

Saturday, December 19 of 2015

APPARITION OF SAINT JOSEPH IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS?

Today I will ask you to close your eyes and find Me standing before you.

I am over the sky of Aurora, with bare feet, a white tunic, a wine-colored mantle. In My hands I have a rod of tuberose, which represents purity and also consecration. I hold this rod with My left hand and, with My right, I touch My Most Chaste Heart, surrounded by three lilies that represent chastity. My hair hangs to My shoulders, My eyes, the color of honey, are focused on the world, radiating the humility that God imprinted in them, so that I would be able to see all things under His Truth and His Justice. This is how My humble eyes are granted what I see.

Behind Me, I show you a path, a path to the desert, the lands that once were sacred, but that today you have allowed to be submerged in malice, in hate and in the damnation of the hearts that dwell there.

All this evil was known by God when He sent His Son to this people. He also sent Me, as a common man, to demonstrate to humanity that it is possible to experience transformation, live the transformation in Christ and a union with God.

I was a man born on this Earth, and therefore I return to it to rescue My companions and friends from other times, who did not want to listen when My Son was pronouncing His Words in the valleys and hills, who closed their eyes so as to not see Him go by, because they feared experiencing a change and being struck by His Love, which they knew was invincible.

Many of those who turned their face toward Christ are still in this world to learn to look at Him without fear and let themselves be defeated by the power of His Love.

We did not desist from this Earth, because for Us, it is still sacred.

How could the Earth cease to be sacred where God placed His Feet, where He spilled His Blood and opened the flow of His Divine Mercy so that it could permeate all the universe through this world?

How could this Earth, which is really a school of Love for all civilizations in the universe, cease to be sacred?

How could your souls cease to be sacred, which carry within themselves the unique possibility of learning to love, of uniting with God, and making that God even greater in His Glory?

How could your essences, your hearts cease to be sacred, however much they sin and live in the illusions of the world?

You can never lose the truth of what you are, because that which comes from God is not corrupted by the worst evil of this world nor of any other; for God is the All Powerful, He is Purity Itself, He is the Truth, is Love, is Creation. How can He corrupt Himself?

If you are in this world, it is because you are to learn something through it. Do not waste the opportunity that God gives you, because you are on a very sacred planet, upon which God has His Eyes focused all the time, for He ardently aspires that more creatures become able to be in likeness to His Son and be true living gods of this world, to return to Him in perfect unity with His Heart.

When I speak to you of these things, I am not speaking about a dream, because the only dream of this world is what you have experienced up to now. The time has come to wake up to the reality, to the true Purpose of God for your souls.

The time has come to set aside your smallness and launch into the greatness of Creation. The time has come to set aside illusion and allow your eyes to be illumined by the Source of Divine Light that the Messengers of the Lord bring to the world.

Do not resist, because this Light will burn like a fire inside your cells and will burn up the molecules of damnation, so that the darkness in your consciences will cease to exist. Only the Light will prevail.

Do not be sad, be happy! This is the moment that all of humanity has been waiting for, for such a long time. How many consciences in the universe are observing you and waiting for you to say 'yes'!

Imagine, My dear ones, in different civilizations of the cosmos, beloved creatures that are part of this Plan of God and are on their knees crying out for your awakening, that feel pain in their hearts each time humanity denies the existence of the Light, that feel a great sadness each time the civilization of the Earth prefers to unite with the darkness and affirm ignorance rather than launch into the Light and discover the infinite love that all beings hold as a potential in their essences.

To some, these words will sound beautiful; to others, they will sound difficult to understand, because it will be difficult for them to step out of their own existence to contemplate Creation in themselves, the different worlds and civilizations that await them, because they do not want to believe that the evolution of the universe depends on their transformation.

But so it is, My beloveds, because the Lord is so humble, that He placed His greatness in such small creatures, His greatest hope in hearts that ignore Him or even deny Him, because they do not know Him and do not love Him.

I come to the world as servant of God to have humanity come to know the Grace it is to serve such a good Lord. You will never be sorry for serving Him every day. When you come to know His Grace, His Goodness and His infinite Mercy, you will set aside everything that you are and will not look back when only a touch of God is able to reach your consciences. You must allow those Divine Hands to touch your hearts and, with His Love, dissolve your barriers and your resistances.

For a moment, you will seem to be suspended in the air, because you will not know who you are and you will want to become secure in what you were; but do not be afraid, because that will not last long. Yield to the wonder that it is to be nothing, so that you may immediately be filled by God, in the Grace of Unity with Him.

I am trying to lift you up to a state of greater Grace, so that you may be able to understand life on Earth as it really is and so that you permanently cease to be lost in the fantasies of this world. For I will not become tired of saying that it is possible to achieve the Purpose of God, even with so many imperfections. Yield!

Do not wait, My dear ones, for your strength to end and you are defeated by pain, by the suffering of no longer being able to bear living in this world, because you can no longer bear to live with yourselves. Yield now, while joy can still permeate your hearts, while you can still bring hope to those who are lost and be a source of help, rather than being hearts that need so much help.

Feel My peace, feel the gratitude that I pour into your hearts, because everything I say to you at this time is not only for you; it is also to bring to this sacred land that is behind Me a little healing, the hope that is born in this Kingdom, this Kingdom of Aurora, which manifests in your hearts and is radiated to the most lost souls.

Why do you fear living in peace? Why do you fear humility so much?

I know that you will experience pain on being defeated by God, but it is the pain of a great victory of the Creator in your hearts.

Place all that I have said in the depths of your hearts and seal My words with My Chaste Heart, so that they do not escape; but rather, within each one, they are able to carry you into a transformation of consciousness, of life, of humanity.

Today I speak to you as a father, because the Heart of the Father is within My Heart.

When I present Myself as the father of humanity, it is because I am humbly one with God. He manifests through Me, because it is through His Will that I come to the world. I come to pronounce His Words through My mouth. No movement of mine on this Earth is separate from the Will of God, and this I do, dear children, so that you may learn from a human heart like yours, because this humanity will continue evolving and will need many fathers and many mothers that are able to guide the consciousnesses that for the first time learn to love.

This is My message for today. Just as you have listened to Me now, you must listen to Me every day. When you read My words, hear My voice, because it is I who speaks to you within your hearts.

Before I say goodbye, I will shape a request, because human minds have need of this: in this place, I want a house that represents the humility of the Sacred Family; let it be simple, like Our home in Nazareth, full of peace, and let it be a Source of Grace for the whole world. At the door of this house, I will wait for you, so that you may confess to Me and enter pure of heart. Inside of it, you will find the Sacred Family that, in humility, will give you the impulse for a new life, for a redeemed life.

It will be this way because humanity needs icons, physical refuges in which to place their hope, that allow their faith to emerge so that they may continue on their path, awakening peace and unity with God every day.

In this humble home, may you celebrate a union with Christ through the Eucharist, in the moments when you may need a more simple and humble heart so as to find God.

With these words, I bless you and also bless this image that you placed on My altar.

As a symbol of My presence in the Kingdoms of Nature, I wish to place this image in the garden that you prepared for Me with so much love, so that you never forget that to find the New

Humanity, to find the new human being within each one of you, you need to live in union with the Kingdoms of Nature; you need to awaken a love for these Lower Kingdoms and discover in them what each came to manifest in this world, so that in this way, My beloveds, you are able to express the Perfection of God as a planetary creation.

I bless you, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

I thank you.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph