APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS, DURING THE 30th MARATHON OF THE DIVINE MERCY, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDÚ, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Like the twelve Apostles sitting at the table, today I have all of you close to Me, to fill you with My Gifts of spiritual life, to show you the Purpose of God in these times of chaos.

I am that Sun that shines in the darkness of these final times.

I am the Eucharistic Heart for the universe of souls, for all the spirits that are in God; but I also come for the sinners, for those who turn their backs on Me through those that I send to deliver My Word of salvation.

Today you are before My Cenacle not only with the twelve who followed Me in the beginning to give the greater impulse of the Christification of humanity, a project that has been reached only by very few. I do not lose hope, the battle has not finished and still the truce has not been established because the Apocalypse has not occurred and the hearts do not know what will happen.

I come to give strength to the inner worlds where God truly lives and His great experience of love.

While the forces of evil unleash furiously over the world to conquer hearts, I come to establish, in those never seen before, My true Cenacle of consecration impregnated by the Purpose of God and by His Divine Thought, in all this Creation and for all this race.

If Adam and Eve broke with the project, humanity had to assume its own faults throughout time and the generations. But I incarnated in this world to put an end to those things.

I offered myself for you in the Passion and on the Cross, in Death and Ascension, to be that thread of light that united all the commandments.

Now that you know you must love one another, you must support each other. You must learn to heal through the experience of love and unity. In that, My adversary will not be able to work because he does not know what the True Love of God is.

When he was in Heaven he became confused and the Law deposed him; he will be the last one that will be defeated by the force of My own Blood when I return to the world in Glory and Light.

Until that happens, the good Christians will be persecuted and those who believe in Me will be mistreated, not by punishment, but to do as I did.

In the silence I gave myself for love, for Redemption and for Salvation. You should not think about who will live it or how it will happen. In the Heart of the Father everything is written, but you beings of the Earth, created in the image and likeness of God since the beginning of the project of Earth and humanity, can change the events when you are true, pure and humble.

Sins embrace many hearts that do not find consolation or a way out.

I give you the table of My Mercy so that you can make it known. This table replaces your faults in the book of the universe where everything is written, from the beginning until the end.

I told you some time ago that I am that Omega who comes to bring an end to all things, but for that it will be necessary to pass through the transition.

I know that many of your hearts would want to hear words of hope, but this time has already been written in the heart of the prophets, in the peoples of yesterday.

I Am that star that shines in the universe, which ascended towards the house of the Father to first return in the divinity of the beings and in the spirits of the workers of God who work tirelessly to concretize the Plan.

Suffer no more for your imperfections, just work to concretize My Plans and I will give you the strength of transformation and of the life of all the universe.

I am that Sun which comes to announce Itself again in the end of times just as I once came to this world to die for you.

I am that glorious Sun, that Sacred and Glorified Heart that brings to you Grace and Mercy; that is why My enemy works to dispel the aspiration of the hearts of finding My Mercy and My Peace.

The soldiers are formed in the first lines of the Apocalypse and the spirit of all men is prepared to face the final time.

I would like to be able to tell you everything that is predicted, but humanity changes the destiny of things as a consequence of its actions and tasks.

You must learn to love the Will of God without judging it or rethinking if it is right or not.

You must love the Will of the Father as I loved it and as I will always love it, because it is a will filled by the Love of God, by His most pure and noble Heart for the whole universe.

The human will is the hardest thing to die, it is the most resistant stone in the hearts of men, and behind it is pride and denial.

I come to give you the impulse to transform all these things, so that you are not the same.

I come to draw, by means of your lives, the new paths toward the Lord.

Therefore while you are purified or when you rejoice, you must thank God, because in truth I will always be extending My Hand to give you inner strength and reasons to change life, to change the genetics of the Earth, of all humanity.

I came through Jesus to show you the path of overcoming, of redemption, of transcendence, despite being constituted as a Divine Being.

The apostles achieved the same prodigies that I lived through the Archangel Michael.

If you have faith, everything is possible and nothing is delayed.

In this way, the Project of God descends and is realized in the hearts of all beings.

I expect that all souls recognize My Presence in this place where the aurora dawns in the life of each being.

I leave in this forgotten place, the refuge of my Heart for the coming times, and I expect My apostles to take part in caring for this refuge, that I spiritually leave here and which will serve the souls that will come to seek help, as well as the holy oratory of Archangel Michael.

I come to remind you of the humility of things in the simplicity of forms and in the beauty of what is manifested.

All of you should be bearers of the spirit of harmony and of vigilance of everything that is sacred, of the care that it needs to endure throughout the times.

All those who pray have the mission, in My name, of helping in the manifestation of the Centers of Light of the communities that I establish, for the great final task.

The Fig tree must continue giving buds, flowers and fruits so that new Centers of Light may be born which will serve as support in the transition of the Earth and especially to the groups of mercy that have responded to My Call throughout this time.

Thus you will see, companions, that when we are no longer here to announce Our Word to you, Our Spirit will be there until the moment when I return to this world to again redeem it and lead it towards the New Humanity.

There will be no other place to go on Earth, except where you have worked spiritually for so long to learn and instruct yourself, to grow in prayer and in service to others.

When everything is more difficult, My Church, extended through the Earth will recognize what I did here, and it will be late for the impious, for those who claim to be immortal before God.

God is the Spirit of Immortality; He is the Eternal and Omnipresent Spirit, as is His Son, who was born of the Spirit of Immortality to give you eternal life and teach you to transcend the times through Love and Sacrifice.

I institute here a sign which will be seen in the hearts of those who believe not only for their faith, but for the love of the unknown, the love for overcoming themselves by My Holy Name.

That is why today I have you seated at the table, celebrating this first spiritual communion, at the top of Mount Sinai. So that you remember that I Am that thread of light that unites the commandments.

Next month, I expect to see here, in this Center, those who say they are with Me, begging for My Mercy for this humanity, for what will happen with the missions will be important, and this work here must be supported. Aurora needs it, just as Aurora has given it to you in every new inner encounter.

The prayer groups should be organized to be in this refuge that I am giving you next month.

Thus, we will constitute a new ceremony of redemption for those who suffer in humanity and will be bearers of My paternal blessings.

In this sacred cenacle, on Mount Sinai, I find many coming to Me, to present to Me many petitions.

I hear you when the prayer is truthful, as it has been in these days, when My Heart is relieved of the sins of the world, of those who forget the Lord.

It is so much love that I have to give you that you would not bear it. Each drop of blood shed in the Passion, was a drop of love for the world, for each one the souls, in the course of time.

If you counted how much Blood I shed on the cross, on the Calvary or the flogging, and also with the crowning of thorns, you would understand how much I love you, because My Father loves you through Me.

I leave you this sign and I bring quiet to your hearts.

In the Light that comes from the infinite, I bless you.

In the Holy Name of My Father, in the Victorious Light of His Son and in the Power of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, uniting you to the High and the Superior, renewing your hope and strengthening your faith, so that you are able to live me, as I expect.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Glorified Christ Jesus
