Special Message of the Glorified Christ Jesus, transmitted in the city of Brasilia, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón, on the occasion of the 22nd Marathon of Divine Mercy

Look at the sky and as from now, see the glorious descent of your King.

Look at the firmament in the distance and see how the stars radiate the first signs of My Return.

Look into your inner worlds and perceive how I have made, of your lives, a present for God.

Release your difficulties and smile at the life the universe has given you.

Look at your brothers and sisters and feel how God works and carries out His miracles of Love and of Redemption.

In this time, look into My Eyes and see the hope and the faith that My luminous Countenance reflects.

You know that humanity is weak, poor, and needy. Thus, look at the skies and see the Rays that combine the universes so that, on this day, I may be here pouring out My Mercy instead of pouring out sovereign Justice.

Children, I have decided to come to Brasilia in Glory, because just like in Maceió, I found apostles of Mine awake to the supreme convocation for peace and the liberation of the world.

Children, each part of the Earth, each corner of this precious planet has need of My unfathomable and most pure Mercy so that, although you are not yet prepared, you at least build the Cenacle before My return to the world.

At each point on the Earth, I hear the supplications for pity and for peace, and in your hearts, I find the reason to trust and carry out My preparatory Works in the good spirits that await My Return.

In this sacred Marathon, may all the souls of the world, especially My companions of Maceió and of Brasilia, at least feel united under the same celestial Purpose. In this way, you will allow My sacred omnipresence to work not only in Maceió, but also in all of Brazil.

It is time for greater prayer and work; thus, follow the footsteps that My Designs leave, which are the divine Designs of the Creator and that, on this day, your goal for this Marathon is the inner renewal of the commitment that you made to Me with voice and heart.

Today I give everybody My sublime and divine patience that will comfort you when faced with a divided humanity, ignorant and lost through the actions of the adversary.

From Heaven, I call a part of humanity so that, through each marathon, the effort of each one and the union among you all may be ever stronger, and may this unite you evermore to the Will of My Heart.

I give My Peace to all My children of Brazil, because also through them, My Works, the most important of the end of time, can be accomplished.

Under the Love of God, be blessed.

Thank you, My apostles of Brasilia, for having responded and welcomed My Call.

Your Lord, Who speaks to you,

Christ Jesus
