Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Dear children,

The greatest expression of love is the acceptance and then the understanding of the Sacred Will of God, which manifests in a definite adherence to that Sacred Purpose, for which you were created in the image and likeness of the Father.

For this reason, children, in these times, to recognize the true Will and to experience it, will always place you on the right path, and, in this way, you will avoid suffering through your errors. But to recognize that Will and not experience it would be to allow yourself to be subjected to the models of life humanity built, distancing your lives from God, again and again.

Dear children, this is why I want you every day to copy the experience of My life, that which I lived in this world through obedience and fidelity, something that humanity has not yet firmly learned.

If you love obedience, the doors will open to lead you through new experiences and help you resolve that which through inertia you have not yet solved. Each indication the universe shows is unique. God expects you to experience His Will in a natural way, and that you not just go through His Will, but that you may understand there is a greater goal for each life.

The Father hopes to reflect His Divine Will in the life of all His creatures, but the freedom that characterizes everybody has fully demonstrated the abandonment and the choice that humanity has made for itself.

Thus, My children, be like your Heavenly Mother; let each one of you experience, understand and apply Divine Will as best as you can. Now, this will not be enough, because the urgency is great in this world, a world that goes through collapse after collapse because of its own wills, which lead to the loss of many souls.

Dear children, the coming times will be more demanding for everybody, regardless of the school you may be attending in this end cycle. Your sincere union with the great Purpose, without clauses or middle terms, will determine the world being able to receive the Infinite Grace it is so much in need of so as to not succumb.

Children, each of your hearts knows, in front of the universe, what it came to accomplish and does not want to escape from such an important mission, which you were lovingly called upon to live in this time.

Until the day comes when you, My children, become aware of what you are doing and by whom you are being guided, amongst so many millions of souls, up until that day, your Most Holy Mother will be praying and hoping for a specific position from you about the Plan of the whole universe.

This will allow you to mature, and if you do not awaken, it will make you come to a standstill in time. Heaven hopes to place its treasures in open hearts; if this has still not happened, it is because the Divinity is waiting for everyone to give a little more to this Plan and to this Divine Project, and that you set aside less space for your own plans.

The true server of God is one that lives based on the instruction and applies it regardless of the school you are attending.

The universe hopes to make you worthy of receiving the keys that will open the doors for the emergence of the new consciousness of humanity.

My children, the decision rests with you. We, your Messengers, are here to guide you and show you the best inner path.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who lifts you up to a true Awareness of the Thought of God,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
