APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDÚ, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

I am the Rose of Peace, the One who in these end times offers you the purest that there is in God's Creation.

This rose that emerges from My Immaculate Heart represents My Divine Purity, which I have offered you throughout this last year, so that you may learn, My children, to dwell in My Divine Purity and to live peace, despite all the conflicts that take place in this world.

In this last year, many of My children have awakened, others have matured and I hope, My beloved ones, that you will continue to grow in spirit, in consciousness, to represent the Plan of God when His Messengers can no longer be here as they are today.

Your Heavenly Father sent His Servant, His Most Chaste Servant and His Son to the world so that they could place upon the human consciousness what it must manifest in these times, which is perfect union with God, absolute peace, the unbreakable fortitude that remains in love, unity and fraternity, regardless of the great corruptions in the consciousness of this world.

I come to the world, My beloved ones, to make each one of you a forerunner of My Peace; may you multiply the Peace that I have brought you so that, in this way, those who do not know Me and who have not stood before Me can feel My Presence through the radiance of their hearts.

Today I come to synthesize in your spirits all the impulses and instructions that I have given you over the last year, so that you may reflect and meditate deeply upon this Grace that you have received as humanity.

Have you asked yourselves, my children, why I have returned to the world for another year? Why do I not give up on your hearts? Have you tried to feel within yourselves the greatness of this Love that makes Me come to the world again and again, despite the indifference of souls, the blindness of hearts?

I trust, My children, in the potential of the human heart to love, because My Heart was once made of flesh, it once pulsed on this Earth as a living, material Heart. That is why I know the greatness of the Love that can flow from the human heart, which is hidden under seven keys.

I come to bring out that Love that you have never been able to express, whether out of fear, shame or pride. I come to invite you to service, to fraternal and Christic charity, which draws from your beings and brings to light that potential which you must manifest.

Charity, My children, when lived fully, allows the soul to express itself just as the Creator thought it would in the beginning. This is why I urge you again and again to continue serving. That is why, while My missionaries are in Turkey, I never cease to accompany them even for a single moment, because this love that arises in service is unique and must multiply and grow ever more.

May the experience of these brothers and sisters of yours serve as an example for everyone, for everyone who aspires to live love, everyone who aspires to manifest the Plan of God on Earth. May it not be necessary, children, for Me to send all of you to the East, because that would not be possible; but I can send your hearts, which transcend borders, barriers, differences, which transcend cultures, religions, because they are in God, who is perfect Unity.

It is through the heart that you must unite with all of humanity, with all the Kingdoms of Nature, you must trust in the potential of love that exists within each one of you, because it is there, waiting to emerge at this time.

As I have told you today, My beloved ones, all the evil and terror that oppress the world today are allowed by God so that your consciences can learn to love and, with greater power than evil, balance out this terror that is happening in the world.

Love from the heart, truly, without judgment. Let go of the fear of loving, set out on this discovery of finding love within your hearts, because I tell you that very few know how to truly love.

What you feel in your little hearts is still not yet the love that God expects. The Lord expects you to love with madness, to transcend the limits of your surrender, your imperfections, your faults and to love just as you are. Trust in the perfection of God that dwells within you, trust that love transforms everything and that this phrase is not just a theory, but a truth.

Think of the Cross of Christ, of My Son scourged, crucified, pouring out Blood and Water from His Side, thus transforming the hearts of all men and the destiny of this humanity, as well as of this planet. It is this perfect Love that I offer you to live; but for this it is necessary that you accept the Chalice that the Lord gives you, that you embrace this cross, the cross of sacrifice, of self-giving, of perpetual prayer, of transmutation, of the permanent effort to seek God.

Children, Jesus never complained about the Cross that God placed on His Back; He embraced it firmly, because He knew that His Father's victory would be granted to the world through His sacrifice.

Today I tell you that if you live the sacrifice with love, if you renounce the comforts of this world, if you renounce your opinions and endless desires, God's victory can be a reality on this planet and beyond it. It can be a reality for the universe, which has long awaited for the manifestation of this Plan, which has long awaited for humanity to be able to express itself with perfection, just as God thought and announced to the cosmos in the beginning.

When God thought of humanity, the whole universe rejoiced, and joy shone again in the hearts of creatures who had known fear, because they had known the lack of love, which had also begun to exist in some other civilizations of this universe. The Human Project was the hope for the entire cosmos, which has waited expectantly until today for the victory of God in the human heart.

Today, children, this planet has become a dark spot in Divine Creation, because evil, which should drive you to experience love, which should be transcended by the bravery of your hearts, has now taken over the vast majority of souls who inhabit the Earth. But it is not impossible to convert this situation, because the Law is for the Plan of God to be fulfilled, the Law is for Love to triumph, the Law is for you to be able to live just as in the perfect Thought of God.

If you believe in My Presence, if you have faith that I am before you, believe, children, when I tell you that God dwells in your essences, because those essences are part of His Divine Consciousness. Speak to God within you, discover this perfect unity that exists between creatures and their Creator, unveil this mystery of unity that humanity can live with God.

Do not allow, My beloveds, this unique opportunity in the universe to unite with God and experience His Love to be wasted due to the distraction of hearts, by indifference, by the pride that the enemy stimulates day by day in the consciousness of all human beings.

I come to the world to lead you to truth, to consecration, to awaken the divine potential within your cells, within your essences, in your consciousnesses.

Therefore, at least for a few moments every day, be able to abstract yourselves from material things and from all the worries that life in this world brings you, to contemplate God hidden in your essences, to think about Higher Life, to listen to your souls, to allow yourselves to feel the divine aspiration of each one of them, to listen to your guardian angels, who are always trying to tell you the path to follow.

When you pray, pray with them and listen to them. If you feel lost, let your guardian angels guide you. They are part of Divine Creation and carry in their heavenly hearts the Purpose of God for each one of you, and at all times they are trying to reveal that Purpose to you so that you can live it fully.

When you hear My Words, My children, may your hearts be impelled to take a definitive step. However small it may be, let it be true, sincere, because it is with small, consolidated steps that you can grow and evolve, that you can build the fortress that the Creator hopes will be built to shelter others, who at the end of time will have nowhere else to turn.

Just as today I open My Arms towards the Earth and welcome your imperfections in order to transform them into the Source of My Love, I also hope, My children, that when you meet a brother or sister who needs your help, you will open your arms and welcome him or her regardless of the miseries and imperfections of those hearts, because all the love I have given you must be multiplied. May the gifts given by the Mother of the World not remain within you, but may they flow through the world and even the universes, announcing the triumph of God in the human heart.

That is why, this evening, I am calling to My encounter those of My children who are already multiplying My Graces for those who need them most, but who will have to multiply them even more, because by consecrating themselves to My Immaculate Heart, they will be making a commitment to Me, a commitment to live their faith and to proclaim it every day, without fear, without conditions.

To these children of Mine who are consecrating themselves today, I will especially call you to serve and to live your consecration to my Immaculate Heart through service to those who need it most.

From you, My children, I will expect perpetual charity, so that I can pour out through your hands My Divine Pity, which I poured out on the Cross when I received My Divine Son into My Arms.

When you serve, remember the Cross of Christ, remember My Pity, remember that I want to multiply it through your little hearts. I also say this to all the Children of Mary, those who have consecrated themselves and those who will consecrate themselves, that they must carry My Divine Mercy in their hands. May they be merciful and may they try every day to be a little more fraternal, so that they may be worthy of the Mantle they wear on their bodies.

Remember, My children, that when you put on this symbol that I have given you, you are consciously entering under My Mantle. I am supporting all your actions, your words, your thoughts and your feelings. Remember that you will be living under My Mantle, that I will be supporting you and also observing you every day, so that you may grow and respond to God's Plan as He expects.

When you are facing any difficulty, just feel My Mantle over you, remember that you are part of a great network, a great Celestial Mantle that expands throughout the whole world.

Strengthen yourselves in union with one another, because by consecrating yourselves as Children of Mary, you are entering into a single consciousness, represented by all My Children, this army of Love that I am forming on Earth so that it may have its reflection in the universe.

Therefore strengthen one another. Share among yourselves moments of prayer and service, moments of surrender, of studying My Words, as well as the Words of My Son and of Saint Joseph Most Chaste.

Allow, My children, that your consciousnesses continue to grow, mature and deepen in your own surrender. Spread My call, My Words, My Presence. Announce to the world that the Divine Mercy of Christ is still being poured out on humanity.

I hope to find you in Sacred Week sitting at My Son's table, receiving from Him the unique gifts and donations for humanity. Our Lord is trying to build that fortress in you so that you can recognize Him when He returns to the world, so that you can gather His flocks, lost among chaos and evil, so that you can follow Him and proclaim His Return and His Divine Mercy, which will return to establish peace, when the Justice of God has already descended upon this world.

This Sacred Week, My children, is not a simple moment with Christ. You will be in front of the King of the Universe, the same one who one day put His Feet on Earth and announced that He was the Son of God, the same one who perpetuated His surrender and who for more than two thousand years has been converting souls through His Eternal Presence, not only in the Sacred Books, but in the Eucharist and in every heart that can be true and that unites with its neighbor so that, with two or more, they can open the doors of Heaven for His descent.

This Sacred Week, you must live it not only for yourselves, but for humanity, for the triumph of the Plan of God, which must be realized in the human heart as in all the Kingdoms of Nature.

May you be here as soldiers of Christ, as His apostles, to allow yourselves to be formed and transformed by Him, to be forged in the Fire of His Love and so that all creatures who come close to you may recognize the Presence of Christ, recognize that your testimony is true and be touched by the faith of their hearts, to awaken to the truth.

I leave you, my children, this summons to respond to the Call of the Lord, Who is making His Voice echo in your little hearts.

Tonight I will bless you and consecrate you, especially these little ones of Mine who today kneel at My altar, in the hope of finding peace and a purpose for their lives; in the hope of becoming true apostles of Christ, and you will do so, because My Love will impel you, and whenever you are true in your surrender and in your consecration, My Love and My Presence will be among you.

I consecrate you and bless you by the Power of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

May you go in peace and bring My Peace to the whole world.

I thank you.

To say goodbye to Me, sing "Immaculate Lady of Peace" and enter into My Heart as humanity, so that in this way I can also lift up the souls who need My maternal help tonight, who need My protection and My consolation.

Lift up into My Arms, My children, those of your brothers and sisters who need it most. I hear you.
