

Sunday, January 25 of 2015

MESSAGE FOR THE APPARITION IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, TRANSMITTED BY MARY, VIRGIN OF THE IMMACULATE AND PIERCED HEART
TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

I Am the Virgin of the Immaculate and Pierced Heart, and in this way I come to the world on this day so that humanity may be alleviated from its sufferings by means of the sorrow that I felt in My chest, and which I feel still up to the present days.

Children of Mine, I give to the world today My Immaculate and Pierced Heart as a divine offer in order that other souls may help Me in alleviating the sorrow of this world.

I want to offer to My children the sacrifice; the donation of oneself; the permanent service to humanity, to the Kingdoms of Nature, and to the whole planet.

I come to give to you My Heart, pierced by the sword of human sins and of the indifference of humanity in face of the sacrifice of My Son.

The times are accelerated in this world, and the consciences are indifferent to all the warnings of the Divine Messengers. The gravest faults have become the common living of human beings, and the afflictions that many souls suffer no longer touch the hearts of those that might be able to balance these sorrows and torments by means of prayer.

My beloveds, the search for comfort and for one's own well-being has taken over the hearts of those beings who no longer give importance to all that happens in this world.

My Heart continues to be pierced as a unique offer that I am able to realize for the Creator, suffering in it all of the sorrows of My children and alleviating them through My Love. But this, My beloveds, is not sufficient. To balance the evil that is spread across this planet it is necessary that at least a few souls of the world awaken to the reality in which they live, and submit themselves to a path of sanctity by means of prayer, of service, and of total surrender of oneself to God.

It is no longer enough that you dedicate to Me a little prayer before sleep, or that you make prayers each day, if in the actions of your lives you destroy all that I have attempted to build in the few minutes of prayer.

My eyes are fixed on this world, attentive to the prayers of each one of My children, no matter how small it may be. However, even those of My children that may pray the most, if they will not live the prayer in their actions, in their thoughts, and in their feelings, of little use it will be that they pray, if the drop of Love that I am able to deposit in your essence is spilled in the first opportunity, that is lost, of manifesting love.

My beloveds, I want to teach you to change the values of this life, to change the goal to which you walk. Your goal shall not be in this world. Do not battle anymore simply for a comfortable material life, and do not gauge your effort to establish a time of peace, of reconciliation, of forgiveness, and of redemption. This is what the world needs, and for this you are here in this time.

Do not let yourselves be deceived, because while you are distracted with illusions and mundane pleasures, the souls do not stop from entering the hells and purgatories of this world, which already are so full of lost consciousnesses as a result of the consequences of their choices.

My beloveds, pray! Pray much! Clamor! And be merciful in your lives.

Awaken! Review your goals and your aspirations.

Accept in you lives My Immaculate and Pierced Heart, and assist Me in alleviating the sorrow of this world.

I love you, and I wait for you day and night in prayer and in surrender.

Mary, Virgin of the Immaculate and Pierced Heart