Weekly Message received of Mary, Queen of Peace and Morning Star, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías

Dear children,

Praise be to Jesus in the world and in the whole universe, especially in hearts that need Him most!

With joy and rejoicing, I return to the Marian Center where My first Apparitions in the Americas originated, the Mother of Heaven returns to the hearts of the children that opened the door to Her, as in Medjugorje, so that the warm maternal Voice of the Virgin Mary may be heard.

For this reason, My Heart chose these two coming months so that those children who have been listening to My call for some years are able to receive a restoration for the continuity of My maternal Work in the Americas and in the world.

My children, during this week I ask that in your daily prayers, you concentrate those prayers on the five Wounds that My Son Jesus carried.

As a Mother, I ask that you adore those five precious signs, for if you do so, you will help all the wounds of suffering, of pain, of despair, and lack of faith and love to be closed through the infinite healing that My Immaculate Heart is able to radiate.

In this practice, may your hearts come together with the precious sign of love and redemption that My Son manifested and showed on the Cross for all of you.

My very dear children, you know that the world is without peace and that these wounds that the enemy generates with its plans, separate families, weaken the love between the most loved beings and lead a great number of souls into damnation and sin.

I ask that, through your Adoration of the five wounds of My Son, your prayer reverberate and reach the Kingdom of God, so that His Mercy and Forgiveness may be poured out as healing into the hearts of all beings on Earth.

Dear children, as Mother, I call on you to reaffirm your inner union with My Son and from your heart, deepen the living of your spiritual path; for while innumerable souls shut down their faith and devotion to God, I as the Morning Star, try to bring them as close as possible to the Heart of My Son so that they may all be out of danger and under the protection of His merciful redeeming Love.

My children, today I also come to you so that, during this pause of sixty days, you may study and read the Words that My Son is announcing; in this way, your hearts will be strengthened and freed from fear. Use the words of the Sacred Bible as instruments of prayer; gather up your strength as a single family and allow the holy protection of My Son Jesus to be among you.

Dear children, the times are rapidly changing and it is necessary to recover the practices that My Son gave you for your conversion, such as fasting, confession, the reading of the Gospel, and family prayer, for in this way, you will allow the world not to lose the true Christian culture that My Son founded out of love for all.

My children, I am with you and among you.

Once again I thank you for responding to My call.

Thank you! May Peace be with you.

Mary, Mother and Queen of Peace
