Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Dear children,

Today I come again to teach you something basic about the lesson of Love, which is called Divine Pity.

Without Pity, hearts cannot manage to take steps toward My Son, and, even less, they cannot manage to see all their inner paths open to concretize the Sacred Will of God.

For this reason, My children, let your hearts dare to always be compassionate with yourselves and with all others because after having seen My Son suffer and die on the Cross for you, the Pity of God was and is the balm that neutralizes all serious errors.

In this time of spiritual and world crises, may your eyes see the events of life and of purification with Pity rather than with fury. My children, this will avoid a feeling of hate being established in the world, which is the opposite of love and unity.

To all those who pray to My Heart, I ask that you remember the sacred attribute of Pity because, at the most needful time of your lives and consciousnesses, you will be able to return to it, which will be the gift that will transform all things in time.

Pity will be the master key for impossible or irreversible causes within the consciousnesses, for it will always bring you patience, enthusiasm, and, above all, motivation to serve God, beyond all consequences.

May the divine spirit of Pity always fill your hearts.

Remember, My children, that the Lord is not only Love; He is profound Pity for His smallest creatures.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who unites you with the infinite Pity of God,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
