

2018, 8, 13

Message of the Virgin Mary, 8th day, 13th day, 2018

Dear friends,

I am writing to you today, my dear friends,

to tell you that I am very close to you and I love you very much.

I am with you in every moment of your life, and I will always be with you.

I am with you in every moment of your life, and I will always be with you.

I am with you in every moment of your life, and I will always be with you.

I am with you in every moment of your life, and I will always be with you.

I am with you in every moment of your life, and I will always be with you.

I am with you in every moment of your life, and I will always be with you.

I am with you in every moment of your life, and I will always be with you.

I am with you in every moment of your life, and I will always be with you.

I am with you in every moment of your life, and I will always be with you.

I am with you in every moment of your life, and I will always be with you.