart suffers for the ungrateful, even more for those who hurt and wound the Heart of God. Only Love can repair it and the offering of each soul before the Heavenly Son.

If you are as you are, you must not fear being imperfect. I want to see you real, transparent and clean of heart. Because as much imperfection as is in the consciousness and in spite of each test not surpassed, My comfort is infinite to the one who truly calls for it.

I repeat: truth, because it is truth that you must live. It is the truth that makes the world lose itself, the truth that makes the souls lose themselves from their real purpose.

In truth there is peace, calm, quietness, inner strength, victory in each heart. It is this truth that I taught My apostles, that today I recall once more for each one of you.

It does not matter how many fail Me, what matters is how much they let Me live. In the living experience we might have together, brotherhood is built between Heaven and Earth, between God and His creatures and among their fellow beings.

So you will be free of yourselves and the sin will disappear from the world, from the beginning of Genesis to the present, since Adam and Eve committed the original sin. This can be erased from the history of the planet when the New Christs awaken.

Today, I unite My Hands in prayer to ask the Heavenly Father for strength for the weak, love for the hard at heart, faith for those who lost hope, healing for the sick, mercy for the ungrateful ones.

Today I come here to ask the Father for you and the world, because I need you at this acute hour on Earth, in which all is about to happen, beyond the capacity of each being.

When everything happens, there will be no return because everything is being fulfilled, as it is written.

Christ asks for a Bible.

On these paths that I invite you to travel, My Word, the Teaching and the Instruction is always there, moving all spirits to perform the Work of the Plan. If anybody does not fulfill it, it is not for lack of Word, Teaching or Instruction; it will be for inertia, disobedience or indifference.

In this way there are many souls in the world and even so, I send My Mother to Earth for Her Consoling Spirit to be the main force that moves the Universe, generating all possible Graces for those who do not deserve it.

You, companions, be deserving of this Heavenly Grace for the gifts that I handed you in the past to be at the service of My Heart, of My Redemptive Work.

In each step you take I accompany you.

In each breath you take My Spirit is present when the soul is really united to Me, and wants nothing for itself, only the good for the world, for the whole planet and Creation.

I invite you to live in fraternity. This will be your next step for the following months. To transcend the judgments, the indifference, the evils, the commentaries, the blasphemies and all the insults that the souls of the world are able to do.

If you search for the spirit of fraternity, you will only find it in My Merciful Heart, because My Heart is this great universal powerhouse that many consciousnesses use in the Universes.

If My Heart had not been offered on the Cross for you, in the present none of this would be possible.

I suffered the strongest pain in humanity through human indifference, negation and pride.

I come to banish from those who want to experience Me, all the patterns of evil that lead to the decadence of humanity, to war, to the division through times.

I come to build, in the solitary hearts, a new brotherhood for you to not feel lonely anymore and to count on each brother and sister of the journey.

That way, I can be among you when I do not come back anymore, because the time is approaching in which the world will purify itself and will see a reality it never wanted to see by itself.

I pray kneeling before My Father for all to be light at this crucial moment. Therefore I give you all these Graces.

Do not miss this moment with Me.

Make use of My Presence and do not think about when this all will end. That way you will not have understood what I am saying.

Even if I do not show Myself to everybody, I make Myself present in the peaceful hearts. Thus you have been able to see in this material life.

Many believe that there is nothing in this Book and that those who wrote it were retarded.

The apostles who followed Me had no spiritual nor mental instruction, but I taught them, as I teach you now, to write the Words of God through the heart.

Even if there are faults or little understanding for those who think they are wise, the true Presence of God, companions, is in the simple hearts, who write through their examples, who give witness of My Presence in these times, where light and peace are needed.

Here there are inexplicable codes. This belongs to My spiritual legacy and not to the beings who follow Me.

Men and women must follow My Commandments and not possess My Words.

This book, which was written with so much love, from the beginning of Genesis, shows a part of the Truth that has not been discovered yet by any theologian.

First, you must feel in your heart the message for it then to become real and to be fulfilled in each one of you.

I left you the basic Instruction for the times, the parables, which many still are not able to experience, even more so those who pronounce them in My Name.

I invite you to be simple, as the scripture of the heart is.

Because God manifests Himself on three planes of consciousness: in the spirit, in the mind and in the human.

Once more I leave this present from God. Although the Sacred Bible has been changed, do not get lost in details, but in the essence of the instruction that gives the spiritual Hierarchy to all souls in the world.

In each parable there is a superior key, a portal that can be opened in your consciousnesses. You will be invited, this way, to experience the different levels of love, as I taught you in the New Testament.

I place My Hands upon the Sacred Word of God so that when all is finished, nobody will have missed not even one enunciation of it.

May the instruction be revered and valued by the simple hearts, because there will be peace, in the knowledge of the heart that loves beyond what is thought, because the Word of God, the Word of the Hierarchy, is a living witness for the world, to reach the promise of the New Humanity.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Jesus will pray with us at this moment and asks us to follow Him in silence and in union with Him.

Jesus Christ:

Deposit, Lord, Your merciful Teaching for those who have fallen.

Write Your new history in the impure hearts, for each soul to be able to purify itself and to find Your Peace and the maximum consolation of Your Heart.

Lord, do not look at the faults of the world.

Glimpse at the Power of Your Word, of Your Sacred Instruction in all those who hear it, while their hearts transform themselves in potent streams of light.

Through Your Word, Lord, You created all.

I was born from the Source of Your Heart, and so Your Divine Spirit appeared.

You created the Universes in seven days and you made things in Your likeness, in the great splendor of Your Love and of Your Infinite Life.

Constitute, Adonai, Your new Teachings in the world, and may the souls awake to Your Love, which is pronounced like the Living Word in all You have created.

Transfigure, Lord, all that has strayed from Your Path.

Make Yourself alive and present in those who have not heard You yet and who negate the Power of Your Word.

Beloved Father, Holy Lord of the Highest, Unique (One) Universal Source, You have taught us to pray with the heart and to implore Your Sacred Name for us to be able to live as Your worthy children, Your beloved creatures of this existence.

Erase from each hurt heart the blasphemies committed and all words that have hurt Your Heart in the great indifference of the world.

Revive Your Sources of Instruction as a divine inspiration for the consciousnesses.

May each soul find the path that will take them towards You, to be able to vivify You forever and ever.

Make Yourself present, Lord, in all those who cry out to You. Do not look at their faults but at the kindness with which they look at You to find Your Mercy.

Unite Your Powerful Heart to each being and remove the spiritual evil from each consciousness on Earth.

Regroup Your flock, Lord.

I am Your tireless Pastor that leads the souls to Your Heart for them not to get lost nor be unable to find You.

Lord, accept My Kindness and the offering of all Your children who pray to Your compassionate Heart to ask You for an opportunity,

I promise to take Your Kingdom to those who have transformed themselves, through Your Holy Word, in sacrifice and in love for the goodness of the whole Creation.

So let it be.

My prayers are not heard in the world. Who will open their heart to listen to what I say and will not think about what each one wants for himself?

Ask every day to your Master what He needs. The Plan is near you. Recall it so as not to lose sight of it.

Now I will consecrate you again for the third time so that in the coming times all that has happened here can bear fruit.

I do not want My pearls in the stables of the pigs.

Each light that I bring is precious for the souls that know how to revere it.

I bring you the food of the spirit and the hope for all the planet.

Trust Me and never close your hearts.

I will return to the world to end this horror that the whole Universe is seeing.

Our Silence brings strength, our Prayer brings constancy and our Word, Mercy.

In these elements, companions, I hand you My Life, My Forgiveness and My Love, until I return in the Glory of My Father.

And with all My angels I will come to call My flocks and I will give all those who followed Me the Eternal Life and Grace of being with Me forever.

I hand you My Heart, as a flame of life that will never be extinguished.

Today, I raise to My Heart all the intentions that have been offered to Me during these days.

Know that I love your souls more than your errors.

Look into My eyes whenever you need it and remain in Me, in My Arms, as John remained until the last hour of My surrender. This way you will also be consoling Me and pride will distance itself in order not to confuse your hearts anymore.

So I will hand you My Peace and My eternal Grace after this life.

Today I spend more time with you for you to engrave in your cells this moment with Me, because although the world rejects Me with all the faults it has committed, My Love will never fail, because I am your King, and I am the Path.

Go in peace. And for Me, be the peace wherever you go.

By the Grace of God, be blessed.

In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Thank you Father for all that You give us!