

Monday, July 2 of 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

I keep you in My Heart, dear children. With this I want to tell you that, with confidence, you can find My Eternal Peace.

Today I guide you through new paths, even though the world changes so much every day.

My Maternal Spirit fills you so that in the Heart of My Son Jesus, you may reach the Grace of Conversion.

I count on your prayers at each moment because the universe must still be repaired from all of the offenses that humanity generates. A life without God is a life beyond that which is arid, it is a life without hope.

Dear children, My Heart struggles for the love of all the children of God, and through you I will be able to reach places that would be inaccessible. The prayer of the heart penetrates with Light each one of your cells, it is like the daily nourishment for the new born.

Receive from the Holy Spirit the source that will satiate you, that will make you strong and happy from living fully under the presence of God. This is why, My little ones, today I invite you to strengthen each one of the groups of prayer consecrated to My Immaculate Heart so that God the Father may find true souls always donated to the life of the prayer of the heart.

My children, the path I intend for you to go through is an infinite and precious path towards the Heart of My Son. In Jesus you will find a beautiful path that He wants you to discover through the simple act of uniting to His Sacred Heart.

Know, dear children, that the Fountain of Mercy that is born from Jesus the Redeemer wants to fill you in advance of the coming times. Have love in Jesus despite everything so that, confessed in Christ, you may be partakers of the Kingdom of the Heavens.

Aspire to live in My Son daily, because I will help you. Jesus waits for you.

I thank you!

Thank you for responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity