

Friday, November 14 of 2014

Weekly Message of the Glorified Christ Jesus, transmitted in the city of Santo Tomé, province of Santa Fe, Argentina, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Make your heart small and you will grow in Life.

Become the pious Mary Magdalene and come to Me to wash My Feet with your tears.

Come to remove from Me the dust of sin that many souls cause in My universal Being.

Come and sit at My table. I will listen to you day and night. I hear the clamor of your heart in the universe.

Unite with Me and trust; you are in the correct place, where God has placed you. You are where you should be, under the Will of the Creator.

Let Me tell you how much I long to feel you close and enfold you in My Mantle, to place you in My lap and take care of you during the long nights of storm and cold.

Do not feel discouraged, I have already given you the key to supreme joy. Allow your whole structure to move within you and the true being that comes from God to be able to be born in life.

And while you still are crossing the arid and desolate desert, I stretch out My sacred Hand to take you off the path of desolation and emptiness.

Feel now the warmth of My merciful Heart again and allow Me to erase from within you everything that no longer belongs to you.

Be the same as My apostles, accept dying for Me and being reborn in My Flame of life, the divine Flame of God.

In this time that passes, I come to call you to tell you where I want to have you in this cycle. Listen to My Voice, which resonates in the heart that opens to recognize Me.

I Am that I Am. I Am the One that was born and returned to the Source of Love. I was the One that came to give the greatest testimony of Love and Forgiveness, and I Am the One that will return to give Life to that which has already died.

I Am the Spirit of the Truth of God.

Under the Mercy of God, be blessed.

Thank you for returning to My Heart!

The Glorified Christ Jesus