APPARITION OF SAINT JOSEPH IN THE CITY OF WEED, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

May the Peace of God and His Holy Spirit be in this place and in your hearts, so that in this way, you may be able to serve in the name of humanity, opening the doors to the Kingdom of God, transcending limitations and human conditions for a higher purpose, so that His Plan may be accomplished on Earth.

I am here today, children, not only to speak to you, not only to give an impulse to your hearts, I am also here for a higher request, for a mission that God entrusted to Me and which transcends human understanding, but which needs your hearts to be adhered to this Divine Purpose. For this reason, you are here.

For some, this mission is simple, for others, not so much. But in light of God, I simply ask you to open your hearts and allow Him to dissolve the barriers that separate your souls from God, so that He may show you the truth about yourselves, about this planet, about this sacred place where you are.

Today I come to open the doors of the interior of this planet to a life that for many is invisible, but which is accessible to all, if they are simple, pure, and if their intentions are true.

Today I would like to talk to you about this higher life that is held in that which is invisible, not only of the mountains, but that is also held in that which is invisible of the human heart and consciousness.

Today you came and studied a little about the mystery that is Mary. That same mystery is held in all things, in each creature of this planet, in all the Kingdoms, and in the very consciousness of this Earth.

Humanity is ignorant, My children, of the truth about Divine Creation.

And today I come here to awaken your consciousnesses so that you may glimpse a little of that truth, and I do it in the name of all humanity, for many that are not here, but will hear My Words, will need these impulses, in these times and in the times to come.

I would like to awaken the mirrors of your hearts so that, together with Mine, we are able to free this world a little from the darkness that dwells within it. And I can do this, beyond the human condition, but you need to say 'yes' to Me.

I come to pierce the layers of ignorance, to reach that which you really are in your essences, and it is there where I will ignite that mirror.

In this way, I will help you so that you can balance your souls, your hearts, and, in this service, you may be able to bring a little peace to this world.

I know that many are prisoners of their human condition, of their imperfections, and many grieve that they are not perfect, that they are not better. But, today, children, I will ask that, for an instant, you may set your imperfections aside, for you are facing God, you are facing the portal to Infinity, so that you may recognize that in your depths there is something in likeness to the Divine Essence.

So call inwardly to your souls, your spirits, that which is real within you, so that you may be here, together with Me. And, in this way, we may be able to accomplish the mission that I came to do at this moment.

Before I continue on speaking, I will ask you to sing, so that, in this way, the truth about yourselves and about this world may be drawn forth.

I am listening to you.

The truth is held within those that are ready to be in likeness to God. The truth shows itself to the eyes of those who open to see it. Truth is manifested in the hearts of those who are open to live it, who do not grieve over their imperfections, who recognize them, who know they are not perfect, but also know that in the depths of their inner world there is a divine molecule that waits for them to look inward and cease to be so superficial, cease to keep constant attention upon the things of this world and on what they express as human beings, as personalities, as physical bodies, which are so different from God.

When My Son one day had told you that you are in likeness to Him and His Father, it is because you are to seek that likeness within yourselves. As this likeness is within everyone, it is also within the consciousness of the planet.

It is for this reason that I reveal a sacred place to you at this moment.

In the name of humanity, ask for the Grace of being worthy of standing before Him. In the name of this nation, ask for forgiveness for having so long ignored the greatness of this place that is held within the hidden side of nature, that is protected by all the Kingdoms and is waiting for human indifference to give way to love for the Divine Plan.

Today I come here, to this sacred place, to slightly balance human indifference. And, in this way, generate merits so that this place may remain in the world, remain here, assisting humanity.

I speak to you about a place that is little understood, for the same reason that you do not know your inner world. Just as you are only attentive to the superficialities of your own being, you have also been attentive only to the superficialities of this world, you did not learn to penetrate the beauty of nature and go beyond it.

Ask God for the Grace of your eyes opening and being able to see more than an element in the mirrors of water, as that you may be able to find a part of the Divine Consciousness, that draws the Gifts of the Spirit of God from the universe, the attributes of Creation, the real human archetype that radiates to each creature that accepts receiving that Grace within themselves.

Contemplate the mountains, not only as simple mountains but as living consciousnesses that sustain the planet and that safeguard a mystery within themselves. The mountains are like great mothers that hold a new being in their womb, a new life, a new world. Within the mountains that you have around you is held a principle of life, divine, unique, universal, that waits for the opening of your beings in order to manifest on Earth.

From here, God pours out a fountain of Graces, divine gifts, particles of His Consciousness so that they may reach the whole planet, and let it begin, as incredible as it seems, with each one of you.

So that those gifts may reach the world, your hearts must say 'yes'. So that the souls most distant from God may recognize His Presence and awaken to universal life, first, children, you must say 'yes' and you must open to that divine mystery that is held in all spaces of Creation.

From this nation, the spirit of unity should come so that, in this way, all that you receive may be shared with each heart of this world.

Today My Words will represent a mystery to many, but I do not want you to understand with your mind what I come to say to your hearts. I only ask that you cry out to God, as humanity, for an opportunity for this nation and for this planet.

Ask that His Plan may be accomplished, so that you may manifest this unity among yourselves and upon the whole planet. Ask for the Grace of opening the doors to this divine enclosure that is held within Mount Shasta, and that the gifts that dwell there may awaken not only within the consciousness of this nation, but may also reach each creature, to the abysses of the world, carrying light and peace to the hearts that do not know them.

What I come to tell you today is that you discover, in the simplicity of your hearts, the greatness of your spirits, which is not human greatness, it is not held in skills, in the human or personal powers of each one, it is held in the inner world, in the heart and in the capacity to love and serve the Creator in all things.

Today I will consecrate this communion, by the authority granted to Me by God. As His servant, I will consecrate these elements so that, upon entering your inner world, they may awaken you.

Receive the Body and the Blood of Christ, in the name of this whole nation, of all the planet, as a reparation for all the human indifference and ignorance.

Pray with Me, as My Son taught you.

Our Father (in Aramaic)

And following this spirit of reparation, cry out for peace and for human awakening.

I thank you and bless you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Song.

Open to the purity of Mount Shasta, its mirror, its mysteries, so that they may be radiated to each space of this planet, transmuting the ignorance and the indifference of the human heart.

I thank you.

While Saint Joseph transmitted His Words through the visionary Sister Lucía de Jesus, the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón was receiving the daily message of the Virgin Mary.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón: As the Virgin Mary transmitted Her Words, Saint Joseph complemented what She was saying. When She began to transmit Her Message, Saint Joseph placed a lily of light over each of our chests, above our hearts. Based on this symbol, Mary gave us today's message.

After this introduction, Friar Elías read the daily message of the Virgin Mary, Rose of Peace, for December 19, 2016.
