APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS ON THE FOURTH DAY OF THE SACRED WEEK, AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In withdrawal, prepare for My great moment; covering your heads enter the temple of the soul, so that your souls participate in the Communion with the Lord.

On this day of second initiation, in which you will prepare together with the Master to enter His sorrowful Passion, His current sorrowful Passion for the planet, in which your Redeemer will share with those of His the tasks that God has entrusted to Him.

Before entering the Cenacle of the Last Supper, tomorrow, you will again hear, from your Master and Lord, instructions similar to those He conveyed to the apostles of the past, instructions that prepared them to live their mission of evangelization and service for the world.

Therefore, live this moment as something unique and unrepeatable, within the preamble of My Return to the world, in which your souls are called to reaffirm your covenant with Me forever, in which your souls are called to live the Will of God through My Heart.

With this, understand that what I bring to you is unknown, because it is something that My Father needs to be fulfilled through the life of each one of you and your brothers and sisters.

While the planet and humanity continue to suffer, the need for apostles, for apostles of My Heart, is very great, apostles who are available in this final cycle to support the heavy cross of this end of cycle.

But you will not be alone to do that, My Soul and My Spirit will help you to learn to carry the cross that I offer you, a mature cross that will take you out of yourselves to be immersed in the Will of the Father.

Before the celebration of the Last Supper in Jerusalem, My apostles came to know the same things that you hear today and that was not written, but it was kept in the heart of each one of them, just as today it is kept in every heart that is open to receive My Message.

On this day of Sacred Week, we are in the middle of a transition, an internal transition and an external transition, in which the line of the end of the past and of the new future will be marked, the future that will define the next steps of this humanity.

I invite you to pray for this, on this day and all the days to come, because My Father deeply desires that His creatures know His mysteries, unveil them and know them, in order to fulfill them and carry His Aspirations forward.

When I was with the twelve, before entering the Last Supper, as the holy women with My Holy Mother, they got to know this mystery that was unveiled as a great need of God for the imperious presence of apostles at the end of times, two thousand years after I passed through Earth, two thousand years later in which My long-awaited Return would be prepared.

Today I come with this declaration of Truth, but also of Love, knowing that today the unconditional disposition of souls, throughout the length and width of the world, is insufficient.

For this reason, once again, I come to avail myself of small groups of souls that, regardless of where they are or find themselves, have the Grace of keeping in their hearts this request of their Master and Lord, which is a request of the Eternal Father, fiery bases that will prepare the Return of Christ to Earth through the transformation of the lives of people, through all those who say yes to Me.

Today I bring you more than a feeling, today I bring you more than a word, today I bring you the deep aspiration of My Heart for souls to understand that My Presence on this day, among you and throughout the last years, has not been in vain, but that your lives have committed to Me until the end.

For those who did not understand My Message and are not here, do not worry. On the great day of My Return, not only will the Scriptures be fulfilled, but My actions will also be fulfilled because I will separate the chaff from the wheat. I will call the blessed, but I will also call the indifferent to live the Universal Judgment and I know that no one is yet prepared for that.

In an immediate and hasty way, I descend from Heaven with all the Power of God to help you and assist you with My impulses of Light, so that your hearts are ready, just as My Heart was ready, seconds before the flagellation.

Have you ever said to God: Father, is my heart ready? Do you know what is held within that statement?

A prompt heart is not an excited heart. A prompt heart is a mature heart, without conditions or aspirations. It is a ready and mature heart capable of giving itself completely to God without anything in return. It is a heart capable of dying for Me and of giving value to each of My Words, and being a heart that testifies to the Presence of Christ within itself.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazon de Jesus:

Our Lady appeared next to Jesus, more pure and luminous than all His vestments.

She is here as the Lady of the Holy Rosary of Fatima, together with Her Son, showing Her Immaculate Thorned Heart, which She offers to each one of us for the reparation and healing of all the women of the world, of the women of war, for immigrant women, for exploited women, for enslaved women, for women who govern, for women of the fields, for women who suffer in silence, and for all mothers who live for their children.

Mary offers Her thorned Heart in reparation for the outrages, curses and indifference that the feminine consciousness of this world has received and that has forever erased the mirror of the heart of every feminine being on Earth.

Jesus said:

She is the Mother that I have given you while I was on the Cross, the unconditional Mother among all the mothers in the world, the Mother who pleads for you each day of life and for all eternity.

For this reason, today My merciful Heart helps all women on Earth so that they can get up from where they have fallen or from where they were subjected.

This is the cycle of the Mother of God, the Scepter is in Her hand.

Blessed will be those who recognize this Legacy because the triumph of Her Immaculate Heart will always win. Amen.

For the spiritual communion of today, I will leave you in the company of My Mother, in the presence of Her immaculate Spirit because it is to God that we owe the Presence of the Mother of God and of all the mothers of the world who gestate life within their wombs and held all of you in their arms.

Surrender to spiritual maternity, may your hearts not be selfish, may you feel and see, beyond what it is, that God has created the women of the Earth as a symbol of nobility and love and not of exploitation and chastisement.

My Heart welcomes all the chastised women, slaves of humankind from the surface of the Earth, because when I come from Heaven, I will give a scepter to each one of them and the Earth will be filled with virginal purity forever.

If My Mother were able to reach the foot of the Cross, what would her mothers of the world be able to do? Always ask yourselves that, because they want your good, that you be worthy children in the Lord and that you always count on them.

For this reason, Mary, My Mother, was in the Cenacle. She gave her life for you so that Love and Redemption would triumph. She gave the most precious thing she had in Her Life and saw it nailed to a Cross, as today many mothers in the world see their children lost and suffer in silence.

But the Spirit of Consolation will come; just as Mary, My Mother, gave it to the apostles at Pentecost. And everything will pass, until My arrival in the world is consummated.

For this reason, Our Sacred Hearts are here today, so that the promises of Their Redeemer may be fulfilled, and those who are orphans may accept the motherhood of Mary.

"Mother, here are Your children." "Companions, here is your Mother."

Today we will give the attribution to the Mother of God so that the feminine consciousness of the Earth is repaired and is no longer an object of exploitation or chastisement, but is recognized by all the children of God as an instrument of love and service.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazon de Jesus:

Our Lady disappeared, but Christ is still here, infusing His Light for the whole world.

Now that you have been purified again, you will meditate upon all that I have told you and upon the importance and value of motherhood in the world at this crucial time.

For that reason, we will listen to a simple but profound song, in reparation of all the feminine consciousness of the planet: "Looking at You." That song will be like a tribute to the mothers of the world, so that mothers always trust in Mary, the Mother of God.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
