MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, AT THE CELEBRATION OF THE FIRST MEETING OF THE CONSECRATED CHILDREN OF THE VIRGIN MARY, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Prostrated at the Feet of the Creator, in prayer for humanity, I see the Hands of God which point to the world, marking the Americas. He asks Me to see that My prayers were not in vain.

I open My eyes and see My Mantle in the world igniting in pure Light. I see that the Light of My eyes no longer shines only in My eyes, but it in the hearts of each of My children.

The Lord then allows Me to return to Earth and, with joy, tread the path of flowers prepared by My children in prayer.

I feel the soul of the Children of Mary, even though they are scattered across the world, today become one in the unity of prayer and in the renewal of the commitment they made to Me.

My children, today I will meet your spirits, I will gather your souls in an upper room of prayer, to pour upon the disciples of yesterday the Graces and Gifts of the Spirit of God, and thus, transforming them into the apostles of this last time.

Those who are renewed in My Immaculate Heart, I will send them out two by two, just as My Son asked Me, so that the Light of My Heart that shines in their essences may expand throughout the world, and thus not allow those who could not come to meet Me in this time to get lost.

My children, your souls will be the extension of My Immaculate Heart. Your hearts will be flowers of My Immaculate Garden, and you must take to the world the pollen which brings new life to those who are dying in the heart. Plant new flowers, which will give new fruits to the future and the promised Earth, long awaited by God.

My beloveds, many of you are being called to experience the transition to a new world and I do not promise you that you will see the new sun rise on the horizon, but I call you to be the ones who will open the doors and windows of the world for this sun to enter.

I gather you so that you may be those who will prepare the earth and, with every effort, transform yourselves and the world, working in this field of redemption. Many will not be here to harvest the fruits of the New Earth, but from My Kingdom, they will see those seeds growing and flourishing which one day they left on this planet.

My beloveds, I want to consecrate the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and this I will achieve through your hearts. I want to take you to the Heart of My Son, who will lead you to God, and it will be in God, My beloveds, that you will discover that nothing is separate and that I am within God, just as His Son is, and you will all be within Me when you return to the Divine Womb from which you came, to be reborn as redeemed beings.

You are for Me the Light of My Heart and so you must be for the world when it becomes dark. May My Mantle, above you today, become a beacon signaling the way to the lost souls.

I am counting on all the Children of Mary, those who have arrived and those who will arrive because God wishes that you may be the door to the new world, the door through which all of humanity will enter. Therefore, My children, after reconfirming your vows with me, continue without fear, living peace and taking peace to the world.

Know that, starting today, you are like a single soul, a single heart, that must be strengthened by unity and fraternity, so that the Plans I have for you and have called you to manifest can be fulfilled.

Never forget that you are My praying word of love to the world. You are My serving hands for those who need them. You are My guide for those who are lost. United with Me is how I would like to find you every day.

I love you.

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
