APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDÚ, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Why are you afraid, if you are waiting for the coming of the Kingdom of the Heavens?

What else do you expect, other than My Light Shining in your hearts?

For what reason would you come to meet Me, if not to be a part of this army of peace that I am building in the world, an army that will have its real mission beyond this Earth, among the universes?

What you will experience on this planet, My children, is a unique lesson that will prepare you and train you to better serve God when you are no longer in this world. The real repercussion of life on Earth must be reflected in the universe. The redemption of your souls and your spirits must be announced to the cosmos as a triumph of the Plan of God in the human heart. It is the assurance of the perfection of His Creation that will have each of your lives as an example.

This world is in agony, and even the blindest and most ignorant can perceive it. There is no creature on this Earth that does not feel, in the depths of its inner self, that a critical time of tribulation is coming. Because chaos no longer just fights the Light; it also fights against evil. And the darkness that reigns within many beings fights among itself for the conquest of souls.

It is for this reason, My children, that even those who ignore the Light do not fail to perceive the oppression of darkness. I tell you these things because you must be aware of what is happening on this planet where you live; because at least some human beings must defeat indifference consciously to establish peace within themselves, and from within themselves, reflect that peace to the world.

If you do not listen to My Words now and if you do not seek to practice them in your daily life, nothing will be gained by your being with Me during all My Apparitions, because if you do not listen to Me and if you do not live what I tell you, I will not be able to build a stronghold within you, so that you may move through the times of transition with assurance, with certainty, with courage, not only for yourselves, but also for those who will seek help from those who believe they have a certain fortitude within themselves.

Many will observe your spiritual life, many will observe the steps that you are taking in these times, and even though they may fear following your examples, at the moment in which this world shakes and the ground under their feet is no longer stable, they will remember that example of that prayerful being, and will look for the help and peace in you that they will not find someplace else.

Children, the superficialities of your lives are still greater than the life of the spirit. When you are on a day of an Apparition, your consciences are still involved much more with material things than with My Presence. Few are those who awaken and remember that I will be here. The majority think of the event, of what they will sing, how they will organize it.

You must remember every day that you are a part of a Marian Mission. You must feel each Apparition as if it were the last, because one day I will not be here among you. You will want to listen to My Words and they will only resonate within you.

For this reason, unite with Me; unite with My Purpose of Peace. Consolidate a true union with My Immaculate Spirit. Value, My children, value what you experience today! Seek to meditate and reflect every day upon the immeasurable Grace that you receive, of feeling the Peace of God in your hearts, while many suffer in wars, persecutions, while many cannot proclaim their faith, no longer know peace.

Many times I have asked you not to get used to being with Me, but rather, in humility, to recognize that you know nothing about this mystery of My Presence, that even though you have been with Me so many times, you do not know the real origin of My Consciousness, You do not know the grandeur of this moment, because neither your minds or your hearts are capable of understanding Me.

I also recognize the limitation of human beings. It is for this reason that I always return to the world. I recognize the effort of each one, but I also know your potential. Thus, I do not allow you to get comfortable in what you have already achieved, because it is very little in light of all you have received. You are the most blessed souls of this planet at this moment. How much do I ask of you in light of all you receive?

Is it too much, My children, to ask you to be more obedient and humble, more charitable and fraternal, truer, more transparent, simple of heart?

Is it too much to ask you that when you sit to pray, you not only pray with your word, but pray with your heart?

Is it too much, My children, if I ask you to not let this Marian Center die through weariness or through the inertia of your hearts?

Is it too much if I ask you to not let the liturgies that take place here to be extinguished, but that day after day you strive to keep alive the presence of the Divine Messengers in each of the prayers you offer here?

This Marian Center, as well as all the Marian Centers I founded in the Name of God, must be powerhouses of liberation for the planet, a doorway of transformation for souls who find full union with God here.

Who will give their life so that this channel remain open and so that My Heart does not contemplate the world and find doors closed to pour out My Graces?

What will Our Lord feel, My children, when in His Heart and His Hands He has a spring of Mercy to pour out upon the souls of this planet and finds you asleep?

Will He feel that you are affirming the value of each spilled drop of His Blood?

I want you to be ready to lovingly receive all souls who come here, as well as to all the other Marian Centers, for if this is not done, My children, how will I be able to have My children in need of redemption come to this place?

Today I speak to you this way because I need you to awaken. I speak to you as to all My children of this world. I have need of soldiers ready, willing to give their own life, to not rest, to not sleep, to experience hunger so as to give another the food they receive.

Who will be willing to build full union with Christ and drink of the Source of His Divine Mercy when it is necessary to suffer some shortfall so as to give everything you have to your neighbor? For I will ask this of you. I will ask, My Children, that you pray without ceasing, because the world needs this.

You only see what takes place on Earth when you read some news, so imperfect in the means of communication of this world. But My Immaculate Heart contemplates all the abysses of the Earth and knows that more forgotten soul, that soul that no photographic camera can find, but suffers as much terror and as much abandonment as those that are in wars.

It is for this reason that I tell you to no longer spiritually sleep, that you no longer be indifferent in the face of the planetary situation, because if you believe that what you know is serious, imagine all that you do not know in this world.

The planet is in much greater agony than you imagine! Only the power of prayer, My children, of sacrifice, of surrender, of love, is capable of balancing what is happening on Earth. And it is in the small efforts of your daily life that you will be able to find that path of balance and of peace.

Do not think that what you can do is little, because humanity is doing nothing in the face of the great chaos of the world. Those who consider themselves more conscientious must live greater sacrifices, greater degrees of love, they must correspond to what they receive while they pray, they must pray from the heart, they must pray with Me as I have asked them to, as I taught them. Or do you not believe that My attention never leaves this planet, that My Eyes are fixed upon the world and that My Heart receives encouragement when you truly pray? For this is so, My children.

My greatest joy is to find a praying, simple, pure heart, which, in spite of being so small, generates great merits for the salvation of the Earth.

My greatest joy is to find a heart that is willing to be consecrated to Me. That, even without knowing why, responds to My requests and does so sincerely.

My greatest joy is when, in spite of the tiredness, you place your knees on the floor and cry out to the Father for His Divine Mercy.

My greatest joy is when before sleeping, you remember Me, you remember God, and ask the Father for a little peace for this world.

My greatest joy is when a child of Mine perceives the need of a neighbor and stops thinking about themselves to help that one more in need.

My greatest joy is when a child of Mine can stop a thought that seeks to judge another, because they remembered that I have asked them to understand their neighbor.

My greatest joy, My children, is when you seek every day to live something that I have asked of you, some Beatitude of My Son, like He once told you.

It is not much that I expect. I merely expect the least that you can offer in the Name of God, defeating your own indifference to generate merits for the salvation of this humanity.

On this evening, My children, in light of all that is happening in the world, of so many children who have no place to sleep, so many that die of starvation, so many that suffer fear, so many that at this moment are immigrating from their homes, from their nations, My Heart receives encouragement, a simple encouragement, but because it is real, it will be able to transform many things in humanity as well as in the planetary consciousness.

If these five children of Mine who are being consecrated today should multiply their prayers, the consecration of their souls will count for many, will be able to generate merits for the redemption and the salvation of beings unknown to them. Thus, come to Me with the sincerity of your hearts. Come as children, seeking to live purity. Come to God.

But that is not the only joy of My Heart; I am also glad, My children, when My children propose that I consecrate an image to thus expand My Peace throughout other nations.

I know that it was in the silence of your hearts that you placed that image here on My altar. You do not need to say anything for Me to recognize your will and make of it the Will of God, because when you are sincere and when you have the purpose of establishing peace, God always lives in your intentions. Thus, I will consecrate this image.

I will consecrate this image for My children of Ecuador so that thus, My Immaculate Heart may triumph once again in that Nation. Let the faithful and the simple of heart multiply, who will pray before Me, who will seek My help not only for themselves, but for all of humanity.

Here, My children, I place My Peace, My Immaculate Heart, so that you may carry it to all homes willing to receive Me. May My Graces and Blessings be poured out upon those of pure intention that may be before this image. Let redemption and salvation be a reality for the spirits that, pure of intention, may be before this image. Let the Peace and the Triumph of God be a reality for those hearts that, pure of intention, may be before this image.

Just as I consecrated this image, I consecrate all the images placed on My altar. In each of them I place those Graces that you will need to receive so that you may walk in greater faith, so that you may multiply peace and hope in your hearts.

Be multipliers of My Love and of My Peace in this Nation that I have already consecrated long ago, but that I will renew My commitment to through the consecration of your lives.

Now, My children, I will ask you to sing with joy and that you do not forget My Words.

I consecrate you, I bless you, and above all, I thank you for having responded to My Call; for, in spite of human indifference, being with Me as representatives of humanity that, with great difficulty, aspire to overcome yourselves.

I will help you whenever you are true. Seek My help. I am your Holy Mother and I am here to help you. That is why I come to the world every day. But after having asked for My help, listen to My Words and live each one of them.

I love you and bless you by the Power of God the Father, by the Power of the Son, by the Power of the Holy Spirit, which lives and reigns in My Immaculate Heart. May this Holy Spirit of God live within all creatures that say 'yes' to the great transformation.

I thank you.
