Pray every day with the loving voice of the heart and thus, dear children, you will be responding to the call of God.

Pray with love and devotion because in this way, My children, the Merciful Heavens may save many souls that suffer and live immersed in the pain of life and of the heart.

Pray for the conversion and total forgiveness of the world so that the Highest God listens to you and so that He knows that you want, as a humanity, to be in His Celestial Grace.

Dear children, pray for love of all the little children who, abandoned, need the strength of all prayers to direct again their eyes to the Creator God, God of love and truth.

Pray for all the causes that day by day are unfair to the Heavens and that compromise the free walk of the hearts.

Pray for peace so that the Angels of the Lord may help all the souls that, lost, must have the hope of entering to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Pray for the planet and for all the tiny kingdoms that belong to the Creator God and which are offended by the hands of humanity.

Pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit so that through the heart of God this blessed Spirit changes and transforms the consciousness of all souls, for the glory and good of God.

Pray for the presence of Divine Mercy, necessary and urgent for the life of many children that, step by step, distance themselves from God. Their own decisions in life deviate their souls and the enemy incarcerates them in a prison of eternity.

Pray for the immediate arrival of Christ on Earth and to humanity so that the Will of the Father is fulfilled and thus your hearts will be prepared for the time when the Son of God returns among the clouds.

Pray for the conversion of those that have been offending God for so long and for those who do not pray to My Immaculate Heart.

In so many prayers and offers on the part of My children, those who hear Me, I will be eternally grateful.

Thank you for answering My call.

May the Light of God be on all hearts.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.
