

Sunday, May 5 of 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

And the Lady dressed of Sun will pour the Crown of Stars, so that a path may arise from the bowels of the Earth and through which will walk the new redeemed flocks. Each one of Her stars will be the visible sign of a new cycle and each soul, according to their choice, will enter through a path that will be able to bring them to the Kingdom of the Lord.

At the Greater Door of Heaven, the Beloved Lord will wait for His beloved soul, so that together in victory, they may consecrate the spirit to the Eternal Love of God. The Lady dressed of Sun will manifest Her universal symbol and this will be the sign that will announce the next coming of the King of the Universe.

Blessed are those who will be waiting in joy for the coming of the King of the Patriarchs, because they will be participants of the Good News for the world.

Blessed are those who have given of themselves, in order to transfigure in Christ their lives, because they will recognize the rays that come from the Heart of the Son of God.

And the New Boat of life and of prayer, will sail in deep sea and many will see it arising by the efforts of the little beings of Christ. The New Boat will not be from the past, it will be born as a new child from the womb of His Immaculate Mother.

Many will not understand this mystery and not many will feel the brightness and the strength of its light, that which comes from the Boat and the new flocks. These are the ones brought together for the redeeming mission, those who silently will lift high the torch of light, to show to the world the path of the true conversion.

No one will remain without knowing where to go, because the Boat is already sailing by means of the impulses that it receives from the favored fire of prayer. Those who are curious will want to know the essence of this great food for the spirit, but because they do not know themselves they will see too late that everything starts and ends in the prayer of the heart.

The workers speed up the work of the great bridge to the Great Spirit of God; time flies and the souls slow down their steps towards God. The Bird of the Holy Spirit announces a new call and only will follow in flight the ears attentive to the voice of the heart.

A New Humanity awakens in the south of the world. On the horizon the Aurora breaks radiant, in order to open the cycle of purification. All of the universe comes together so that the Divine Purpose may reach its reality in the sleeping consciousnesses.

Compassion for those who will cry for having depreciated the instruction of Heaven! The Voice of the Great Master will continue to resonate for some more time, while His Light illuminates with love the pace of the New Boat.

The old will be knocked down, because the pillars were not based in living the Law of the Lord. It is time to recognize the Time and to live in the wisdom of the Lord.

The Doors of Heaven are opened to welcome all of those who have been separated from God.

Penance for the proud ones! Redemption for the timid! Mercy for those who do not tire of serving the Great Lord!

The Star of the Universe will announce the great moment for the world, while the New Boat sails to the south of the world; its passing knocks down with love the structures that are already expired. No one will be able to oppose it, because it is filled by the Light of the Great Universal King.

Recognize with faith all that you receive in your hands, because for the expected time there must exist a repentant heart, so that it may be healed by God.

Under the Love of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for meditating on My signs with the heart!

Christ Jesus, Master of Love