APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS ON THE FIFTH DAY OF THE SACRED WEEK, AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The time has come for each one of you, the great moment to carry with Me the cross of humanity. But for that to be possible, I have come to give you once again the greatest spiritual treasure for all humanity: the Eucharist.

And so, I come to renew your apostleship on this day so that you and your brothers and sisters bring continuity to the history that God is writing with His own Hand.

Have you ever thought that you are part of My Christic Legacy? And today, I gather you again around My table to celebrate, like the apostles of the past, the Last Supper, so you may live, now and always, the Spiritual Communion with Me through the divine Sacrament of the Altar.

In this time, in which many events precipitate upon the world, the strength and power that I can give to the priesthood is something inexhaustible, but it depends on you that this be possible and a part of a supreme reality.

Just like the apostles of the past, I taught them to sacrament, to heal and to evangelize; today, in the face of this planetary moment, I come to rebuild the bridges of Light that have been dissolved between Heaven and Earth, between priests and God.

Just as in the Garden of Gethsemane, I experienced the great sins of the world and I assumed them, one by one; I also lived, on that holy night of Holy Thursday, the victory that My Legacy would achieve to the world through all My followers so that, tomorrow and in the days to come, they would decide to carry with Me the cross of the world, the cross of these times.

I have come to bless you, I have come to purify you and I have come to transform you, if you allow Me, into what My Father hopes for so much, that you be My mature apostles, that you not only live My Word, but also announce My arrival, My next Return to the world.

For this reason, your Guardian Angels today are witnesses to this event that occurs in the depths of the spirit of each server, because it is not only for priests, but also for the whole world, for all those who have faith in Me and proclaim the Name of the Lord.

On that night, before being handed over, I not only gave My Body and My Blood to My apostles, but I also announced to them the Word of Truth. It is that same Word of Love that today I come to announce to you so that you can bring continuity to My Work of Mercy.

Now, before you carry the cross of humanity with Me tomorrow, feel for a moment the opportunity to be worthy children of God, but not only to believe it, but also to feel it, to proclaim it and to announce it through works of love and mercy that relieve the whole world. Just as this part of My Work does that through many servers who give their lives to serve others through humanitarian service.

Know, on this afternoon of Mercy, that humanitarian service throughout the world is one of the reasons that make Me return here, because My Father sees with His own Eyes that all is not all lost and that those who were announced by the Angel of the Garden of Gethsemane, today you are here, in this present time, forming part of this story of love that I try to write through your hearts, your souls and the redemption of your lives. These are the spiritual goods, they are the gifts and the virtues that My merciful Heart can leave at the Feet of the Creator as the only testimony of the conversion of hearts to My Christic Path.

If I am the Way for each one of you, it is because I am the only pathway. If I am the Truth for each one of you, it is because I am the only knowledge. If I Am Life for each one of you, it is because you can live through Me and I can live through you, depositing My Aspirations into your hearts, but also My sorrows, the sorrows that the whole world causes Me.

This is what I came to share with the apostles of the past and today is what I share with the apostles of the present. My only reason is that you be able to experience My Christic Path, a path of deep solidarity, deep brotherhood and inexhaustible faith, despite everything that is happening in the world today.

Why would I want apostles, if not for the end of times? In them, I build My Celestial Church, and I give them impulse, through transformation, to elevate their consciences towards the Divine Purpose, that Divine Purpose that is written for each of you since before the emergence of your essences.

Do you understand what this means?

It is that there is no other way but to live the Will of God, which you will finally understand after this life. That is the reason for the suffering of all humanity, the suffering of nations and peoples, the resistance to living the Will of God.

But I understand you and I comprehend you. I know that it is not easy for the humanity of the surface to not have control over the unknown; but if you were born to be free, what control do you want to have, if your lives, your souls and your essences are of God?

I wish, on this day of withdrawal and of the institution of the Eucharist, that My companions, and especially those who are not yet My companions, not waste any more time, because there is no more time.

I come to make your lives an instrument in the Hands of God, empty instruments, although imperfect. I come to look at that which God placed in each one of you from the beginning and that you must learn to value and appreciate, which is your divine essence, the Grace of communicating with God like no other being in the entire universe.

Do you know that Creation appreciates that connection with God that you have? There are many consciences in Heaven that would like to have that same Grace that you have, and which you conquer with effort and sacrifice, something that you should not do, because that divine connection is within each one of you, if only you believe in it.

God manifests Himself on this material plane in three principles: through His Will, through Knowledge, and through His children. Do not forget your filiation with the Eternal Father, because you will need it for what will come at the end of times.

Under the same aim and purpose as the apostles of the past, today I come to prepare My companions of the present for what is to come.

On that night in the Garden of Gethsemane, not only did I know who would deny and offend Me, but also the Father showed Me, at that moment, those who would be able to surpass Me in Love, beyond all that I did for you until the Cross and even unto the Resurrection.

What are you waiting for to surpass me in love and service, in charity and in unity so that your lives renew the universe and thus the whole Earth is renewed and does not have to go through the Armageddon?

I need your lives and your spirits to be the new chalices that I can have in My Hands so that My Codes of Light are poured over you, and this time, you may be the sacrifice, for the Glory of God.

For this reason, yesterday I asked you if you ever thought and wondered if your heart is ready for what I need. This is the great key of this Sacred Week, for each of you and your brothers and sisters: meditate and ask yourselves; Lord, is my heart ready?

But I come here tirelessly because I made a commitment to you and to the whole world, not only for the moment of My Return, but to make of your lives an instrument in the Hands of God, to make all things new in your lives.

For this reason, in one of the three times that I fell on the Calvary, feeling the heavy Cross upon Me, I got up again, with the little strength that I had left. It was there when, before the Presence of My Mother, I reaffirmed that I renew all things. That is through those who follow Me and those who accept Me.

Before we enter the Spiritual Communion of the Last Supper, on this day of reflection and reaffirmation of vows, for all the inner worlds, to ardently follow this Christic path, I will concelebrate with you the consecration of a son to this path of apostolate. Mine, which I invite you to live, to support and share in the unity of souls so that, like you, this soul that I will reconsecrate today bears the fruits of redemption.

In My Presence, we will do so.

Just as with Peter and the other apostles who were gathered in the Holy Cenacle, I prepared myself that night, in humility, to wash their feet, as a sign of affirmation of the service between and by brothers and sisters, forever.

"Adonai, purify this element, that will be the means by which I will renew this life and all the lives of the world. So be it".

"Father, bless this water so that it not only purifies and bathes Your children with Your Grace, but also, through it, all human life lives in their degrees of consecration. Amen".

Just as Mary Magdalene washed My Feet with this oil, may human life become a divine life in the joy of always being in God, for the victory of His Celestial Kingdom. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Friar Elías of the Sacred Heart of Jesus:

From today on, Our Lord will call you Brother Shemaya, so that you make His Name worthy through your life.

So that everything is finished being consummated, you may prepare for the times to come, for carrying the spiritual cross with Me, the cross of humanity, now you may enter the Eucharistic celebration.

I thank you and give you My Peace, the Peace that renews My apostles.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
