SPECIAL MESSAGE OF GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED DURING THE 29TH MARATHON OF THE DIVINE MERCY AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

When we were praying the 150 beads of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the procession with the Most Blessed Sacrament was taking place in the Marian Center. While the brothers and sisters walked and followed the Most Blessed Sacrament, I saw, among the people, a being that was the Master, but with a different aspect from what He is. He was thinner, with a short beard and hair, and He was walking and singing among the people. Later on, I saw the brothers and sisters entering into the House of Adoration, and as they passed through the door, He touched with His Hand the head of each one, carrying out a sort of healing that cured them inwardly. Following that, I saw the group during the adoration, and Christ in the same person I had seen during the procession, seated at the back of the room.

Soon He showed the image of a field, where there was a group of sheep that were walking to a specific place. Although He was not present in the image, He had us understand that He guided that flock. At a certain point, the flock encountered a great and dark abyss at the bottom of which fog could be seen.

When the Master appeared, He had a great golden six-pointed star on His chest and His Heart was in the center. He was surrounded by many sheep, with a small baby lamb in His Arms, and He was caressing it.

Based on that image, Christ transmitted His message to us:

I hold in My Arms the most spiritually ill of My sheep so that it never loses its trust that, in spite of the time and the moment of its purification, I will not abandon it. Although it has distanced itself from Me through its mistakes, I have it return to My flocks, because above all just or unjust causes, your Shepherd knows what the divine Purpose of this being is.

You, as sheep, are facing the great abyss of the times, and you must learn to walk among the shadows safe within My Heart.

First, I tell you to not fear because the Lord, your God, will show each one of you that which is saddest and most unjust within you. In this way, you will be consciously invited to live the Law of purification, which is completely supported by the merciful love of My Heart. God will not abandon you because you failed or made a mistake. But your Father that is in the Heavens will apply Divine Justice so that you may soon be free of all adversity.

Second, in this great abyss where the world is, you will see the opportunity for consciously purifying yourselves from all stains and that, just as I teach My disciples, you may love one another as brothers and sisters and unite with one another. At this hour, when hundreds of souls are lost in the darkness, you must be very united, because it will be this inner union that will cause the fountain of love to spring out of nothing, and it will be that extraordinary love that will heal impossible things in the consciousness.

Third, in this abyss of the world, you will see that souls and hearts will face their truth, something they never thought of or saw. The blindfolds will be taken from their eyes and then everything will tremble, but again I tell you not to fear. The Son of God will assist you just as the woodsman assists in a great fire. My Water of Life will dissolve all disgraces in its perfect complement of love.

Fourth, in that abyss, you will see the revelation of humanity and the moment all are going through. Just as it was written, nothing will remain hidden. What is within the soul and the body will be visible, as well as the trickery of the false, those which before were invisible to many will be as visible as the dawn.

There will be no governor, nation, or humanity that will not be exposed before the Universe of God just as they are. Every lie, deceit, or human power will be revealed, and everyone will know it. It will be the moment in which the seeds that I gave you will blossom within you, mainly the seed of compassion and love. In truth, I tell you that if you do not practice these attributes from now on, the transition of the Earth will be difficult and hard for many.

There will be no more resistance that can remain in place, all will disappear. But if in the face of all that is revealed, you searched for the essence of transformation and honesty, unimaginable and unexpected things will happen, something that will go beyond that which you call miracles.

In this definitive time, I will be counting on the fingers of My Hands all the acts of Pity and Mercy that will occur and which, motivated by Me, you must carry out, overcoming shame, the evidence before others, or even sadness.

Joyful will be those that consciously place their spiritual aberrations at My Feet because I promise to help them exit this abyss.

Finally, My glorious Heart will want to see, during these days, those who say they are My apostles preparing, under the luminous power of prayer, for going through the times with courage and without fear.

That this Marathon of omnipresence, which I call it in this way today because I will be in several places at once, may represent for My followers the unique opportunity of overcoming themselves so that all human cruelties that happen today on the planet, to all the Kingdoms of Nature and to humanity itself, receive the Grace and the amnesty of Divine Mercy.

I will be by your side, together with your voices, imploring the Celestial Father that I may soon return to guide you again towards the New Humanity.

I give thanks for the union of all at this moment. The Lord pours out His Pity and His Peace upon you.

Do not lose your inner strength, live through faith. If you are in this time of Armageddon and tests, it is because you are prepared to experience it, at least for My glorious Return. Transform yourselves into peace, as the entire universe awaits you.

Under the infinite Love of Adonai, be blessed and meek.

United with all the prayerful beings of Mercy,
