APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN THE CITY OF CORDOBA, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

While your Heavenly Mother is here, on this special and important day to Me, your Heavenly Mother is also with the Holy Father in Kazakhstan, so that the world may understand, once and for all, that religion is not a cause for division or discord, religions are a bridge to reach the Heart of God. Therefore, My Heart is very saddened when there is discord, division or separation in religions.

In these crucial times for the planet, religion is being used as a war weapon to confuse hearts, to separate souls from the faith of God.

But I come on this day, My children, to reconnect Heaven and Earth, to reconnect the purpose that the Argentinian nation has with the Higher Source of Love, and this is possible through the response of those who are present today.

I know that your consciousnesses cannot measure what this signifies to the Father. But I assure you, My children, that something very important is happening at this very moment, when religions of the world unite to dialogue for peace so that the peoples of the whole world may be protected by religions, and at last My Beloved Son may see, with His own Eyes, Ecumenism being manifested, which He so much waits for.

The main key of religions is the Love of God. This is why souls must seek this incessant Love through religions. I ask you, My children, not to identify yourselves with that which is superficial, because even within religions there are errors and there is sin.

But you, My children, who have already accompanied Me for such a long time, who respond to My call each time that I call you, should place your consciousnesses and, above all, your minds, on another plane of understanding and union, because there My enemy will not intercept, nor seek you or harass you.

Through your prayer, help all religions of the world, because they keep being used as war weapons and when My Son returns, He will need that religions may also go through a synthesis and a judgment.

Because that which He taught such a long time ago is for all. And the way that humanity on this surface has found to understand His Message is through religion. But open your consciousnesses, do not stay in what is theoretical, do not stay only within dogma.

I ask you, time and again, that your gazes and above all your hearts may turn toward God, that they may turn to the source of His Love, an inexhaustible Love, an eternal Love which, through My Heart, wants to fill you, wants to bless and wants to unite you as one.

Today, I come to this place with great joy, feeling bliss in My Heart for being able to be in the heart of Argentina and, through this heart, being able to radiate, to all the nation and the whole world, what the country and the other peoples of the world need at this moment.

Therefore, I once again thank you for following My Steps, for accompanying Me at this moment and at this hour, because this is very significant to Our Lord, the Christ.

My children, this allows your Mother to pour out more Graces upon the world. It allows the souls that are confused and lost to return to the House of the Father at this moment. For this reason, I Am here.

God contemplates the sincere response of each heart that is present. As your Mother, I know what the fact that I Am here in an immediate way has meant to you, and this is much valued by My Beloved Son. My Son also values the new souls that are postulants to consecration as Children of Mary.

All is valued by My Beloved Son, each true gesture of love allows the world to receive the atonement it so much needs in these times.

I ask you, My children, not to forget to pray for religions, as union and ecumenism must take place and this is a responsibility for each one of you, so that the world may no longer precipitate into the abyss, so that souls no longer be dragged towards perdition and not make alliance with modernities.

The One God, the Almighty, gathers you at this moment, gathers you for a Higher Purpose, which you do not know, a Purpose that can begin to be written in the Heart of the Father and in the heart of His Children.

In this way, I speak to you of a new story that began to be written in Buenos Aires, a story traced by the union of hearts with the Heart of the Hierarchy, which keeps being written through this moment, and this place.

In this way, that which is hidden to the eyes of all becomes revealed, that which is present on the immaterial plane is shown, and all hills that surround this region are witnesses of this, although this place must still purify itself. Remember that which My Son once told you: so that He may make things new, He needs consciousnesses to be renewed and not be in resistance or under power itself.

Once and for all, souls must become liberated from themselves, they must learn to walk in Christ and for Christ, so that He, before God, may fulfill His Word, and, above all, He may fulfill His Prophecy of returning to the world at the culminating moment of humanity, when all will be able to see, listen to, feel and recognize Him as the Master among masters, as the King of the Universe.

This is why He sends His Messenger. He sends the Mother of the Mountains, Pachamamama, so that the world may also not forget the cry of the planet, the cry of the Kingdoms of Nature. They need the help of all.

Rebuild the surface of this planet through actions of charity.

Open the doors to the Mercy of God and allow all to be healed. Because the whole world needs it, before the great end comes.

Pray for Cordoba to be re-consecrated to My Immaculate Heart, because if this consecration takes place faithfully, this will have repercussions throughout all of Argentina, and those situations that want to make the country succumb will not be concretized, because the prayer of the faithful prayerful beings will prevent impunity to keep acting in this world and in this country.

May all be balanced, just as this nation deserves and needs.

As I told you in Buenos Aires, place your trust in God. Remember not to stay in that which is superficial. At each moment and on each new day, place your consciousness in the Heights, because there lies the solution and the response that you so much seek.

I Am here also to pray for this cause, and each time a new Child of Mary is consecrated, My prayer and the prayer of My children is heard, preventing unexpected and painful situations to take place in the world or in Argentina.

The gaze of God is upon this country, you must keep this in mind.

But despite the impunity or the injustice, despite the lies or the falsity, despite the empty message or the illusion, despite all that happens on the surface of Argentina, the spiritual heart of this nation will not lose the treasures it has.

Therefore, I invite you to unite to this so that, throughout the times, it may cause the spiritual treasures of God that are present in this country to reverberate. It depends on you, My children, that nothing else may happen, this is the truth.

As a testimonial that it is possible to live changes, I will now call those who will be consecrated as My children on this day.

I invite you to approach this altar so that you may live this moment of consecration and blessing and so that your lives and, above all, your hearts, may be a living testimonial that redemption is possible.

Make yourselves available, may all become available to receive My blessing, the blessing of your Heavenly Mother.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

And we will now listen to the instrumental song of the Children of Mary, preparing this moment of consecration and union with the Most Holy Virgin.

I would like to tell these beloved children present here, that I have waited for this moment to consecrate you before God, that I deeply know your traumas and sadness, that I Have walked by your side at dark moments and during desolation. Do not forget that I Am the Sorrowful Mother of the Cross, the one who, at the Feet of My Son, on the top of Mount Calvary, assumed each one of you and your essences with love and responsibility. Therefore, I know all that has happened up to this moment.

Renew your faith and your trust in God through My Immaculate Heart. Because from now on you will be able to walk free from yourselves and your deepest wounds will close and heal, because My Grace will touch your hearts at this moment.

You and your brothers and sisters are My children, and I love you, I Am your Mother and I Am always here to help you. Because a good mother never forgets her children, even if Your Heavenly Mother is a Pilgrim Mother.

Therefore, open your hearts at this moment of consecration and union with Me. May not only your lives but also your families be consecrated. And that which has remained separated, that wound which has remained open, that illness which you have gone through, or even that incomprehension which has remained in your memories, may all this be dissolved at this moment, so that you may feel My maternal embrace.

Children, I not only consecrate you today as Children of Mary, but I also consecrate you as a new Rosary of Light, which will have the mission and duty to pray for Argentina so that, through your hearts and the heart of Cordoba, the Spiritual Government that this country needs may be made manifest, the Laws may be fulfilled and the Commandments may be respected.

Rejoice, My children! You are My children, the Children of Mary.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Let us sing.

I thank you for having responded to My call.

May the Holy Spirit always guide you and fill you.

Song: "Hymn of the Children of Mary."

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

So now, to conclude this work, we will explain to you how this moment of Apparition proceeded, for it was very special, and it reminded me of when we were on a pilgrimage here in Cordoba a few years ago.

And so that you may see that the Hierarchy keeps all moments in mind, today Our Lady, as Mary, the Queen of Peace, came here, continuing that moment of that Apparition long ago, and now bringing the feeling of Mary's gratitude.

As She came from Heaven, descending toward Cordoba, Mary's passing throughout each area of this part of Argentina, closed many uncertain doors and many intruding energies were gradually liberated.

She brought to those present and those who are not, a principle of maternal consolation never seen before, which She transmitted through Her Immaculate Heart, through Her Love.

When She consecrated the Children of Mary, it was really very special to me. Because while Mary spoke with sweetness to each one of the brothers and sisters who were consecrated today, She not only again raised them through the Faith and Strength that Our Lady lives as a Divine Consciousness, but She also showed how She has been with each one of them throughout their lives. And let us imagine, for a moment, how many of us are on this planet.

Mary, once more, demonstrates and confirms to us that She does not forget any of Her children, because at that moment of consecration, She saw the story of each one of these brothers and sisters. As the Mother of God, She was before their errors and right actions. As She said, "the sorrows, anguishes and darkness."

The mere Presence of Mary, as the Queen of Peace, dissolved all of this in the face of Her children, those who were consecrated today. And at that moment, to Mary, errors did not matter. What mattered the most to Our Lady today was that, in the consecration of these brothers and sisters, they might be able to remember that they are Children of God, and that nothing and no one can take that Grace from them.

Mary told me that to be a Child of God is something that we cannot encompass with our minds, with our consciousness. To be a Child of God, Mary said, is a state of Grace that we receive in our birth and, even more, when we were conceived in the womb of our mothers. This is why She is the Universal Mother. She is the Womb that generates and creates new things.

Today, these brothers and sisters lived a moment not only of consecration, but also of filiation with the Father and through the Presence of the Holy Spirit, through Mary, She gave them a sacred task.

At that moment we were able to understand and above all feel, that it seemed as if we had known each one of them for a very long time. This happens because our souls unite at the Feet of Mary, and then we remember the place She has for each one of us in Her Heart. She told us that we have to keep this in mind, that no one should forget the place we have in the Heart of Mary.

And to conclude, I would like to say that Our Lady helped this part of Argentina, the North of Argentina. Above all, She presented Herself on the inner planes to help the brothers who are in Jujuy, in Corrientes, in those places of Argentina where there are such simple, such humble brothers and sisters, that no one even knows who they are. Today, Mary also brought Her Love to those places and to those consciousnesses.

Today, Mary was very thankful for being here. I do not know why.

She likes Cordoba, because it is the heart of Argentina.

So we give thanks for the presence of all of you.

Sister Lucía de Jesús:

Mary asked the Children of Mary to make a Rosary of Light group.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Those who were consecrated today, right? And each one of them could also form a Rosary of Light. But first we have to fulfill the goals that are possible.

This group that was consecrated is a new Rosary of Light. After this work, the priests will explain to you what this is all about, so that you may respond to the call of Mary. And after you go through the experience of this Rosary of Light group, each one of you may be encouraged to form another Rosary of Light group.

Sister Lucía de Jesús:

If you who are at home also want to pray for Argentina and make a Rosary of Light group, you may enter the page of the Divine Messengers and there you will have the information so that together we may keep illuminating this world through prayer.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

We will close this meeting by singing a song that Mary asked of us, because She knows that each one of your hearts identify with it.

Song: "To look at You."

Thank you all!
