APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE SACRED CALL

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

My Spiritual Light shines again in the world, through the Light and Power of My five main Wounds, transfigured during the Resurrection of the Lord.

These are the Wounds of Light that speak of the surrender of the Son of God for humanity. Through these five Wounds, I illuminate the five continents of the planet, at this culminating moment of humanity.

I come to bring you the Light of hope, the Light of renewal, the Light of redemption, because many souls are still in time to turn toward My Heart in order to receive My Blessing and My Mercy, because I still wait for the awakening of the New Christs, of those who will bear witness to My Return throughout the five continents of the planet, those who, through the love of the heart, will be able to speak many languages, understand many symbols, giving the example of their own Christification.

This whole scenario that I present to you today is also part of the preamble to My awaited Return, I might say it is the great preamble that precedes the Sacred Week, a preamble that will be concluded at the next meeting of Divine Mercy of March, as well as in a new meeting with Me through the Sacred Call.

Today, I bring you the first impulse that precedes the Sacred Week. In the next Marathon of Divine Mercy, you will have the opportunity to receive My second spiritual impulse. And these impulses will be completed during the Sacred Call of March.

Understand, through this symbol and this example, the spiritual trilogy of the impulses that My Higher Consciousness will bring you, so that you may be prepared and aware of your position within the Plan of God, of your service within the Plan of God, in these definitive times.

Because when I arrive for the Sacred Week, throughout the eight days, humanity will have the last opportunity to gather not only the merits of My Passion, but also the merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the spiritual victory that He achieved in all planes of consciousness, through His Birth, His Public Life, His Death, His Resurrection and His Ascension.

These impulses that I bring you from today onward will be assimilated during the next Sacred Week and I hope that each one of My companions and My servers, of My followers and devotees of My Sacred Heart, may be aware of the importance of preparing themselves for the next Sacred Week, not only to relive the Christic Codes of My Passion, but also so that your consciences and your souls may open to wholly live the Will of God. Because I want to tell you today, companions, that each one of you participate with Me in this preparatory Work of My Return.

In the same way, all the Hierarchies that accompany me throughout the universe, as well as all the Angelic Hierarchies, which create and regenerate universal life, will be receiving, from today, February 18, onward, the same impulses as you will receive, and it is important that no one be left behind without being able to receive and welcome them. Because, just as My Higher Consciousness today sends this first impulse for your consciousness, in the same way, My Higher Consciousness emits higher impulses for the rest of Hierarchies and Angels, as everyone will be preparing, after the next Sacred Week, for the first preamble to My Return, the first step of My Arrival upon the planet, an Arrival still unknown and imperceptible to most.

However, the one who has faith within their heart and trusts in My Heart, in My Presence, in My Existence and even in My Life, will be able to feel, in the depths of their being and their spirit, the Arrival of the Redeemer. Because it will not matter where they are or where they can be found, as I have thought of absolutely everything, of how I will gradually meet those that are Mine. Just sustain yourselves in faith and in the absolute trust in this great moment of the Return of Christ.

But I still need to live within your hearts, in a thorough way, not in a fleeting way. Thus, your hearts will be ready for what will come. I still hope many more will give Me their hearts so that I can work and, thus, I can prepare humanity for the great moment of My Arrival, of My Return to the world.

Prepare your inner temples at once, untiringly offer your dwellings so that the Living God, through His Most Beloved Son, can come and find a place to rest and, in silence, prepare for the Return, because you will see the Son of God come, not only among the clouds, as I have promised.

It is now time for you to see the Son of God come within you and you must be sure of this, because, in this way your lives will change, and that which is not yet transformed, will be transformed. And, thus, redemption will come, and your lives will be Christified, in the absolute trust in My Sacred Heart.

Through the Light of My Wounds, I bring you these spiritual impulses, on this day, because I need you aware, available and whole, to sustain, together with Me, the next meetings of souls with My Heart, especially to sustain the next Sacred Week in a spiritual and inner way.

This will be fundamental for all that I will have to carry out. You will be the ones who will create the necessary conditions in the inner worlds, in the invisible worlds, for all that your Master and Lord will carry out and announce.

Be aware of this, so that you do not think only of receiving, but rather that all think of collaborating and of giving of yourselves internally and of also helping in a material way for the Sacred Week to be possible, because it is now the time for the needs of the Works of the Divine Messengers to be assumed by all, and not only by a few consciousnesses.

Why do I tell you this, companions?

Because you were called to give of yourselves through this service, to be conscious collaborators, keeping well in mind not only that Graces come from Heaven, but also that Graces can come even more from Heaven to as many souls as possible if those who are closer to Me and are a part of this Work consciously collaborate for this to be possible. I know that most make the efforts that are possible at this moment of tribulation.

You must also keep in mind that the aspirations of the Hierarchies through the manifestations of the Light-Communities are very important, because they will be the material and spiritual bases for the Return of Christ. Because, although it does not seem right, not even within My Church, spread throughout the Earth, do I have a safe place to return. I still only have a few inner dwellings to return and work in.

But for such an important moment, as the Return of Christ, a moment that is unknown to most of humanity and the planet, the Spiritual Hierarchy, although it does not seem so, needs a physical place to put their Feet, and, thus, call humanity from the four corners of the Earth to gather for the Final Judgment. And this place of the Final Judgment is not only internal, but it is also external.

How do you believe that the Earth will be healed if all are not aware of the Universal Judgment?

Because, as I have been saying in the instructions since two thousand years ago, My Father has asked Me to separate the chaff from the wheat. But believe that I will do all that is possible and a little more for the Infinite Mercy of My Heart to justify the errors of the condemned souls so that they may be considered in the Celestial Glory and all possible consciousnesses may be rehabilitated.

Today, I come with a more concrete Message, with a Message that is closer to all, because it is important that My disciples, companions, servers and missionaries keep in mind and consciousness that the Return of Christ is not something distant but rather that, from now on, the whole universe, in its spiritual, mental and material counterpart, is preparing for this moment, for a moment that the universe has never before lived nor experienced. And you are not far from this, you are not exempt from this movement, because you are a part of Creation.

Therefore, we must pray for the Aspirations of Christ to be fulfilled, for the Aspirations of Christ to be fulfilled on this planet and for souls to be each day more aware of the commitment they have with Me.

This is all that today I wanted to tell you and share with you.

And before leaving, I would like to answer other intentions, just as My Mother did in the last days, so that all may have the Grace of understanding and the wisdom to comprehend how to correctly direct intentions to the Universe. Because, as much as an intention is simple, pure and true, every intention encompasses many planes and consciousnesses. This is why it is important that you may learn how to ask correctly. Being conscious, you will know how to direct your intentions to Heaven.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

We present to Our Lord the basket of intentions of the brothers and sisters of the Community Fleur-de-Lys.

"May humanity express its archetype, in profound communion with Christ, for the Glory of the Creator."

Christ said that this should be the keynote for all in these times.

"For Peace and Healing in the world."

So that this may happen, it is important, Christ says, to understand the concept of the peacemaker; because, the server that understands the attribute of the peacemaker is consistent, available and whole to manifest the Laws of Healing, and this benefits humanity.

"To You, who contemplates the effort of those who persist on the path of the good and peace, I humbly ask for You to strengthen them in faith and love so that their lives may be the very prayer that relieves the Heart of God."

Christ says that this should be the premise of the disciple.

"May the human beings understand the value of the Kingdoms of Nature on this planet, grow together with them and be bridges for these Kingdoms to be ever closer to God in evolution."

From the beginning of the planet, if the human civilization had followed the Commandments of God, and if these Commandments had been correctly applied in society and in all external life, the Kingdoms of Nature would not be the center of destruction by the human being but rather all would co-exist in harmony and peace, because if the human being lived the Commandments, it would also understand the laws of nature, and respect them.

In the world today, the opposite happens, and, each day more, humanity distances itself from the Law, completely ignoring the laws of nature. This brings about an agitation of the elements and even of the climate, overburdening the mental atmosphere of the planet, opening uncertain doors where they should not be opened and attracting irreparable effects for the human being.

"May darkness be dissolved in all creatures."

Christ said that for darkness to be dissolved in all creatures, they should ask themselves every day if they want to be in darkness or in the light, and the key is to ask oneself this question.

Do I want to be close to God or by myself? Here lies the answer.

"May I learn how to see Your children through the windows of Your Eyes."

Christ says that this is possible through resignation. It is not an imposed resignation nor an impulsive one, it is a resignation that fosters degrees of Love in the one who truly understands that we are all miserable and that we need Love, the Love of God, in order for us to be healed. This would be the correct vision of those who co-exist in fraternity.

"Place Your son Andrés in Your Arms, give him another opportunity."

This opportunity is granted today to Andrés, with the premise of knowing that there is no other, because time is ending for all. This is no warning, it is a reality. It means to know how to value the opportunities so as not to miss them, it means to know how to be humble in order to learn to listen, to learn to see and thus recognize the signs in Heaven.

I leave you My Peace so that you may always remember to seek My Peace in these times of transition.

I thank you for having the bravery of listening to Me and of welcoming My transforming impulses, so that your consciousnesses may always rise.

Today, I anoint you with the Light of My Wounds and, thus, I bless you, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Until the next impulse in March.
