

Thursday, May 21 of 2015

MESSAGE FOR THE EXTRA APPARITION ON THE OCCASION OF THE BIRTHDAY OF THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN, TRANSMITTED BY MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, TO MOTHER MARÍA SHIMANI DE MONTSERRAT

Beloved children,

Today I find Myself among you to bring peace, relieve and an expansion of light that may reach your consciences, so that they may strengthen themselves in the Love of God.

In time of tests, of great definitions and greater commitments that must be assumed by the soldiers of Christ, My adversary uses all of his tricks to put in the heart and in the mind of My children, creations that are not real, ideas and feelings that disturb them and that only seek to remove them from the task of the spirit that incarnated on this Earth to serve God.

All those feelings and thoughts that distance you from My Heart and from the heart of your brothers and sisters are in process of transformation so that once and for all you may die for love. This will permit that the truthful that exists in you and that was sown as a talent by My Son, may sprout, flourish and develop.

These true attributes are kept, in some cases, under several keys because the mediocre aspects of humanity have been cultivated in consciousness throughout history and developed as false attributes, what deceives all of My children into thinking that they are their best spiritual qualities, mental and material skills.

While these false attributes are defended and treasured as real and sublime inside of the beings, the true attributes and talents remain captive in cages, where they can not express themselves or fulfill what they came to do in this world.

But My Love and the Redeeming Love of My Son come to break the locks of these prisons so that, what you truly are, My Beloved Children, be able to be liberated and the mediocrity learned by this humanity throughout history may be able to finally be unmasked and die.

The art of loving, dear children, is that task that God has entrusted to you, an exercise full of challenges in which each consciousness takes as a goal to overcome every day, one by one, the mediocrities of this world, with determination, will and faith to reach this vital purpose that keeps waiting for the worthy Children of God.

When a consciousness is determined to achieve what God in truth has sown in it, going over its own head, without fear of what it will find, it receives from the Celestial Spheres an assistance that is not from this world, which is reserved for the brave ones.

When a consciousness is willing, in humility, to discover what false this world has put in them and decide to discover the potential the Universe has sown in their interior, the Heavens collaborate so that their prompt awakening to the truthful may open the door of the treasure that had been guarded for so long.

Beloved children, persevere, work, be strong and brave. Discover the false that My adversary has sown in your hearts and do not allow to be prevented to feel the full joy of discovering who you truly are.

I guide you, trust in My designs, in My requests and thus I will be able to help you to liberate yourselves from what you are not.

Today I bless My favorite son, the one that is favorite for the effort he has made in discovering the instrument that I have built within him and in offering himself to be led by God to the awakening of his brothers and sisters.

I want to be able to serve Myself from all My beloved children as instruments of Light in My hands.

I love you, I protect you with My Immaculate Heart. Thank you for being today with Me.

Your Mother, Mary, Rose of Peace