

Sunday, March 24 of 2013

MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF MERCY, FOR THE VIGIL OF PRAYER, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Dear children,

Today I invite you and I call on you to become free of yourselves, so that the healing of the past may take place in each one of you.

My children, on a day of blessings and joy, I ask you to be persevering and compassionate with the works that the Father manifests for your hearts.

Like a new and powerful dawn, I again bring you My Peace, because through the paths of Peace, you will find the perfect and correct response for the development of your lives in the beloved Plans of the Father.

My very dear children, today, once again, I gather you together for the purpose of igniting the Divine Fire of the Holy Spirit through prayer. May the Holy Spirit of the Father reveal to you the path of perfection and a life united to the eternal kingdom of prayer.

With this, My dear children, I am leading you to My universal school of prayer, prayer that is heard in all the universes and Celestial Kingdoms; for in Heaven there is the eternal school of prayer, where with gladness and joy, praise and reverence, the blessed ones perpetually pray for this world and for humanity.

Dear children, by becoming free today of what has happened in the past, may the healing of the Holy Spirit be able to impregnate your hearts and may Its Gifts be present among you. Call for the Presence of the Holy Spirit; God hopes that by taking the steps in infinite trust, you may be able to be partakers in the inner unity that exists between Heaven and Earth.

Dear children, for this reason, today I leave you two important tasks for your continuing path of conversion and of redemption:

1. Live the universal school of prayer, of which you can be a part at each moment you unite your prayers with My Heart.
2. Joyfully wait for the coming of the Holy Spirit, a Spirit that will try to fill you with Its Divine Gifts.

My children, the Holy Spirit will cause you to be aware of the importance of living the universal school of prayer, to thus achieve a conversion as humanity.

Dear children, as Mother of the Holy Spirit, I lift you up, I lift you up close to My Son and I forgive you, freeing you from sin, so that you may always recognize the eternal life of God.

I encourage you, dear children, to wait for the Holy Spirit in your hearts.

I thank you for responding to My call. Thank you, dear children!

Praise be Christ, your Lord!

Mary, Mother and Queen of Peace and of the Holy Spirit